SALES. Jan. 11.—The widow and heirs of Fredrick Ditt, late of Madison township, deceased, will sell valuable personal property, on the premises, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Buy Lester's Binghamton Kip Boots. Best made. Good boarding. Those attending court will do well to consult the undersigned if they wish good boarding at a low price.

Personal. Miss Jessie Monroe, of Rupert, is spending a few weeks in Philadelphia. Mrs. Will Shippe, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Mrs. W. Bird of Shamokin, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fress Brown at the Exchange Hotel.

Leant will begin on February 15. Sleighting parties are now in order. There was quite a large number of people in town attending court on Monday.

Now the small boy puts in all his spare time catching on sleds and taking short rides. Twenty-three counties in Pennsylvania hold their annual Teachers' Institute last week.

And now they call Mr. H. G. Eshleman "papa." A daughter was born Thursday morning of last week. 15,000 ft. dry pitch pine flooring dressed, 1 in., for sale. WHITE, COSNER & SLOAN.

The indications now are that a silk mill will be built here beyond a doubt. It will employ 125 hands to start with.

On and after Saturday, Jan. 21, for the next thirty days a discount of 10 per cent will be allowed on all kinds of goods for cash at H. W. SLOAN'S.

There will be an annual meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held in the Presbyterian Church January 24, at half-past 2 o'clock. A full attendance is requested, as officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

A report of the proceedings at the Farmers Institute held at Millville last week will be found on our fourth page. The sessions were interesting and we therefore will print it in full. The remainder of the report will appear next week.

The oldest Protestant church edifice in America will be described in the February AMERICAN MAGAZINE, as well as what may have been the earliest steam railway; while Henry W. Austin will dip further into our antiquities by a poem on "Mastodon Saurus."

Mr. J. H. Maize has moved his law office in room No. 3, of the COLUMBIAN building, second floor, where he will be pleased to receive his clients. Mr. Maize will devote his entire time to his profession, so that the interests of his clients may be carefully guarded.

A fire occurred at the Millville plating mill Friday evening of last week, while the Farmers' Institute was in session. The alarm caused quite a commotion in the crowded building, but when it was learned that the fire was extinguished, quiet was again restored.

The Hemlock Sunday School Convention will be held in the New Columbia Church on Saturday, January 28. The afternoon session will begin at 5 o'clock, evening session at 7 o'clock. There will be interesting and instructive discussions upon Sunday School matters.

The Bennett and Molton Opera Company will be at the Bloomsburg Opera House, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 29th, 30th and 31st. They will sing Mascot, Olette and Chimes of Normandy. The price of admission will be 15, 25 and 35c. Don't forget the dates.

Mrs. Schultz, wife of Mr. Dimmock Schultz, died at her husband's home on Main street Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock of consumption. Mrs. Schultz was a daughter of Mr. Thomas Belles, of Benton, and her remains were taken to that place yesterday afternoon.—Shickelshyne Echo, Dec. 15.

The Pottsville Chronicle issued for New Year, 1888, a Carrier's Greeting, very handsomely bound in an embossed cover. It is one of the finest things of the kind that we have ever seen.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Northern Columbia and Southern Luzerne County Agricultural Society, held Tuesday evening, the following dates were chosen for their fifth annual Fair, viz: October 3, 4, 5, 6, 1888.

The Farmers' Institute at Millville last week was the means of bringing a number of people into the town who had never before visited there. Millville is certainly a very pretty town, and because of the good country surrounding it, it is a place of large trade. The leading stores are Messrs. Co. and Eves & Bro. both of whom do a large business. Mr. R. B. Grimes has a nice store room for his harness, robes and blankets. Mr. D. F. Herring is also in the same business. John Eves with his reliable farm wagons is kept busy filling orders. V. P. Eves & McElroy have a large furniture store, and adjoining Eyer Allen has recently opened up a boot and shoe store. The Millville plating mill is kept busy, and the creamery reports a growth with each succeeding month. The citizens all encourage home enterprise, as most of them use the creamery butter and pronounce it superior to any made in the county. The W. & W. railroads, having a branch running from Eysersgrove, terminating at Millville. Some trade is carried from the surrounding country to Watsonstown, since the introduction of the railroad. A number of new houses have been built in Millville during the past year—indicating a continued growth of the town.

