

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. The Columbia BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1888.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

The Columbia BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1888.

CONSOLIDATED RAILROAD TABLE.

Table with columns for Stations, Arrive, and Leave. Includes routes for Bloomsburg and Lewisburg.

SALES.

Jan. 21.—E. S. Case, Trustee of John Jacoby, deceased, will sell real estate on the premises in Bloomsburg, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Buy Lester's Bloomsburg Kip Boots. Best made.

Hon. C. R. Bucklew returned to Washington last week. Mrs. Charles Moyer visited friends in Hughesville last week.

Personal.

Mrs. J. M. Smith of Jerseytown was in town on Monday. Miss Deau of Milton is visiting at Mr. C. G. Barkley's.

Remonstrances have been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Quarter sessions against the granting of liquor license to Jacob Burdick of Epsy, and G. W. Klase, M. A. Markle, August Thiele and B. F. Spoenberg of Berwick.

Mr. John Lex of Philadelphia is lying very ill at Mr. J. H. Keely's, with pleurisy. He came up from Philadelphia the first of the year and took cold in the ears. He is under the treatment of Dr. J. C. Butler, and is much improved.

J. R. Schuyler & Co. turned out on Monday morning with a handsome new freight and delivery wagon. A gold-mounted harness decorates the fine bay team, and the most stylish rig of the kind in this section.

Rev. Thomas Needham, who is conducting the services in the Baptist church this week, will continue through next week, with the exception of Saturday. Mr. Needham is a co-worker with D. L. Moody and has been very successful in his evangelistic labors.

The fox hunters of town were out again on Tuesday, the fall of snow Monday night drawing them out. They drove in sleighs from Hutchinson's Hollow across Lime Ridge, where the hunt was begun, and kept up all day. They were unsuccessful, however, in securing the fox.

The disagreeable weather of the last week or more has had a bad effect upon the work on the sewer along East street. The workmen could not make a full day's time, and the cold winds made it difficult to do much during the few hours' time they worked. It is poor economy to work on the sewer at this season of the year.

Mr. Sittler died at the house of Rev. F. B. Riddle on Market street Thursday night last week at about half past eight o'clock, at an advanced age, after an illness of some months. She was an aunt of Mrs. Riddle's and had been living with them for some time. Funeral services were held at the residence of the deceased on Saturday. The remains will be buried in Rosemont cemetery.

The School Board case has been taken to the Supreme Court by J. C. Brown, J. J. Lawell and I. Hagenbuch, three of the directors named by the Court. The case may be heard in April, and disposed of any time in six months after that. In the meantime the board appointed by the court will serve until their places are filled by an election. Considering the muddle into which the schools have been thrown the past four months, it behooves the people of this town to make very careful selections for the next board of school directors.

To avoid public inconvenience and delay in transit, the United States Express Company gives notice to persons at places where there is no other express than the Adams Express, that it will receive their express matter from the Adams Express by paying charges in the usual manner, notwithstanding the Adams Express refuses to receive from the United States Express, any matter going to such points, unless all charges are prepaid.

C. H. Cooney, Vice President.

Consumption Specially Cured.

To the Editors—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I wish to send you two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who will consent if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. Stocum, M. D., 181 Pearl St., New York, no 297262.

The Wright and Clark Comedy company held forth at the Opera House Thursday and Friday evenings of last week to very small audiences.

The public schools opened on Monday and school children were to be seen again passing and out from school with books under their arms.

A total eclipse of the moon will take place on Friday, January 23rd, that will be visible to the world generally, except to the Pacific ocean.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Reformed Church of this place next Sunday at 10 o'clock. Divine services are being held every evening this week.

Hobart College, Geneva, New York, has conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology upon Rev. Louis Zahner of Omaha.

A Philadelphia judge has decided that a man who cannot and does not read the newspaper is not properly qualified for jury service.

As appears by a notice published elsewhere, the Columbia County Agricultural Society will meet at the court house on the 21st inst. at 10 o'clock to elect officers.

The Farmers' Institute is held at Millville this week, beginning Wednesday and continuing until Friday. Many able speakers will address the assembly.

The firm of Snyder & Stepp, of Orangeville has been dissolved. Mrs. Stepp withdrawing. The new firm is Snyder & Whitmore.

Fodder cutters and crushers, also a full line of bob sleds.

