

This powder never varies. A marvel of purnight and wholesomeness. More economic a ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in comon with the multitude of low test, short weig m or phosphate powders. Sold only in cahoyal Bakhate Powders Cu. Wall St. N. Y.

Columbian

BLOOMSBURG, PA

FRIDAY, JANUARY 6, 1888.

CORRACT MAILEOAD TIME TAPLE. COMBRURG & FULLIVAN RAILROAL

N. & W. B. Rallway pass Blo 80UTH. 11:54 a. m. 4-10 p. m. 10:46 a. m. 6.95 p. m. BUNDAY. NORTH. 10:16 a m 800TH.

SALES.

Jan. 21.—Enos Jacoby, Trustee of John Jacoby, deceased, will sell valuable real es-tate, on the premises, in Bioomsburg, at 10 o'clock a. m.

January 7.—Elias Heichard, executor of the estate of Wm. N. A. Rogers, late of Orange township, deceased, will sell valu-able real estate on the premises, at 10

Notice of Election.

There will be an election of a Board of Directors of the Bloomsburg Banking Company, to serve for the ensuing year, at their Banking House in Bloomsburg on Tuesday, January 10, 1888, at 2 o'clock p. m.
H. H. Grotz, Cashier.

Buy Lester's Binghamton Kip Boots. Best made.

Personal.

Engineer Lutz went to Annapolis, Md Miss Annie Ent returned from Brookly

last Friday evening. F. G. Thorne, Jr., of Philadelphia, visi ed friends in town last week. Miss Simon, of Harrisbur visiting Miss Pauline Kester. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Shipley of Cincin nati, recently buried their infant son.

Warren Eyer started south last Friday morning to join an engineer corps at An-W. W. Drinker went to Scranton on Wednesday, where he will attend a business college.

Mr. Frank Bertsch of Mauch Chunk, ha been visiting his brother, G. W. Bertsch, during the past week. Miss Dora Marr left last week for Provi dence, R. I., to take a course in stenography and type writing. Harry Chemberlin spent the Christma business at Bethlehem, Pa.

Dr. D. H. Montgomery of Mifflinville was than it did. A horse attached to a sleigh in town on Tuesday. He is a progressive belonging to Chas. Werkheiser of Buck citizen and believes in free bridges across

Mr. Lloyd P. Zaner, son of John Zaner started West Wednesday morning. He expects to visit at Columbus, Ohio, and Audubon, Iowa. Mrs. A. M. Rea, Misses Alice and Tilli Rea, and W. G. Shoop, all of Danville, Pa. registered at the St. James yesterday. Jacksonville, Fla., News-Herald, Dec. 26.

Mr. A. W. Musgrave returned on Wednesday to Philadelphia, where he is attending the College of Pharmacy. He has bee spending the holidays with his parents at

The following students spent the Christ mas holidays at home : Miss Mildred Knorr, Miss Carrie Jameson, J. C. Reifanyder, E F. Smith, F. A. Ikeler, F. T. Ikeler, Sam Harman, J. Herring, Matthew McReynolds, Frank Aurand, Lee Harma

Mr. Lloyd M. Kelchner, of Lightstreet left Wednesday morning for Delaware Ohio, where he will be one of the instru ors in penmanship in the school in which he was taught the art. Mr. Kelchner seem to have a natural talent and with cultiva tion will be very successful.

The public schools will open on Monday Our fox hunters were out Tuesday, bu were not successful.

Every one of the institute week was largely attended.

The Williamsport toboggan slide put in operation last week.

The Montour county teachers' instit was held at Danville last week.

Go to L. Viereck's Shaving and Hair cut ting saloon. Twelve shaves for $1. Christmas comes this year on Tuesday skipping Monday because it is leap year. Particular attention given to Ladies' and Childrens' Hair cutting at Louis Viereck's. Many handsome calendars have been issued for 1888 by large business firms all over the country.

Qui te a number of country weeklies en joyed the holiday season last week by not publishing a paper. G. S. Herring's dwelling on North Mair street is fast nearing completion, and looks better with each day's progress.

Ent Post, 250, G. A. R. will have a pu lic installation of officers at 7 o'clock Pri-day evening, Jan. 6. All are invited.

A sleighing party of young people from Danville came up here Tuesday night and spent the evening at the Exchange Hetel.

A sleighing party of young people from ten. Numerous beautiful gifts were be stowed upon Mr. and Mrs. Fleckenstine and the day was a happy one

The Normal school opened Tuesday morning. Newly arrived students were to be seen passing up Main street all day.

Street Commissioner Billmeyer, is busy laying sewer p.pe up East street from Sixth. He has a large force of workmen. Wm. Kramer has bought the Chemberlin property on upper Main street for $3,000 from the executors of John M.

We are better prepared than ever before to do printing, and we propose to make the printing business hum this year. Bring in your orders. It is now I. W. Hartman & Sons, Robert

E. Hartman having gone into the firm on Monday. They are among our foremost Seventeen years experience in the Barber usiness. Am prepared to please the most astidious. Clean towels, and twelve shayes for $1 at Louis Viereck's. Throw salt or ashes on your pavement you cannot get the ice off in any other way. Solled doorsteps and carpets are referable to broken limbs. Col. Freeze received a postal card, mailed at Shenandosh, and very carefully adfressed, but upon which the sender had forgotten to write his message.

