GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND-JURY.-YOU have been summoned from the ranks of the cople, and will be required for a season to lay aside your own pursuits, in order that you may perform certain duties for your ommonwealth. These duties which the State calls upon you to perform are not inonsiderable or of little moment; for upor their faithful performance will depend the rights of her citizens and the happiness nd liberty of our fellows; and those duties which affect others, and that conduct which in its consequences, involves the rights of even the humblest of our fellows worthy of the highest consideration and most careful attention. If you return a bill, "a true bill," you have nothing to say about costs; when you no hardship, and this much at least the eturn a bill "not a true bill" then you look at the indictment, whether the crime charged is a felony or a misdemeanor; a felony s always to be determined by the use of the words felony or feloniously in the body of the indictment, the District Attorney generally marks on the face of the indict. nent "misdemeanor" or "felony" as the nisdemeanor, then you must dispose of the costs, by placing them either upon the hem upon the prosecutor, you must name itm in your finding. This knowledge on your part must be acquired n one of three ways, by either your own observation, by your investigation of other offences or by the disclosure of your associates. That is, if any of you has witness ed a violation of the law, if in investigating any offence in your room, you should be ome acquainted with some other offence or if some one of your associates should lisclose such offence to you, then in any such case it will be your duty to make the same known to the court.

To enable you to act effectively, the law equires that all your deliberations shall be in secret; hence you have sworn, that the commonwealth's counsel, your fellows' and your own you will keep secret. You are against her laws is brought into this court to be influenced by no malice, hatred or envy; you are to be deterred from no duty by fear, favor or reward; knowing no enemy, recognizing no friend, oblitering all distinction of person or of class, swayed by no passion and moved by no favor, you are to look upon all defendants as innocen until evidence establishes the probability of guilt, and then regardless of conse quences and bent only on the performance of duty you are to act intelligently, fear essly and conscientiously.

The cases that will be brought before you are for the most part of such a char acter that you need no special instruction in regard to them. One may perhaps re quire some explanation.

One of these indictments will charge th iolation of the liquor laws. The sale o iquor is regulated by law. No person ha a right to sell any in this county unless licensed by this court; any sale withou as provided by law, and whether with or vithout license, no person has a right to furnish by sale, gift or otherwise, to any person, any spirituous, vinous, malt o brewed liquors, on any day upon which elections are now or hereafter may be held nor on Sunday, nor at any time to a mino or a person of known intemperate habits, or a person visibly affected by intoxicating drink, either for his or her use, or for the use of any other person. The indictment which will come before you will charge the defendant with furnishing intoxicating liquors to a person o known intemperate habits. This case, gentleman, you will judge any other case. The court and jury find certain laws upon the statute books: it is their duty to see that those laws are enforced; as individuals, some of you may deem the liquor laws too stringent, others of you may feel that they are not stringent enough; some may believe in one kind of legislation, some in another; these view you have a right to hold and to maintain it your daily life, but you dare not carry then ato the jury box; there one duty confronts all, and there is no room for differences no matter what your individual views may be, as I have before instructed you, your plain duty is to determine whether a law has been violated; if so, no prejudice against the law should sway you; if no iolation of law is shown, no prejudice against the liquor traffic should influence you. Violations of the liquor law should be judged by rules in no respect differen from other cases. You will take this and all other case submitted to you and endeavor to do that which right and justice require and which our oath commands. There is one matter, not exactly in th ine of instruction to you yet a subject of great public interest, and one the consider ation of which has led the court to establish rule important to all, which we desire briefly to allude to, and in this public way make known the rule, with the reasons that have led to its adoption, beside giving the public information that will enable then to act intelligently in the matter.

Among the grave questions that to-day confront the American people none are more important and upon none hang more serious results than the one as to receiving allens lato citizenship. It is feared there are many numbered as citizens to-day, and many daily being received as such, who are ignorant of the first principles of our constitution which they swear to suppor and obey, and many numbered with them, enjoying the high privilege of American citizenship, who at heart are the enemies of our system of free government. Our gates should still be open to all the world desiring a home among us, or hungering trasts are just pronounced for the benefits of our free institutions; bu how to welcome these and yet still restrain those whose object is anarchy and ruin, is a question now perplexing the nation, and calling for the most advanced and patriotic statesmanship. In the meantime to the courts is committed the solemn duty and the high privilege of admitting to citizen ship the people of every clime, and it is the duty of the courts to see that all the requirements of the law, now existing, are strictly and conscientiously fulfilled. The 21/2 inch shaded band at bottom. law requires, among other qualifications, that a man, before he shall be admitted to citizenship shall declare on oath before the court, that he will support the constitution of the U. S.; and it shall be made to as pear to the satisfaction of the court, ad mitting such alien, that he has resided withfied from the testimony produced before in the United States 5 years at least, and

