Christmas Presents

The stores of the merchants who make a specialty of holiday goods are brilliant how with their di-plays of pretty things, useful and ornamental, for Christmas presents. To attempt to name particularly all who make a specialty of this season, would be to give a list of nearly every business place in town. Our readers can ascertain the special line of each one by reference to our advertising columns. The show-windows were never more attractive than now Each year seems to produce articles more beautiful than the preceding year.