Fodder cutters and crushers, also a ine of bob sleds.

WRITE, CONNER & SLOAN, decOtf Orangeville, Pa. Mrs. James Brown Potter, the celebrates condon a short time ago as a professional played "Romeo and Juliet" in Wilkesbarre

Mr. James Cadman and family ren he fore part of this week, from Main stree to the house formerly occupied by Mr. Rosenstock, on the corner of East and Third streets. Great hopes of good sleighing were rais ed in the minds of many by the snow that fell thick and fast all day Saturday, bu hey were dashed to earth by the rain that A gospel mass meeting will be held in the Opera House on Sunday afternoon, January 8th, at 3 o'clock. Rev. Thomas Needham will conduct the services. Everybody will be welcomed. The old democratic court crier of Northampton county, who has held the office for wenty-one years, was, a few days ago, removed, by the two new republican judges. That is civil service reform, don't you see! We are glad to note that some of our readers are appreciating the column devot ed to the International Sunday School lesson. We hope all our readers may become interested. It will be a valuable assistant to Sunday School teachers. A masquerade ball was given at Music Hall last Monday evening and was well attended. There were a large number present from Dapville as well as from town. Dance ing was kept up until a late hour. Metherells orchestra furnished the music. List of letters remaining in the postoffic t Benton for month ending Dec. 31, 1887.

W. C. Hallford, Mr. J. R. Hess. Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised." ELLA E. APPLEMAN, P. M.

A handsomely carved super-altar, brass rod and dosel were placed in the chance of the Episcopal church on Christman They were the gifts of Miss Sarah Chase of Boston, Mass., a niece of Rev. W. C. Leverett's. The dosel is of crimson plush, and the entire effect is very beautiful save cases in the Supreme Court to have their paper books printed. If all put it off until the last moment it will be difficult for the printers to do the work in time. The COLUMBIAN office can turn them out at the rate of sixteen pages a day, if necessary, Communion services will be held in the Evangelical church, on next Sunday morning by Rev. M. J. Carothers of Milton He will also preach on Saturday evening Sunday morning and Sunday evening. All are cordially invited.

REV. J. F. SHULTZ, Pastor. An accident occured Monday on Main holidays at this place. He is engaged in street in front of I. W. McKelvy's store that might have resulted more seriously than it did. A horse attached to a sleigh orn, slipped and fell down. Fortunately, no damage was done beyond breaking the

> Dr. T. C. Harter, who has been visiting the different medical institutions in several states, during the last year, is home spend ing the holidays. He has become noted for the successful treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. He expects to spend the winter in New York and return in the spring to practice his profession in Blooms prictors of the Orangeville Agricultural Works, speak well of their business during the past year. Their thresher and separ ator has a wide reputation and the sales in creasing from year to year. Our farmers can not do better than patronize them for their machines are first-class.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. . Cadman Friday evening of last week at their former home on upper Main street. The evening was spent in dancing, which was kept up until a late hour; a stop being made only for refreshments. The dancing was done in the rooms on the first floor, formerly occupied by Mr. Cadman as a urniture store. All present enjoyed a very leasant evening

List of letters remaining in the Post Of ce at Bloomsburg for week ending Jan.

Jackson Davis, Miss Maggie Fawber, Mr. L. E. Fry, Mr. Hiram S. Girton Ed. Lerch, John Roat, Samuel Stratton, Mr. W. E. Smith, Rev. J. P. Shults, E. Treat, Chas.

Persons calling for these letters GRORGE A. CLARK, P. M.

The number of applicants for license cense is probably the cause of it. While the number is thus reduced, the revenue to the County is far in excess. The revenue from all applicants last year was $3750.00 while this year it aggregates $7350 00. There are thirty-three applicants from doomsburg, Berwick and Centralia, leaving only thirty-two for the balance of county.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fleckenstine Drangeville celebrated their golden wedding on December 28. There were present many guests, including seven children, Joseph, George, Jacob, William, Mrs. Sam-uel Hidley, Mrs. W. H. Snyder, and Mrs. G. W. Bertsch. There were also some grandchildren, and two great grandchild

The Welsh Prize Singers gave their concert at the Opera House last Monday ovening to a much smaller audience than they deserved. A two part program was well carried out. Both the chorus singing and solos, duets and quartettes were very prettily rendered. The harp playing of Mr. Welter T. Barber, who also presided

Mr. Walter T. Barker, who also presides at the plane, was an excellent feature of the program. He is an artist of great ed and well received by the audience The whole entertainment was a very en-joyable one and should have had a large

Speaking of the appointment of Exaperintendent Wolverton of Northumberand county as principal of the public schools of this place the Milton Argus says: The above appointment will be hailed with much pleasure by the friends of Professor Volverton. His duties as Superintenden for this county for three terms gave great tisfaction. He is a fine educator, and vill carry to the people of Bloomsburg an ndance of learning which the experence of years enables him to impart to others. We shall regret to see him leave Milton and trust that he may meet with the same favor among our neighbors as he has

Mr. R. L. F. Colley died last Sunday norning at his home on lower Main street, after an illness of only a few days. He was taken ill on Wednesday, with pleurisy, and lingered only until Sunday morning about six o'clock, when he passed away. The deceased was aged about sixty-four ears, and leaves a wife and three child en to mourn his loss. Services were held the honse on Tuesday morning, and the remains were taken by the morning train on the B. & S. road to Benton, where the funeral sermon was preached at the Christian church by Rev. D. M. Kinter, and the remains interred in the cemetery there. The widow and children have the sympathy of the community.