and that, during that time, he has behaved to the principles of the constitution of th United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. No applicant can thus qualify, that is not amiliar with the constitution he swears to support, and to whose principles he declares he has been attached. I have been much impressed with this subject, and in the light of the high responsibility put up-on the court, have given much thought as to how best to discharge these duties; as the result we have formulated a rule, wheremark on the face of the indictment "not a by a committee of the bar will be appoint true bill," and sign it as foreman. You ed, whose duty it will be to examine each cannot return a bill not a true bill, until applicant and his papers, and to whom all applicants for citizenship must apply, and to whom they must subject themselves for an examination, in order that the court may be informed as to whether they are persons of good moral character, whether they have been attached to the principle of the constitution, and whether they are competent to swear that they will support the same. This surely can be regarded as high privilege of American citizenship is worth. The court will announce this com mittee and all persons desiring to make application will report to them before pre senting their petition to the court. Gentlemen, since the last grand jury lef that box, he, to whom this community have been so long accustomed to look up, ase may be. If the crime charged is a as the exponent of the law from this bench felony, you still have nothing to say about voluntarily laying aside the robes of his ost. If however, the crime charged is a high office, has stepped down to the retirement of private life. For years he has held this position, and by his high legal attaincounty or the prosecutor, and if you place ments, his sterling integrity and his un swerving devotion to right and truth, has made this bench honored and respected throughout this commonwealth, and 1 would be false to the cause of justice, false to you and false to myself, did I not to-day charge, you have been sworn to diligently express deep regret that he no longer sits in judgment in this seat, and did I not exe presentable here; that is, if any one of press the hope, that yet for years he may live in the respect of the people whose character he has helped to form, and walk in and out of this house of justice, whose chief seat he so long honored. He has made it difficult for those who follow, and let us take heed, least in any act we are called upon to perform, we bring discredit upon this place so long and intimately con nected with his name. Mr. John Hartman of Buckhorn died at his home Monday morning at 3 o'clock o apoplexy. On Friday evening about 10 o'clock, when he retired, he remarked to his wife that he was feeling ill, and later he felt numb, she wanted to get up and light a lamp, but he said it was not neces sary. However, she did get up, and as he continued to grow worse a physician was called. About midnight his speech left him and never returned. He was about 66 years of age. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his loss. Two sons, N. M. Hartman and Wash. Hartman, and four daughters, Mrs. E. D. Leidy, now in Missouri, Mrs. Chas. Thos. Burns, of Nicetown, writes .- After most horribly suffering from blood poison-ing, pains at times being unbearable, had to give up work, was under care of hospital surgeons without benefit, but was completely cured by Dr. Theel, 538 North Fourth street, Philadelphia. Sufferers, no matter who has failed, do not despair, go consult Dr. Thiel, I am sure he will cure

Frank Hayderson, of Beverly, N. J., writes.—I suffered ten years with nervous Debility and Constitutional weakness, during that time have consulted physicians of all schools, paying large fees without benefit. In 1886 I consulted Dr. Theel, 538 North, Fourth Street, Philadelphia, after thorough examination he pronounced mecurable. Although at the time having little faith in Doctors from past experience, I placed myself under his care, and amhappy to say he has restored me to sound physical health. Knowing Dr. Theel as I do, I hesitate not in adyising all sufferers no matter what their experience has been to consult him, as they can put full confito consult him, as they can put full confi-dence in his skill and integrity.

TO PRESERVE NATURAL FLOWERS .- Dip To Presence Natural Flowers.—Dip the flowers in melted paraffine, withdrawing them quickly. The liquid should be only just hot enough to maintain its fluidity and the flowers should be dipped one at a time, held by the stocks and moved about for an instant to get rid of air bubbles. Fresh cut flowers, free from molsture, make excellent specimens in this way. If you would preserve your health and invigorate your entire system use Perrinc's Pure Barley Malt Whiskey. For sale by C. B. Robbins, Bloomsburg, in [cow.

Dr. Theel. Phiadelphias renowned specialist for nervous debility, blood poisons, kidney and special diseases has cured more cases than all others combined. He has cured cases pronounced in urable by leading physicians. We would advise those suffering to consult him personally or by letter at his office, 538 North Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is an Alterative, and

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncle broke out

Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my expe-rience with medicine, I never saw more Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyron, (of Fernandina, Fla.,) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. R. Wiley, 146 Chambers st., New York City.

Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain dissippeared and I was completely curred."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.
