A Lawyer's Scheme.

Y SERVING TIME FOR A FINE HE MAY RECAPE THE PENITENTIARY.

A new and striking point of law will be raised in the case of Herbert S. Graham, notorious Nanticoke lawyer now in jail at Wilkesbarre. He is serving a six months' term for criminal assault on a woman. The sentence expires on Cctober 20. and then commences a term of twenty-one robbery. The first sentence carries with it a fine and the payment of the costs, and under the law, if those are not paid be must stay ninety days longer in jail. But the law also requires that a man sentenced to the penitentiary must be placed in that time the sentence begins. Graham will for the twenty days from the commencement in this seatence will have more than expired. In this manner he proposes to escape the penitentiary.

A Game With the Athletics. During the base ball season the question was frequently asked as to when it was that the Athletic Base Ball Club of Philadelphia played in Bloomsburg. Reference to the files of the COLUMBIAN gives a full account of the game. The Athletics played at Catawissa the day before, and then came over to Bioomsburg, where they spent Saturday and Sunday. They were a very gentlemaaly set of young men, and went away from here well pleased with their treatment. The game was played on the fair grounds on Saturday, August 21, 1869. The Athletics embraced such old time players as Reach, McBride, Cuthbert, Fisler Sensenderfer, McMullen, Foran, Radeliffe and Berry. Sensenderfer is now one of the county commissioners of Philadelphia, and Reach is the proprietor of a large sporting goods factory in that city. The

A large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting was held at Cambra, Luzerne Co., Thursday night of last week, at which the issues of the campaign, viz : protection and tariff reform were ably discussed by the following gentlemen: T. R. Martin Esq., Wilkesbarre, W. H. Hines, candidate for State Senator, John Lynch, candidate for Congress, Lenahan, candidate for District Attorney and candidate for Prothonotary months in the Eastern Pententiary for Jacobs. This was a corps of able speakers. Large delegations poured in from New Columbus, Van Camp, Stillwater, Benton, Huntington Mills, Register and Fairmont. The occasion was enlivened by the New Columbus band and the Sullwater and the Register drum corps. It had to be taken down and its position reversed which also necessitated to partly re-dig the hole, after which the jubilant crowd raised the mammoth pole in triumph amidst the cheers of the multitude. By this time it was nearly 10 o'clock and the crowd was ordered by the Marshal, Silas McHenry, to fall in line and march to the hotel corner in the following order; band first, drum corps next, and the crowd to their music. The meeting was called to order by M. C. Brittain, chairman of the Democratic club of Huntington township. Able speeches were made by the speakers in turn, when Lenahan closed with a five minutes' speech. Our Republican friends here are skeptical, confident and defying, but tremble in the balance, for they already feel that they "are weighed and found wanting."

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in cheat and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."