During the year 1885 the number of jobs of printing done at this office was the largest within the knowledge of the present owners, and we may safely say larger than any previous year since the establish ment of the paper, or any of its predeces sors. In 1886 the number of jobs done was one hundred greater than 1885, and during the past year, 1887, it was fifty more than 1886. This may not be of any interest to any one but ourselves, but it shows the steady and constant growth of our trade in the face of strong competition. This we attribute to the fact that our facil. ities for doing all kinds of printing are unexcelled, and the workmanship and prices are satisfactory to our patrons. We guarntee satisfaction on all our work.

At the residence of Mrs. R. A. Snyder on December 20th, a very pleasant affair took place in the marriage of Mr. George V. Kitchen of Millville and Miss Ada L Beers, of Mordansville. A number of guests had been invited, and the party assembled at 9 o'clock s. m. The bride and groom were united in holy wedlock by Rev. A. B. Hooven of Orangeville. After the congratulations had been extended, re reshments were served up in good style, and all partook of them with relish. A leasant exchange of social greeting folowed, and the happy couple started on a short trip, bearing with them the best wishes of all present. A number of valuable presents were given by the friends, accompanied by their unanimous wish that the future of the new couple might be one of unbounded success and happiness.

Mr. J. K. Lockard has submitted plans o mechanics for the construction of his new brick building on corner of Main and 1. "Pure Bred Poultry"-by W. B. Ger-Centre street. Work will be commeaced man, Millville, Pa. frame building has been purchased by Mr. Clark and will be moved across the street. The new building will be a three story brick. The front will be of different archi ecture from any of our present buildings. The first story front will have galvanized iron columns. The second and third story fronts will be heavily coped with brownstone. Mr. Lockard has some thought of of finishing the second story into rooms suitable for small families, who wish to board at hotels and the prefer private rooms. He has had several applications for such rooms, and will determine as the building progresses, by the applications received. The building will be 29 feet wide and 86 feet deep.

The new year was ushered in as usus last Saturday night by the ringing of church bells, tooting of horns, etc. Watch meetings were held in several of the shurches. The noise on the streets was not as loud as usual, on account of the rain that felt all night and continued all day Sunday, taking away nearly all the snow that had fallen Saturday. The water overflowed the pavements and in some places was more than an inch in depth causing very sloppy walking and preventing many from attending church during the day. Sunday night it began to grow older and continued to do so, until by oon Monday it was exceedingly cold. A strong wind blew all Monday afternoon, making it much colder. Quite a number took advantage of the snow still on the ground to go sleigh-riding Monday, but he snow had been nearly all taken away by the steady rain, and the sleighing was ather poor, except in places where th ground was covered with ice, where sleighs slipped along smoothly. The cold weather, too, was rather sharp for pleasant sleighing. In town, the banks and postoffice were closed, but nearly all the business places were open all day long. Very few New Year calls were made. This custom, however, has not been generally observed on previous years. In the evening the Welsh Prize Singers gave an entertain ment in the Opera House, which was no largely attended. There was very little drunkenness in town either on New Year's eve or on Monday.

A Narrow Escape Monday morning small boys were coas oung son of Chas. E. Riece, got on his led at the top of the hill. Lying flat upon the sled he began the descent. A gentle man and lady were coming up Main street with horse and buggy, driving leisurely. The sled coming with such rapidity could not be stopped, and darted under the horse The horse began jumping and kicking, and clishing the sled. The front wheel of the wagon ran over the boy, when he was aken out between the wheels, with a few bruises. It was a miraculous escape, and should be a lesson to parents, to keep their children off the bills leading across our treets. The officers of the town should see that our ordinances are enforced.

This is Good Enough.

Mr. C. E. Bartholomew, Kalkaska, Mich says: "I owe my life solely to Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout N. Y. I had liver and kidney disease, and for five years was unable to go about. I am now well, and can do a man's work on my farm. I shall always hold up both ands for Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Price $1.08 a bottle; six for $5. (dec28de

Buy Lester's Binghamton Kip Best made.