On Thursday morning, Jan. 12th, the marriage ceremony which made Mr. Edward Crossley of Cheney, Kansas, and Miss Hester Pursel of Buckhorn, husband and wife, was performed at the residence of Mr. J. W. Crossley, by Rev. Mr. O. T. Salm of Epsy. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends, who had come together to wish them much joy in their new relation. It was eleven o'clock when the happy couple made their appearance in the parlor and were united in wedlock by a beautiful and impressive ceremony. The marriage was followed by a bountiful collation, and happiness reigned supreme. In the afternoon the newly married couple took a sleigh ride to Picture Rocks, Lycoming Co., Pa., where they will spend a part of their honeymoon. Among the many and costly presents were the following: Mr. & Mrs. Sylvester Pursel, silver knives and spoons; Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Patterson, silver fruit knives; Miss George Pursel, silver tea spoons; Mr. Frank Pursel, silver table spoons; Mr. Frank Crossley, silver table spoons; Mr. and Mrs. T. Chapin, silver butter knife; Mr. Art Crossley, silver tea spoons; Mr. and Mrs. W. Hartman, silver butter knife; Mr. and Mrs. W. Crossley, silver tea spoons; Mr. and Mrs. D. Purcell, glass set; Mrs. C. Schaffer and the Misses Moore, table scarf and lambrequin; Miss Anna Sloan, comforter; Mr. Wm. L. Crossley, two tidies; Mr. and Mrs. F. Dentler table cloth; Miss Anna C. Purcell, housewife; Mr. and Mrs. C. Purcell, tablecloth; Miss Mattie Kahler, photograph in gold frame; Mr. B. F. Kahler, photograph in gold frame; Mr. and Mrs. C. Dilline, stand spread; Mrs. W. S. Purcell, pair towels; Mrs. S. E. Purcell, pair towels; Miss Tilly Gulliver, pair towels; Mr. Wm. Ohl, pair of knives; Mrs. Samuel Pursel, neck knives and forks; Susan Pursel, towel; Maude Pursel, match safe; Mr. H. Robbins, pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. C. Dietrich, pair of towels; Mr. and Mrs. B. Moore, photograph album; Mr. Frank Hartman, tablecloth; Mr. Wm. Ohl, pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. C. Gorton, silver dessert spoons.

J. L. Gorton's Hotel. The interior of what was formerly Mr. Jas. Cadman's furniture warehouse, has been very much changed under the management of Mr. J. L. Gorton in fitting it for a hotel. The large warehouse on first floor has been separated in two rooms. The first is finished in birch—and will be used as the dining room. The walls and ceilings of these rooms were neatly papered and painted by Messrs. Bodine and Barnard. The front of the second floor is an elegant parlor, and the remaining rooms are for boarders. The third floor is divided into fourteen large sleeping rooms. Many of the rooms are large enough to accommodate several beds upon an emergency. Mr. Gorton can fell proud of his new hotel, and by keeping a first-class house should soon be liberally patronized.

Get all their Money Back. In 1872, several of our leading citizens were induced to insure in the New York Life Insurance Company. They took plain life policies, at the lowest rate of premium—for the protection of their families, in case of death; but by the famous tongue-twisting principles in use with that company, provided for settlements with themselves, if living, at the expiration of fifteen years. Now, the time being up, they are offered a choice of settlement, paid up insurance, &c. cash, to continue at less than half rates. In every case, the cash offered exceeds the whole amount paid by each. Thus, after fifteen years insurance, they get all their money back, and a profit besides. The directors, Messrs Little & Co., of Pottsville, represent this old substantial Life Company.