Whites, Conshohocken, Orangeville, Pa.

The Shickshinny E. L. S. & W. carried ten thousand passengers the day before Christmas without a single accident.

There's a startling rumor about that fashion has decreed little bonnets for ladies who attend the theatre. There will be hundreds of happy theatre goers all over this broad land if this rumor is true.

Cards were distributed last week and week before by the ministers of the various churches of town inviting everybody to attend the Evangelistic services that are being held this week.

Mr. E. S. Case of Epsy has in his possession a copy of the Pennsylvania Gazette dated March 23, 1783. It was published by Hall & Sellers at the New Printing Office near the Market.

Mr. Perry Bucklew died at Jonestown, Luzerne county, on Wednesday last week at an advanced age. Mr. Bucklew was a brother of Hon. C. R. Bucklew and was one of the leading men of his section.

G. C. Cost of Berwick is making arrangements to give notice of his intention to raise chickens during this season. He has a fine place for such purpose, and should be very successful.

Mr. George Hassert is building a two story frame residence on the corner of his lot adjoining the Evangelical church. The building will be 24x40 feet and will make a very desirable residence for a small family.

So far as can be ascertained it appears that there were not less than fifty-three embezzlers who had fled from the United States to Canada during the past year. The aggregate of their stealings is nearly four millions of dollars.

Remonstrances have been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Quarter sessions against the granting of liquor license to Jacob Burdick of Epsy, and G. W. Klase, M. A. Markle, August Thiele and B. F. Spoenberg of Berwick.

Mr. John Lex of Philadelphia is lying very ill at Mr. J. H. Keely's, with pleurisy. He came up from Philadelphia the first of the year and took cold in the ears. He is under the treatment of Dr. J. C. Butler, and is much improved.

J. R. Schuyler & Co. turned out on Monday morning with a handsome new freight and delivery wagon. A gold-mounted harness decorates the fine bay team, and the most stylish rig of the kind in this section.

Rev. Thomas Needham, who is conducting the services in the Baptist church this week, will continue through next week, with the exception of Saturday. Mr. Needham is a co-worker with D. L. Moody and has been very successful in his evangelistic labors.

The fox hunters of town were out again on Tuesday, the fall of snow Monday night drawing them out. They drove in sleighs from Hutchinson's Hollow across Lime Ridge, where the hunt was begun, and kept up all day. They were unsuccessful, however, in securing the fox.

The disagreeable weather of the last week or more has had a bad effect upon the work on the sewer along East street. The workmen could not make a full day's time, and the cold winds made it difficult to do much during the few hours' time they worked. It is poor economy to work on the sewer at this season of the year.

Mr. Sittler died at the house of Rev. F. B. Riddle on Market street Thursday night last week at about half past eight o'clock, at an advanced age, after an illness of some months. She was an aunt of Mrs. Riddle's and had been living with them for some time. Funeral services were held at the residence of the deceased on Saturday. The remains will be buried in Rosemont cemetery.

The School Board case has been taken to the Supreme Court by J. C. Brown, J. J. Lawell and I. Hagenbuch, three of the directors named by the Court. The case may be heard in April, and disposed of any time in six months after that. In the meantime the board appointed by the court will serve until their places are filled by an election. Considering the muddle into which the schools have been thrown the past four months, it behooves the people of this town to make very careful selections for the next board of school directors.

To avoid public inconvenience and delay in transit, the United States Express Company gives notice to persons at places where there is no other express than the Adams Express, that it will receive their express matter from the Adams Express by paying charges in the usual manner, notwithstanding the Adams Express refuses to receive from the United States Express, any matter going to such points, unless all charges are prepaid.

C. H. Cooney, Vice President.

Consumption Specially Cured.

To the Editors—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I wish to send you two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who will consent if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. Stocum, M. D., 181 Pearl St., New York, no 297262.

A man may suffer without sinning, but sinners will not suffer without sinning. It is a sad and a cruel thing to see a man suffer and die, and know that he has sinned, and that his sin is the cause of his suffering. It is a sad and a cruel thing to see a man suffer and die, and know that he has sinned, and that his sin is the cause of his suffering.

Several young gentlemen of this place are to attend the Complimentary Hop of the Young Men's Society, which will be given at the People's Theatre, Plymouth, on next Monday evening, January 18th.