Away from the eyes, away from the mind Do away with impure blood, and the evi-dence of ill health will soon disappear. Use Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla and secure pure blood and good health. The largest bottle in the market. 150 doses for $1.00

Where is it? It is on the main road the creek, about a mile below Stillwater Much of the land in sight once belonged William Ikeler. He sold several building ots and laid out a little town, and though he was unfortunate, and all his fine prop-erty went out of his hands before his death yet, in memory, of the old gentleman, we call it Ikelertown. It is made up of eight

lwelling houses and their accompan ogether, with a planing mill where T. E igar is doing a fine business. There is no part of the valley, that I know of, that affords more diversity of scenery, or a more beautiful landscape. On the east of us, and close by, the ridge rises abruptly and forms an almost perper dicular ledge of rocks for some distance then it is broken into rugged points by leep ravines that cut through it. Down one of these a little stream dashes and supplies a tank, out of which, the "Iron Horse" is watered every day. The R R is built along the base of the ridge, and the waters of our far famed Fishingreek, now quietly, then spreading into wider space, ripple over their rocky bed. These naked rocks, this broken ridge, train of cars, that leaves behind it a cloud of melting vapor, make a so ne not every-where found. Looking North and West ve have a view, though not so romantic as the other, is beautiful. A number of fine farms are in sight the fields of some of which ascend gently from the bottom lands until they almost reach the tops of the west-ern ridge. Fine rural homes also, are in view, among them the late residence of the much lamented Silas McHenry, of Daniel McHenry, of Judge C. B. McHenry, Stott McHenry, Henry Kelchner and others And here, on an eminence, stands the anique little church, where the Christian Congregation meet every Lord's day for the work of the Sundayschool and the worship of God. This to me, is the most ineresting spot in the whole landscape. Forty-seven years ago I was active in the erecion, on this spot, of the first house o worship in three adjoining townships; there too, lie the most of the old people, of this part of the valley, who have departed this life, and though I am not a native of this place, nor skin to these old people yet I renember them gratefully, for when I was a stranger they took me in; when I was hun gry they fed me, and their social and religious lives were intimately connected with my early manhood. Being mostly farmers, quotation from the "Farmer's Elegy," by Lord, will apply here.

on a green grassy knoll on the banks of the brook. That so long, and so often, had watered his stock. The old farmer rests in his long, inst sleep. And the low, lapsing waters a luilaby keep. The flowers in beauty may bloom on the spot, The birds may be singing, he heedeth them not.; For he has plowed his last furrow and reaped his last grain; No morning shall wake him to labor again.

Farmer's Institute. The following is the programme of th Farmers' Institute and General Farmer Convention, to be held under the suspic of the Pennsylvania State Board of Agr culture, in accordance with an Act of the Legislature, in the Free Church, Millville, Columbia County, Penn's, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 11, 12 and 18, 1888.

ORDER OF BUSINESS. WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.—17.
1:80 p. m. ORGANIZATION Exercises. Essays & Di

L. Clapp, Member of State Board of Agri ulture, Limestoneville, Pa-3. "How can the farmer make the mo

Col. John Jameson, Bloomsburg, Pa.
4. "Facts Learned in the Departm hygiene and food inspection"-by Dr. Hen y Leffman, inspector, Philadelphia, Pa. VEDNESDAY EVE .- Call to Order at 7:15 p. n

2. Illustrated Lecture-Dr. Henry Leff. mann, Microscopist and Food Inspector of the Board, will deliver an Illustrated Le ture on "The Causes of Disease." Admission free. Lecture to co at 7:80 p. m. THUR. MORNING. -Call to Order at 9:30 a. m 1. "Value and Advantage of the Cream ery to the Farmer"-by John Hoffa, Member of State Board of Agriculture, Milton, Pa.

2. "Dairying in Columbia County"—by

A. P. Young, Miliville, Pa.

8. "How shall we increase the profits of our Dairy Products?.-by Morto: Decker, Manufacturer of Gilt Edged Butter and Wholesale Cream Dealer, East Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pa.
4. "Grain for Farm and Market"-by

H. V. White, Secretary of Columbia County Agricultural Society, Bloomsburg, Pa. THUR. AFTER.-Call to Order at 1:30 p. m 1. "Pleasure and Profit of Bee Keepng"-by H. H. Brown, Light Street, Pa. 2. "Care of the Houey Bee during the Winter and Spring" -- by W. G. Follmer, Milton, Pa.

3. Illustrated Lecture on the "Repre duction of the Honey Bee" -by G. G.Grofft, Professor of Natural History, Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa. 4. "Wintering Bees-The Best Way" by William McEwen, Millville, Pa.

5. "Grapes, and how to grow them" by J. R. Townsend, Bloomsburg, Pa. PRURSDAY EVE .-- Call to Order at 7:15 p. m 2. Address ... by Dr. Elwood Harvey, Member of State Board of Agriculture,

Chester, Pa .... Subject: "The Near Future of Farming Interest." FRIDAY MORN ... Call to Order at 7:30 p. m 1. "Principles of Fertilization"--- by Wil liam Frear, Ph. D. Agricultural Chemist State College, Centre county, Pa. "Lime vs. Phospate"---by Moses Bond, Turbotville, Pa. 8. "Experiments with Commercial Fer tilizers"---by John A. Gundy, Member of

State Board of Agriculture, Lewisburg, Pa. 4. Answer to Question Relating to Fer ilizers-by Thomas J. Edge, Secretary of State Board of Agriculture, Harrisburg, Pa 5. "Fruit Culture as a Specialty"-W Voris, Pottagrove, Pa. FRIDAY AFT. - Call to Order at 1:30 1. Music.