East Benton. Miss Sarah Campbell, of Orangeville, spent several days in the neighborhood, visiting friends. Last Sunday it rained nearly all day, and now sleighing is better than ever. Alvin Drecher expects to move on Ray King's farm, not far from New Columbus. The great amount of freight, carried up and down the creek by the B. & S. R. R., surprises the people. Had the road been built 20 years sooner our farmers would have saved hundreds of dollars in railroad fare, which were destroyed in clearing up their farms. Daniel Ashelman, of this place, is erecting a wind mill, on top of his barn, from which he expects sufficient power to run a pair of choppers, threshing machine, or other machinery that he may wish to operate. It will be a novel affair in our locality, as none of the kind is ever been erected heretofore. We hope its introduction will prove a successful enterprise. Of late many public sales of personal property have taken place. We have never known of so many sales at this season of the year. A doubtful business: Popping the question, and receiving negative answers. Leap year, you know.

Working people are often too ill to labor, but they haven't time to take medicine and lay off. Simmons Liver Regulator can be taken without causing any loss of time, and the system will be built up and invigorated by it. It is no equal as a preparatory medicine, and can be safely used when a doctor cannot be called in. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.

Buy Lester's Binghamton Kip Boots. Best made. PERSONALLY CONDUCTED PLEASURE TOURS TO FLORIDA VIA PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. In order to afford the opportunity of a pleasant trip to Florida to every one who has the leisure to go, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged for two personally conducted pleasure tours to that sunny land. The rates for the tours are fixed for January 26th and February 9th. The tourists will be carried through to Jacksonville via Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah, by a special train of day coaches and Pullman buffet sleeping cars, running from New York without stopping. The company, assisted by a chaplain, who will have a special care to the ladies unaccompanied, will direct the party. Round-trip tickets, including sleeping car accommodations and meals en route in both directions, good for the return trip for fifteen days, will be sold at a rate of about $42.50 from Philadelphia and $45.00 from New York. The party in each case will be limited to 50 persons. Names may be entered on the list at any time to advance. Detailed information as to the tours will be published within a few days.