Captain Brookway's funeral last Friday was in charge of the G. A. R. of Bloomsburg. It was attended also by a number of G. A. R. men from Berwick, Danville and Catawissa. The funeral services were held at the house and interment took place in Rosemont cemetery.

The trial of John W. Johnson who was indicted by a Clinton county grand jury for participating in the murder of the Colby family ended at Lock Haven, last Friday, with a verdict against the prisoner of murder in the first degree. The jury retired at 5 o'clock and was absent about an hour, taking in the meantime by one ballot. The prisoner was very much affected at the result. A motion for a new trial was made.

How lonesome is the freestone where there is no local newspaper! Ask the man who has a family newspaper to read, with the latest news, the good stories, the useful hints, etc.—ask him its value. Let him be deprived of it for a few weeks, and ask him to put an estimate upon it. It will have risen higher in his esteem than ever.—Ex.

List of letters remaining in the Post Office at Bloomsburg for week ending Jan. 10, 1888.

H. J. Brobst, Mr. James M. Henry, H. C. Hufajig, Mr. Joy S. Kline, John W. McHenry, Miss Marie Moore, John Moore, Green Pursell, Mr. W. Rannels, Mr. Wm. Spear.

Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised."

GEORGE A. CLARK, P. M.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." So thought, no doubt, those members of the Trinity Reformed Church of this place on last Sunday morning, as they entered the main audience room, and beheld the improvement that had been made. The Consistory of the church had engaged Mr. John Barnard, the fresco-painter, to refresco the space in the rear of the pulpit. He completed his work on Saturday, and the result is in all its beauty on Sunday morning last. No description of pen can do it justice. It must be seen to be appreciated, and any one having a taste for church decorative art would do well to pay the church a visit, and see this really meritorious piece of workmanship.

Council Proceedings.

Bloomsburg, Jan. 8th, 1888.

Regular meeting of council. Present, P. S. Harman, president, and members Wintersteen, Cadow, Ringler and Sterling. It being reported that the river bank along the public road is needing cladders at various places to protect it, on motion, the president in all his beauty on Sunday morning last. No description of pen can do it justice. It must be seen to be appreciated, and any one having a taste for church decorative art would do well to pay the church a visit, and see this really meritorious piece of workmanship.

A committee on Thomas C. Young, Chief Burgess of the Borough of Parkersburg, accompanied by a paper book prepared for the purpose, arrived in Bloomsburg on Friday morning. On Saturday, Mr. Young was accompanied by his brother, Mr. J. C. Young, and they were met by the committee on their arrival. The committee on their arrival were met by the committee on their arrival. The committee on their arrival were met by the committee on their arrival.

The report of the Commissioner of Highways, and the following bills and accounts were read and on motion of Messrs. Ringler and Wintersteen approved and secretary directed to draw orders for same:

Expense, including water and gas.

This is Good Enough.

Mr. C. E. Bartholomew, Kalkaska, Mich., says: "I owe my life solely to Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Roseton, N. Y. I had liver and kidney disease, and for five years was unable to go about. I am now well, and can do a man's work on my farm. I shall never be able to thank Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Price $1.08 a bottle; six for $5. (dec2314)

Lightstreet.

Seeing that your correspondent from this place has been somewhat delinquent in his writings I will pen a few articles for inspection, to let the people know that we are still living and ever alert to do that which we may prosper our little village is as quiet as any hamlet can be at this time.

Our genial vintner man is now running his works at full tilt, having lately received over the B. & S. R. forty-seven barrels of cider from Friby's mill in Sugarloaf, which he will sooner or later have in market.

Beef! Beef! yes, nice fresh beef from Soybert & Gitron's, the new butchers.

Mr. Snyder of Shickshinny is visiting at Rev. T. L. Tubbs'.

Reece Fairman has killed as fine a lot of spring pigs as can be seen in a month's travel, being eight in number, averaging no less than one hundred and seventy-five lbs. apiece.

B. Ent, the tinner, is now supplying his customers with a fine card representing a new stove he has for sale.

H. E. Heacock disposed of his team and now sports another fine dark bay, purchased from Chas. Heacock.

A singular accident occurred to one of the canines of this town, by which we hope the animal has learned a lesson and will stop coming over the fence to interfere with passersby. He jumped the fence but none too high.