"The Home and the Household" ... b W. Henrie, Millville, Pa. "Adornment of Farmers' Homes" Winthrop Bryfogle, Bloomsburg, Pa. 4. "Choose Ye".-Miss Amelia Armstong Blooms burg, Pa. 5. Subject to be selected-by E. H. Cutler, Principle of the Friends' School, at FRIDAY Eve .... Call to Order at 7:15 p. 1. Music. 2. Address...by E. R. Ikeler, Esq. Bloomsburg, Pa. -- Subject: "A Plea Planters.

Adm. free. Lecture to com. at 7:80 For Piles, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sore broat, Stiff Neck, Pond's Extract is an invaluable remedy. Neuralgia and Rheuma ism, and many other ills alike in characte and any external or internal Inflammation or Bleedings, yield quickly to its magic infuence. Pond's extract is sold everywhere

CHARLES B. BROCKWAY.

Captain Charles B. Brockway died at his ne on Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, after an illness of several weeks. He had been in failing health for some time, and his death was not unexpected.

He was born in this county April 1, 1840.

At the age of ten years, he commenced driving a team on the canal during mmer months and in winter hired his services as best he could, sometimes the repairs of the canal, sometimes in the family of some prominent citizen. At the age of fifteen he filled the position of veighmaster on the canal at Beach Haven. In 1858 he was appointed chief clerk in the Attorney General's office at Harrisburg, ly elected by the Institute: President, Prof. appointment as Minister Resident at Quito.

Ecuador, whom he accompanied in the capacity of private accompanies accompan capacity of private secretary. During his stay in that country he mastered the Span, ish language, became familiar with the geography and topography of the country. he manners and habits of the people to s surprising degree, as manifested in his over the signature of "Quien babe" (who knows.) On his return from Spain he taught school one winter, and then entered the office of E H. Little, Esq., to study the lexal

V. C , (the Iron Guards) and was elected Bergeant. He afterward collisted as a private in the three years service, and was mustered into Battery F. First Pennsylvania Light Artillery, then commanded by Captain Matthews, and afterward by Col. Ricketts. In this organization he soon became a Sergeant. The battery was at first attached to the Reserve Corps at Tenallytown, but soon after was detatched and ordered to Bank's command at Darnestown, Maryland. Here a section of Parrott guns was added to the battery, and immediately after it was ordered to Williamsport, Maryland. Captain Matthews being short of officers, applied to Governor Curtin for an order for election to fill the vacancy, which was made. Captain Brockway was unanimously elected, and at once took command of the section.

He made himself a high reputation as brave officer. Col. Bryan's official report of Bull Run says: "Lieut. Brockway, with the other officers captured, was marched on foot to the Rapidan River, and from thence was conveyed to Libby Prison, as one of Pope's felons, where he remained until exchanged. He was a prisoner when Antietam was fought, and it was the only engagement of the war he missed in which his Battery participated. At Fredericksburg it held an mportant position, covering the lower pontoon bridge, and was subject to a heavy fire."

The Battery participated in all the other oattles of the Campaign, and distinguished tself at Spottsylvania, North Anna River, the Tolopotomy, Cold Harbor, and the various fights in front of Petersburg.

Soon after reaching Petersburg Capt Brockway was appointed Assistant Chief of Artillery to Gen. Hazzard, then on Gen. Hancock's Staff as Chief of Artillery of the Second Corps. This position he held until after the Mine explosion, when he was attacked with typhoid fever, brought on by over exertion, and was first granted a leave of absence, and then sent to the Hos pital at Annapolis.

His health continuing feeble he felt compelled to resign after three years and nearly eight months continuous service. Subequently, Gov. Curtin commissioned him Captain of his old Battery. For gallant and meritorious conduct at Bull Run, he was also breveted Captain.

he developed marked ability. In 1870 he was the Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, then strongly Republican, and was defeated by Ulyssas Mercer by only 124 votes. He represented this county in the State Legislature in 1371-2-3. In 1867 he became associated with Col. Freeze in publishing THE COLUMBIAN, and subsequently became sole owner. In September 1874 he formed a law partnership with Geo. E Elwell, and in October 187 they purchased THE COLUMBIAN and conducted it for years. Since October 1879, Mr. Brockway has attended to his law

Mrs. Brockway and three daughters sur vive him. The funeral will take place at the house this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be conducted by Ent Post G. A. R. The members of the Bar will attend in a body.

Death of Wm. Brown Mr. Wm. Brown, a former resident his town, died suddenly at Pottsgrove Thursday of last week, of pneumonia. had a severe cough for several days preceding, but did not think it serious enough to call in a physician. Thursday he was sitting on a sofa, with his head reclining on a chair, to get relief from coughing; he attempted to lie down on the sofa and expired without a word of warning. He was 46 years of age. His body was inter red at Milton Saturday. Mr. Brown was brother-in-law of our townsman, Mr. C. E. Savage. He was in the grocery but in this place for a number of years.

