THE COLUMBIAN AND DEMOCRAT. BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

A Claim to Human Gratitude-

Charlotte Corday, the sad-faced, ten-der-hearted peasant girl of Normandy made great history by one desperate

Sickened by the saturnalia of the French revolution, and moved to des-peration as Robespierre and Marat were leading the flower of France to the guillotine, she determined that she would put an end to Marat's bloody reign. Marat had demanded two hundred thousand victime for the guillotine! He proposed to kill off the enemies of the Revolution to make it perpet-

Horrible thought! No wonder it fired the blood of this patriotic peasant maid! Gaining access to his closely guarded quarters by a subterfuge, she found him in his bath, even then inexorable and giving written directions for further slanghter!

He asked her the names of the ini mical deputies who had taken refuge in Caen. She told him, and he wrote them down. "That is well! Before a week is over they shall all be brought to the guillotine." At these words, Charlotte drew from her bosom the knife, and plunged it with supernatural force up to the hilt in the heart of Marat.

"Come to me, my dear friend, come to me," cried Marat, and expired un-der the blow !

In the Oorcoran gallery at Washington is a famous painting of Char-lotte, represented as behind the prison hars the day before her execution. It is a thrilling, sad picture, fall of sorrow for her suffering country, and of unconquerable hate for her country's enemies. What a lesson in this tragic story! Two hundred, nay, five hundred thous-and people would Marat have sacrific-to his unboly passion of power! Mathods are quite as murderous and inexorable as men, and they number their victims by the millions. The page of history is full of murders by authority and by mistaken ideas! In the practice of medicine alone how many hundreds of millions have been allowed to die and as many more killed by unjustifiable bigotry more killed by unjusticative that and by bungling! But the age is bettering. Men and methods are improving. A few years ago it was worth one's professional life to advise or permit the use of a proprietary medicine. There is no article of food more generally consumed than wheat in its various forms of bread and generally consumed than wheat four in its various forms of bread and pas-try, but chemists by examination find that by its use, mankind loses two-thirds of the elements that go to make up bone and muscle. These vital ele-ments are the phosphates which are absolutely necessary for the mainte-nance of health, and which nature has provided in the wheat grain, but man has removed from the flour in the pro-cess of bolting. It was this fact that suggested the invention by Prof. Horsford of his preparation for a bak-ing powder (Rumford Yeast Powder) that would add these nutritions phos-phates, and thereby supply the defi-ciency in the flour. In place of the alum, cream tartar, etc., used in com-mon baking powders, he produced an acid phosphate, and thus makes a bak-ing powder, which not only raises the dough, but leaves in the bread the vi-tal phosphates of which the flour nas been deprived.

Against the absurd deduction from this fact let intelligent workingmen weigh these other incontestable facts: 1. Wages have always been high-er in this broad and free new country than in the old concerned and area than in the old, oppressed and over-crowded countries of Europe. They were twice as high here as in Eng-land before the Revolution of 1776.

They have always been relatively as much higher as they are now, alike under no tariff, low tariffs and high 2. The rate of wages in the same industries differs as much in different cities and States of the Union as it does between this country and Eng-land.

3. Mr. Blaine, when Secretary State, certified to the fact, established by statistics, that "undoubtedly the inequalities in the wages of English and American operatives are more than equalled by the greater efficiency of the latter and their longer hours of

4. The wages in Free-Trade Eng-land are as much higher than they are in any Protectionist country in Europe as wages here are higher than in Eng land. Mr. Crawford, our correspond ent lately in that country, says that "the dreges of the labor markets of Europe find their way to England."

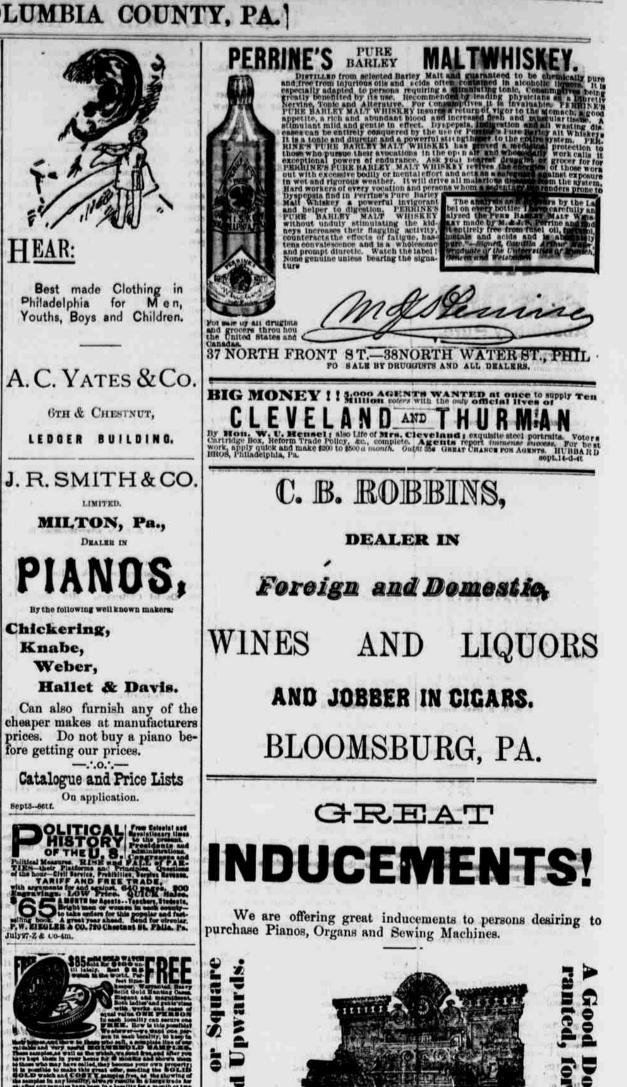

Septs-Setf.

They go because wages are higher there. From protected Germany and Russia the underpaid artisans flock to England as Englishmen come here. 5. Wherever labor organizations prevail here or labor is scarce wages are high. Wherever labor is unorgan-ized or labor is plentiful wages are low. The tariff is powerless to pre-vent these inequalities, nor do the low wages in one place pull down the high wages in another. YT-Z& CO-4m

6. The real competition with American wage-workers comes from im-migration. Labor is on the free list.— N. Y. World.

Flattery is the worst of insults; but here are mighty few people in this world who are keen enough to know when anybody is insulting them.
