BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1887. The Republican leaders concede that they cannot win in 1888 unless they can carry Indiana and New York The Democrats are entirely satisfied that neither State can be carried by that party. John C. New, of the la dianapolis Journal, says the renomi nation of Baine would be suicidal. He thinks Indiana can be carried by any other Republican, but adds: "We might as well talk about a man flying to the moon as to talk of Blaine carrying Indiana, after his letter in which he said that he could not get justice in the Courts of our state." Mr. New is the ablest p ditician the opposition own in that State and he knows tha Blaine's letter to his Attorney in order-ing the withdrawal of his libel suit, in another campaign would be as bad for him as the unburned Mulligan letters. New was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury under Garfield and he knows all about Blaine,—Ex.

Petitions are in circulation asking congress to provide a fractional paper currency for use in the mails. This would undoubtedly be a great conven-ience to the public. It is now impossible to send any amount less than a dollar with safety through the mails, except by money order or postal note. These can be obtained only at money order post offices, the former at a cos of 8 cent, and the latter 3 cents. Be sides the cost, the annoyance of being obliged to go to the post office, and the necessity of waiting while the mails are being distributed might be avoided by the issue of paper currency. Such currency could be issued through the post offices the same as stamps, and then everybody could be accomedated. Now, people who live in the country at a distance from a money order office have no way of sending money by mail except in even dollars, unless they risk it in silver. If registered, this costs ten cents.

That the great question of championship was not decided, after all, was not the fault either of Mr. Kilram or Mr. Smith, but is chargeable to the fact that the day was not long enough. It is consoling to observe that the pugilists punished each other severely, and there is solace also in the thought that the day has passed when such disgraceful meetings can take place on American or English soil with impunity to the participants, the patronage of Prince, nobility and gentry to the contrary notwithstand-

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—A prominent member of congress, being asked if he had any viows to express as to the bills introduced for the re-triction of immigration, and of the proposal of the steamship companies relative to this subject, said: "I do not hesistate to give you my opinion, but do not wish you for the present to use my name, because I am gathering material for a bill and arguments upon the subject. The bills introduced in congress so far, with the exception of fix. Reagn, would put the control of the immigration into the hands of our consults. A Fatal Premonition.

THE STRANGE AND AWFUL FULLFILMENT

OF A HORRIBLE DREAM. Indiana, Dec. 17 .- There is a singular circumstance connected with the death of a little son of Jacob Con dron, who resides two indes from Smicksburg in West Mahoning town-His counsel, A. Frank Seltzer, moved ship. The family are highly respectis vouched for by responsible parties. On Monday night of last week, Mrs. Condron dreamed that her baby, a boy ber of coufficting stories by the mur-derer as to what became of the children the finding of blood stains on the wall burned from the effects of which it died, and that at the time of the acci almost prohibitory in Philadelphia, of the children in the drain near his home, and the sad news was conveyed house with their skulls crushed and at the lime of the acat-Out of the six thousand licensed sa-loons, there will probably not be one both having been stangled, his subse-morning before Mr. Condron went to his tork some distance from home, she told him of her dream. He was dant denied the confession as being much impressed with the narrative and meeting his father a short time after, told him about it. The dream preyed considerably on Mrs. Condron's mind that morning, but being busy with her household affairs, the terrible scene of ker dream was fading from her memed.

The attendance at the sessions of Court averaged 800 people, while many people remained on the outside anable to gain admittance. The verdict is flames. She made haste to extinguish the fire, but did not succeed until the child was terribly burned. After making the little one as comfortable as pos-sible, her next thought was to send SELMA, Ala, Dec 18.—William W Jordan, a faith doctor, has been living a Selma for the past twelve months and had in that time accurate the self and the self and had in that time accurate. and had in that time acquired great ed its sufferings. This is one of the influence over the negroes, whom he told that he had come to redeem the Jews. He arranged for the passover knowledge, and is un-xplicable. A Boy Murderer.

A telegram from Columbus, Ark. says that a half witted boy, aged 13, named Charles Whitsett, young brother, aged 9, and a sister, aged 6, into the woods and cut their heads off. He returned home and informed his mother what he had done and showed a big kife with which he had committed the deed.

Mrs. Cleveland to Join the Chase.

Washington, Dec. 19 .- Invitations have been issued by the manag r of the swell riding seademy, which is patronized by the Cabinet officials and the leading society people of this city for a grand drag hunt during Christ-mas week. The President and Mrs. Cleveland will follow the chase in a carriage, accompanied by a large num ber of triends. Mrs Cleveland is very partial to this sport, and honored all the paper chases given by Mr. Alex-ander Creger, of the Russian Embassy ast autumn with her presence. The President, however, has never followed the hounds, but has been induced by Mrs, Cleveland to attend on this occasion. Secretary Whitney, who has accepted an invitation to join the party, will ride his fine hunter, whil-Mrs. Whitney and a party of guests will look on from carriages.

The meet will be at Brightwood at 1 o'clock Wednesday, Dec. 28. The drag will be started about a quarter of a mile further on and run over a beautiful hunting country with plenty of fences, ditches and low walls for five or six miles. A turn will be made somewhere near Gov Shepherd's place, and the party will finish within a mile of the start. Mr. J. D Brown, the manager of the huot, expects that fully 100 or 125 ladies and gentlement will ride after the hounds, and probably several hundred will watch the ch a-e from carriages. At the conclusion of the hunt a fine spread will be laid for all the guests.