The Seventh Winona Reception was given at the Exchange Hotel on Friday night December 50. Dancing began in the dining room at about ten o'clock and continued until five in the morning with an intermission for supper. The music was furnished by Henry's orchestra of Sunbury, and consisted of seven pieces. It was very good. The supper was excellent and em braced all the delicacies of the season The costumes of 'he ladies were beautiful, and most of the gentlemen were in full evening dress. Forty-three couples were present. The following named persons from out of town were in attendance : Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Coughlin, Milford N. J.; Mrs. J. J. Leicer, Helens, Montana; Miss Kate Price, Edington, Pa; Misses Jenuie and Sara Moody, Miss Jessie Mann Sunbury; Miss Mary Fairchild, Montandon; Miss Mame Simon, Harrisburg; Misses Nellie and May Dean, Danville; Mr. W. E. Renshaw, Plymouth; Mr. H. B. Hughes, Pittston; Mr. J. J. VanOrt, Scranton; Miss Eyans, Mr. A. M. Freas, Mr. Thos. Hanly, Berwick; Mr. J. C. Wiegand, Mr. Joe Stone, Hazleton; Mr. F. G. Thorne Jr. Philadelphia; Mr. Frank Forsman, Williamsport; Mr. M. Bruner, Muncy, Mr. Ira Speaker, Lewisburg; Mr. Frank Bertsch Mauch Chunk.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To THE EDITOR-Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been per manently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. Slocum, M C., 181 Pearl St., New York. nc nov256m

Dr. Kilmer & Co., of Binghamten, N. Y., are now working a night and day force to supply the druggists' orders for their Swamp-Root Kidney, Liver and Bladder of Columbia county assembled in the Opera House, this town, on Monday Dec. 26th, at 2 o'clock p. m.

County Institute.

2 o'clock p. m. Superintendent Grimes having called the Institute to order, Rev. W. C. Leverett conducted the devotional exercises by reading a portion of the scriptures and offering Rev. D. J. Waller, Sr., was then intro duced, who welcomed the teachers in a few pertinent remarks, after which all were entertained with music. The committee on arrangements reported the following officers who were immediate mind.

Prof. Frye of Cambridge, Mass., was then introduced who spoke on Geography. After giving the history of the science, he showed how the subject should be taught. Dr. Winship spoke on the cultivation of the memory. J. C. Brown and Prof. Wilbur then re sponded to Rev. Waller's address in short

"Silently Falling Snow."

"The Dignity of Common Schools" was then ably discussed by Prof. Clark, principal of the Berwick schools.

Dr. Waller followed in the season...

"Winship spoke on the cultivation of the memory.

Mr. Kline, teacher in the Berwick schools, gave an interesting talk on Friday afternoon rhetorical exercises. Institute adjourned.

Dr. Waller followed in an address on "Primary Physiology." The Dr. gave the following necessary conditional principles:

1. "Teachers should have a clear conception of the object of the study—the promotion of the physical well-being of the community and especially of the children.

2. Should understand the mental state of those with whom you are dealing. Should cultivate the senses, which are the After music by the Institute, Miss Guie gave a recitation which was well rendered. gate-ways from the external world to the

3. "Must believe what you wish to gave a recitation which was well rendered.

Prof. Bevan made a short addressAfter some remarks by Dr. Waller, Profs. Monroe and Wolverton concerning the evening lecture, the Institute adjourned. Music-"Thoughts of Wonder." FRIDAY MORNING. Prof. Grimes then announced that the institute would be divided for the morning sessions—the primary teachers to report in the Third Street school building and all others in the Opera House.

After a few remarks by Dr. Waller and Prof. Grimes concerning the evening lectures, the Institute sang the "Long Metre Doxology" and dismissed for the day.

TURBEAT MORNING.

After music, reading of scripture and prayer by Dr. Waller, Jr., Prof. Harkens addressed the Institute on composition writing. Pupils atudy a few branches which are of no more importance than other branches which are not taught. Pupils who are proficient in some branches are deficient in the use of words and in language. Composition writing alds greatly to cultivate the mind. Teachers should give necessary information on the subject.

TUESDAY MOBNING.

TURSDAY MORNING.

The exercises of the day were opened by singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name;" and reading of scripture and prayer by Rev. Manhart.

Prof. Neff, the first speaker, introduced the subject of "Reading," which underlies everything. "In teaching reading you are teaching every subject. Reading aloud is no test as to whether you have the thought—it is not necessary to give it in the language of the exercises of the subject of the subject of the globe before the continent. Dr. Waller, the next speaker, talked on advanced reading. Reading, like talking, consists in the oral expression of thought.

A correct utterance is not the object of the globe. It depends upon the child's mind, You should teach the globe before the continent. Or. Waller, the next speaker, talked on advanced reading. Reading, like talking, consists in the oral expression of thought. —it is not necessary to give it in the lan-guage of the book. If pupils have thought Brooks talked on the use of perception to they will give proper gesture. Therefore, gostures need not be taught."

After singing, Mr. Curry gave a very inject of "History."

teresting and instructive talk on the subject of "History."

Mr. W. C. Johoston next spoke on the subject "How to Improve our Public Schools?" followed by music and a short intermission.

When Institute was called to order again Prof. Neff continued the subject of reading gage—develop sentence and language—develop sentence by coming in contact with that which is to be impressed."

Dr. Waller then discussed the subject of "Self Education." "No one is too old to begin—No one will ever become educated merely by the use of a hand book.—If you wish to become proficient in any branch, it is necessary to develop power in that direction.

TUESDAY P. M.

After singing several selections, Mr. McHenry, director from Berwick, read a paper on "School Government."

