GEORGE A. CLARK, P. M. It has been decided in Dauphin Co. that the Tax law of 1885 is unconstitutional, and the commissioners have appointed tax collectors under the old law. The commissioners of this county talk some of appointing as collectors those who have been elected by the people, but this would apply only to county taxes. As no question has been raised in this county, and as the decision in Dauphin county is not binding upon any other county, and as the case cannot be decided in the Supreme Court, if taken up, until late in the fall, we cannot see any occasion for any action in the community last Thursday afternoon in the instant death, by lightning, of William Bellas, a prominent and respected citizen of the borough of New Columbus, who sought shelter under a chestnut tree during a thunder storm. The electric current passed down his back, thence both limbs tearing his boot soles all to shreds. Jerry Doty, on whose premises this and event occurred was only a few rods distant. A widow two daughters, one of whom is married to Ed Laubach, son of Andrew Lau bach of Sugarloaf, survive the deceased. He had been extensively engaged in lumbering, merchandise and farming. He was looking after a timber tract when his death occurred. He was about 63 years of age and was interred last Sunday forenoon at Hamiline. The occasion brought together day last. It was discovered by two boys the largest concourse of people ever assembled at that place. Lige Davis also had a narrow escape fro lightning during the same thunder storm, that of a man named Snyder who was near Russel Shultz's. He stood under pine tree, and preferring an oak about rod distant stepped under that, when the pine immediately thereafter was struck and torn to splinters. No person should ever take shelter under a tree during a thunder

A deep gloom was cast over the entir

Children's Day was observed at Ravenreek Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. The display of decorations was not so profuse as at Hamiline, but the music and recitations were grand. The children did their part nobly. An address was made by Rev. Wm. Mather. A better day is dawning for a grand work by children in the church. The engineer, running the trains on the B. & S. R. R. would confer a favor to roadsters and teamsters were he to blow the whistle a quarter of a mile or so above the iron bridge at Orangeville, when south bound, as that would warn persons in time from attempting to cross the bridge. Last Saturday morning we kept a sharp lookout for the train, but were not certain whether it was yet due, or slresdy down, and when two thirds across the bridge the whistle blew immediately above. Looking up we saw at once that our position was a precarious one, and the impulse "go" seized us, and we "went," but we found it more dflireferred to attempt beating the rushing train over the crossing than to risk going over the bridge whose sides we deemed insufficient to resist the pressure of a fractious, backing team.

when you have got to do as you would be done by?" TWO HUMOROUS CHURCH INCIDENTS. A little girl who was taken to the Episcopal church for the first time heard the lergyman read the text:

"On these two commandments hang al the law and the prophets." "Grandma," said the little girl after sh got home, "do they hang the prophets on the commandments just the same as the do presents on the Christmas tree?" It was another fittle girl who, going to the Episcopal church, and happening to turn around just at the moment when the congregation bow their adoration to the creed took it into her head that they were all bowing to her. And so, as she was a po lite little gir!, and not inclined to receive salutation without returning it, she bowed very respectfully and exclaimed: "Good morning, people!"

causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sassaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bettle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbunch broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sere. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more

Wonderful Results.

Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight. —Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditery. Last winter, Dr. Tyron, (of Fernandina, Fla.,) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months. —T. E. Whey, 146 Chambors st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse tatil it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured. — Mrs. Augusta A.
