I would not if I could, for myself nor for you, avoid a single consequence of a fair interpretation of my course.

It remains for me to say to you and through you to the Democracy of the nation, that I accept the nomination with which you have honored me...

Should so desirable a consummation be achieved, then, indeed, could I esteem myself a lover of his country, regardless of party or creed, rejoice that in you is embraced the highest type of the enlightened and refined American citizen...