Prof. Welsh, teacher in the West Chester State Normal School, followed in an address on "Letter Writing," as it should be taught in our schools.

Dr. L. B. Kline next read a paper on "School Reading." He steady of the subject of the Institute with their vocal and instrumental music.

After the close of the war he finished his dress on "Letter Writing," as it should be who so delighted the Institute with their Dr. L. B. Kline next read a paper on vocal and instumental music. "Supplementary Reading." He stated "that newspapers, journals, etc., should be taken and used as supplementary reading.

These should be secured by appropitation from School Board, or by contribution from pupils, Prof. Neff then gave a class drill, the object of which was to show that a pupil may be able to pronounce all the words, even read with a fair degree of fluency, and yet be losing the benefit that should be derived from every reading lesson. The Professor was followed by Dr. Winship, who showed how important it is that the teacher should understand that upon which he operates. Adjourned to Wednesday a. m WEDNESDAY MOENING. After the usual opening exercises, Prof. Neff continued the subject of "Reading. "If the pupils are able to get the thought, good oral impression will follow as a cause from an effect.-The whole responsibility of starting the pupils right, rests on the pr mary teacher; for if started correctly nothing afterward can spoil the child.-Reading is the foundation upon which all othe branches rest .- Mistakes will have to be passed as correcting takes the child's mind from the thought.-Teachers should not teach the pronunciation they do not use themselves.-Much of the trouble is caused by going too fast. Reading is all done in the mind-pupils should not read orally until they can do so without thinking of the words: if the words are thought of, the thought will be lost. Singing. - "Twilight is Stealing." Supt. W. S. Monroe then took up th subject of Language. "Too often children not understanding the thought of the prob lem lose it.-Children delight in the power of expressing themselves .-- Teachers should be good story-tellers.—Teach the children to paragraph without knowing it .- Do not allow carelessness—take interesting sub-jects. Tescher should keep scrap book and save everything which would answer for a language lesson. Books of fables have an excellent effect—take something instructive as well as interesting. Avoid use of text books. Keep a list of common errors and impress them at the proper time. When children are too young to write, cultivate oral expression—language should be begun very early."

Dr. Winship then spoke on School Discipling. "An element of weakpass in discipling."

pline. "An element of weakness in disci pline when you wish to hold attention is you must get your pupils close to you when you can not command stiention at a distance. To scold is an element of weakness—the voice scolds, not the words. The teacher needs elocutionary training in the highest degree. A teacher needs a mild, firm and penetrating voice. A teacher firm and penetrating voice. A teacher needs a mild, firm and penetrating voice. A teacher ought always to smile a genuine smile, not a sickly, sentimental or a grim smile. To be a successful elocutionist, the whole face must vibrate with feeling. There is as much force in the glow of the forehead as in the smile. It requires more work to hold little children to their work than to hold older children."

Mr. A. M. Frees read a paper on Civil Government. He says "the subject is very Government. He says "the subject is very practical and yet not known by the masses. Men are being elected to Congress who are ignorant of the Nation's wants. The place mon schools, not in college; for in the common schools the masses can be reached. The subject should first be taken up as a whole and the pupil be taught to get the whole and wherefore. Civil Government should be made a requisite, and put on an equal with the other branches." The next speaker not having arrived Prof. Clark and Mr. Curry made short ad dresses emphasizing what was said by Mr.

After music and a short recess, Noff gave an interesting talk on criticising.
"To know how to criticise is one of utmoimportance—the object is to remove the Institute adjourned to 2 p. m.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

After singing by the Institute, Mr. Moy er, principal of the Kingston schools, gave an interesting and instructive talk on sup

THURSDAY MORNING.

After singing, reading of the scripture of prayer, Dr. Brooks delivered an ad-ress on the nature and culture of the Institute adjourned.

plementary reading.

Dr. Winship then gave a short talk on addition, after which he discussed the subject of achool government, emphasizing what he said in the forenoon.

Prof. Neff then talked on Phonetics, after which a pupil from the high school of this town favored the Institute with a well rendered solo.

of the new year.

great sales. We are making ed down.

A daily drum-beat calls up gives them a double-quick step toward the door.

and lots of good things as cheap and often cheaper, than else-

We cannot wait for a certain month to sell down, but continually watch, like the lookout on the ship. We seek the open channel of quickest progress and steer clear of all that stops our way.

key-note of the new year. With might and main we grasp the ropes and, as we haul, ring out loud and long-

"The freshest goods" "The choicest goods" "The very best of very best" We crowd ourselves to open the new things.

> hammered-down stock. Thus we hope to brighten trade. This is our way of starting the new year. If you like it when you see what we are do-chestnut, Thirteenth and Market streets, and City-hall square.

50 Remnants of Ladies' Cloths, Black and Colored Cashmeres, &c. 1 to 7 yards to be sold this and next week at I W. Ready trimmed hats and bonnets, felt by calling soon. omsburg and vicinity for their aid and ouragement during the Institute. sooked That the Institute highly appre-You will find bargains in Blankets, Costs, Shawls, &c., at Clark & Son's. Prices greatly reduced to close. and lecturers and the carrying out of the general program of the Institute, and we take this means of congratulating him on Ladies, Misses and Children's Coats at 1.

the successful termination of this the bes Institute ever held in the history of Colum 4tJan6*.