License Court. Monday was the day fixed by the rules of court for hearing license cases. Judge Hand of Scranton came down on the noon train, and Judge Morphy drove up from Centrella, reaching here at eleven o'clock. Judge Mettrey came down on the 11 & S. road expecting to reach here in the time for court, but an accident to the engine delayed the train and it was four o'clock when he came into the court. At two o'clock the voice of court crier Coffman announced that the court was in session. As soon as the judges took their seats R. S. Howell Esq. presented a remonstrance against granting any licenses, because the publication of the list of applicants in the newspapers was not in accordance with the law. He did not describe each house particularly, and he asked the rule of court fixing the third Monday of January as the time for hearing licenses was null and void, being contrary to the acts of assembly concerning licenses. Judge Hand over-ruled the motion, on the ground that it was not filed seven days before-hand as required by the rules of court, that it was not filed in any particular case, that the publication was all that the law required, and that the court had full power to make a rule of court fixing a time for hearing license or to fix a time without making any rule. The first case taken up was that of Geo. W. Klase, applicant for a hotel license in Berwick. To this, a remonstrance had been filed, setting forth that the license was not necessary, and that the applicant was a man of intemperate habits. Three witnesses were called by the remonstrants and six by the applicant. Charles Has one of the bondsmen in this case asked to be permitted to withdraw his name from the case. The court granted a rule to show cause why he should not be permitted to do so. E. H. Little and Geo. E. Elwell represented the remonstrants, and C. Froese and C. B. Jackson, the applicant. The case of M. A. Markle of the same place was next heard. C. C. Evans representing the applicant. To this a remonstrance was also filed. Five witnesses were called by the applicant. An objection was made that the place for which license was asked was not described with the particularity required by the law, being described as situated "on the southerly side of Front street," but Judge Hand held that this was sufficient in a borough. When the case was finished in was six o'clock. Both cases were held under advisement. Judge Hand stated his views as follows: I regret that I cannot stay till these cases are disposed of, but I am holding court myself this week, and I will state now publicly my view of the law in regard to the granting of licenses. Some remarks were made that the good people of this county were discouraged last year by reason of the action of the associate judges, some remonstrants thinking that they were not treated with proper consideration. I think that if members of the bar could sit at least one day upon the bench, determining questions between applicants and remonstrants, they would find that such a remark was hardly called for, that it is a difficult matter to dispose of these questions. A judge cannot allow his own private opinion in regard to temperance to affect him in one way or the other in deciding these matters; the law lays down a clear rule for him to follow, as clear as is laid down in treating pain, and especially plies. He used it externally and internally. Lightstreet. Some of the elite of town and Mt. Pleasant came to the sleighing and visited Peter Evans, Esq., Treasurer of Columbia county. William Heffler, of Danville, and his brother, of Iowa, visited at their niece's, Mrs. L. M. Pettit's, last week. Fred L. Director took his patient there last week by looking after one of his paupers who becomes somewhat deranged. He was finally caught at Unityville and taken to the asylum at Danville. James Shew and William Robbins took a flying visit to Scranton one day last week. Report a good time. Protracted meeting still in progress. One of Pennsylvania's best shoemakers, is now employed by a firm at Shamokin. The last quarterly meeting for this year, for Epsy and Lightstreet charge, M. E. Robbins's Winter Circus at American Institute, New York. Frank A. Robbins, who appeared in this town last season with his herd of trained elephants and other wild animals, and who had the best circus exhibited here for years, has opened up the winter season at American Institute, New York. The New York Evening Sun has this to say of his enterprise: "Mr. Robbins's show well deserves substantial encouragement. It is excellently put together; its surroundings are in all ways favorable; in the matter of expense the projector has been generous and the resulting moderate scale of prices gives the venture a peculiar claim to popular patronage. The American Institute Building at Third Avenue and Sixty-third street has been transformed into a circus headquarters fully equal in space and general arrangement to the demands made upon it by the Robbins outfit. The centre of the long floor is occupied by an elevated stage, and at each end is a circus ring. In the place of the familiar ellipse is a boarded walk, by means of which access to the boxes and the tiers of seats is made easy. The boxes skirt the ellipse all the way round. They are easy and new, and so are all the seats, which rise back of them eight or ten tiers high. The entire structure has been decked in flags, streamers, coats of arms, &c. Quarters for the animals and dressing rooms for the performers are at both sides of the building, while the manager is situated back of the seats, from which a stout wooden partition divides them. It is greatly to Mr. Robbins's credit that his show has no dull moments. Everything has been rehearsed well, even to the work of the dozen trained elephants. The menagerie is of good size and remarkably sweet smelling. Electric lights in plenty and a powerful heating apparatus do their share of making the building comfortable. The attaches, too, seem more alert and courteous than the usual run of circus superintendents. In short, all the signs favorable to success are noted in this show, and Mr. Robbins's encouragement ought to be substantial." Mr. Robbins expects to visit us with his circus and menagerie next season.

High Scientific Authority.—The Journal de Medicine de Paris reports the meeting of a Society composing some of the most distinguished physicians in Paris. M. Duardier-Beaumes called attention to the great use of Pond's Extract. After describing experiments, he spoke highly of its value in treating pain, and especially plies. He used it externally and internally. Lightstreet. Some of the elite of town and Mt. Pleasant came to the sleighing and visited Peter Evans, Esq., Treasurer of Columbia county. was then heard in all other new cases where there were no contents. At three o'clock in the afternoon court adjourned until 9 o'clock Thursday morning, when the court announced its decisions. All the applications were granted but M. A. Markle and E. E. Sponenberg of Berwick. Jacob Blosser's case was continued until the first Monday in February.