Rumor says that some one connected with the B. & S. R. in adjoining town, had our little village should be whitewashed and hauled away in a flat car, now to make the matter plain the amount of tickets sold taking into consideration the population, will convince that not all are skeptical in regards to the railroad, as we learn from the ticket agent, that in the two weeks just past, one hundred and forty-four tickets were sold to different points, amounting to thirty-five dollars and twenty-eight cents.

Now that the Institute is over our teachers are again at work trying to develop the ideas of the youth.

Crematory agitation is now going.

Rev. J. F. Shultz is holding a series of protracted meetings at the present time; there are three seekers at the altar.

Buy Lester's Bloomsburg Kip Boots. Best made.

Wanamaker's. are being carried away every day by throngs of delighted customers.

It is as if we were again in the rush and bustle of Holiday time.

FRENCH SATENS.

The new ones are here. Not the highest cost, 31 cents a yard. You need not know the makers; call them Wanamaker's, for we control this market on them.

This is the hub of the Sateen trade. You may get a notion from the fact that the 70,000 yards in store to-day are only one-fourth of a single order. And then other orders on both sides of the sea. Watch the season and you will know how great they are.

The first peep at the styles—an artist's first view: Fifty-three plain shades, Gobelins and mahogany, zouave-red and baby-blue, serpent and cream; rainbows divided and multiplied. And for figures, stripes with trailing vines, stripes with polka dots dancing all about, stripes holding up plaids; plaids with over-plaids; palm patterns, and double o's involved like a juggler's rings.

This rattle about styles may do you some good. Not much unless it brings you to see the stuffs.

GINGHAMS.

No longer suggestive of the pinafore and checked apron, the charity school and the kitchen. The Gingham is in high life now, and ought to be. A few days ago we wrote:

"And every one of these Scotch Zephyr Gingham styles is exclusively our own."

They are on the counters, and we have had a bit of a chance to know them. We will introduce you: 50 cents a yard. A symposium of figure and color. All more or less pronounced. But blonde or brunette, smaller person or large, younger or older can catch the needed style with equal ease.

There is entertainment in these Gingham. Do you know Gingham? Unless you are an expert go slow on values.

WHITE GOODS.

White Plaid Lawn at 10 cents. A staple thing at least 20 per cent less than real value: Gold dollars at eighty cents. Would you buy at that? Buy this and you will do as well, provided you can use the Lawn. The use is the only difference between the bleached cotton and the gold.

White plaid Nainsook at 12 1/2 cents. No possible reason why it should be sold at that. It's worth 16 cents to-day. And you'll pay that or more, here or elsewhere soon. At least so we think.

Fine White Cambric. "Long Cloth," so-called, but why we don't know. 12 1/2 cents. It's the complement to the foregoing.

These goods are new, just opened. You may call them arbitrary bargains, if you will. Unreasonable bargains. We make them so from a sort of mania for bargain making.

HAMBURGS.

As welcome news as we have ever had in these dainty creations. Fresh goods, desirable in every way, and at a fragment of the common prices. 1/2 inch to 6 inches wide:

Hamburgs at 10c
Hamburgs at 12c
Hamburgs at 15c
Hamburgs at 20c

Nothing mean or common about them. On heavy cambric, and just the sorts you'll want to start the spring family sewing with.

All-Overs.

Cambric All-overs, 20 inches wide. We count the worth of all these things by the stitches on them. By the stitch standard these All-overs are worth $1.50 a yard. By any standard they are worth double our price. We have marked them 50 cents.

HANDKERCHIEFS.

Men's fine Linen plain white and hemstitched Handkerchiefs at $3 a dozen. We never before knew such Handkerchiefs to be sold for less than $6 a dozen.

A hundred other bargains just as wonderful at the same counters.

SILKS.

Some exceptional offerings will be made at the silk counters. To-day we only point to a few typical lots.

Black Silks.

24 pieces Black Cashmere Gros-grains, 24 inches wide, at $1. We never knew them to be sold under $1.25.

Colored Silks.

15 pieces 18-inch Gros-grain, all shades, was 75c, now 50c

25 pieces 19-inch Gros-grain, all shades, was $1, now 75c

30 pieces 19-inch Gros-grain, all shades, extra quality, was $1.25, now $1

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.

Wanamaker's.