> H. G. CLARK. THOMAS CURRY, J. F. HARRINS, Com. CANDACE BROWN, NORA M. FINNEY.

The Co. Supt. announced the following persons whose duty it shall be to see that local institutes are held in the different parts of the county: I. H. Winter, H. G. Clark, W. J. Wolverton, Thomas Curry. W. W. Heffner, J. F. Harkens, S. S. Fritz, W. C. Lebaston and Chas Gitton. V. C. Johnston and Chas. Girton After a few remarks by Dr. Waller and tev. Manhart, the Co. Supt. adjourned the used. You who lead sedentary lives will fine pound, sure to relieve you. Persons of sedentary habits often suffer with kidney affections. If they would maintain the strength of the digestive organs and improve the quality of the blood by taking the Regulator it would restore the kidney to health and vigor. Here are a few ways to help your town great relief from constipation, headache and ervousness, by taking Simmons Regulator.

It is a simple, harmless, vegetable com oleed That we thank the sell all you can and buy all you can a nome; if you are rich, invest your money in manufactories; be courteous to stranger that come among you, so that they go away with good impressions. - Ex.

> WANAMAKER'S. PRILADELPHIA. Monday, Jan. 2, 1888.

Wanamaker to his friends everywhere: *We mark 1887 with a star in the history of our business. The bright and good old year fades out, but not so its experiences and encouragements.

Ten thousand thanks to those

4 New Year's Letter from John who helped to crowd the year with gratifying incident. Accept our most hearty good wishes and cordial congratula-

The impetus given by the great current of events dashing through last year carries us forward to attempt larger things for the new year.

1888 shall be indeed a lear year: better service and useful-to-morrow, the first full business day of the new year, we shall open the new campaign. Circumstances combine to help us do some fine things for our friends from the beginning

WANAMAKER'S.

We haven't more than a single sentence to say about them every day. That's what the store is for. We always have lots of goods that are mark-all the old soldiers of goods and

So, then, note the fact that, no matter what the reason, there can always be found here lots where-reduced from day to day because they must be closed

Now then let us strike the

"The newest goods"

Your money shall take fresh us as teachers.
After music by Institute, Miss Buckbee talked on "Clay Modeling." Institute adjourned.
FRIDAY AFTERNOON. goods at no greater cost than might otherwise go into old, > our store, increase the activity of our stock, and greaten our ing say so to your friends. JOHN WANAMAKER.

LOCAL NOTICES.

hats, funcy feathers, Toboggan and Tam O'Shanter caps, reduced in price at Miss E. Barkley's, Main street, below Market. All in need of such goods can secure bargains

The undersigned, having secured all the appliances for embalming, is now prepared to attend to all calls pertaining to the un-

H. B. Angle, Espy, Pa, When you write to I. W. Hartman & Son, after this, place an S at the end, which will make it 1. W. Hartman & Sons.

Mikilip BLOOMSBURG. Fine Cabinet portraits only $3. doz. Life size Crayons only $10.00. Viewing, copying and enlarging. Instant process

Muslins—all kinds at lowest prices at Clark & Son's. Also Table Linens, Towels, Counterpanes, &c. Stamping and pinking done to order on short notice at Miss E. Barkley's—also children's plush or velvet boods, ready made or to order. Mourning goods, in bonnets, vells, &c., a specialty. All at very reasonable prices.

Keep your eye open on I.W. Hartman &

ents this year, 1888.

A change in the firm of I. W. Hartman & Son makes it necessary that all old accounts be settled immediately. Statements are being sent out this week. We offer big bargains in Remnants of Dress Goods, Silks, Linens, Lace Curtains, Scrims, &c. Clark & Son.

Go to Sharpless' foundry to buy the cheapest ranges, cook stoves, all kinds of stove repairs. Sled soles, &c. 8td80. You will find good lines of Dress Goods t Clark & Son's. See our Black Dress Goods.

I. W. Hartman & Soas are beadquarters for Wedding and Birthday Presents, in Plush Goods, in Books, in Photograph Albums, in Silverware, in Photograph Al-Glassware, Lamps, &c.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

To PRESERVE NATURAL PLOWERS. - Dip the flowers in melted paraffine, withdraw-ing them quickly. The liquid should be only just hot enough to maintain its fluid-ity and the flowers should be dipped one at a time, held by the stocks and moved about for an instant to get rid of air bub-bles. Fresh cut flowers, free from molat-ure make excellent specimens in this way bies. Fresh cut flowers, free from molature, make excellent specimens in this way. If you would preserve your health and invigorate your entire system use Perrine's Pure Barley Malt Whiskey. For sale by C. B. Robbins, Bloomsburg, Pa. [cow. Hop Plasters are made from pure and reliable medicinal agents. Cure sches, pains, weak parts.

WHAT AM I TO DO?-The symptoms of biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, slas, he has an excellent appetite for liquida but none for solids of a morning. His year: better service and usefulness in every direction.

In this lightning age we cannot rest on past achievement or crawl laggard-like along.

Not even for one day shall the store go into winter quarters after its busy season, but with