The inconsistency of the republican of Columbia county was exemplified in their action in regard to the Judgeship. In their convention they were very careful to make the judicial office a political one, and to give the conferpositive instruction to vote for no but a republican as a candidate for that office. But they had no sooner nominated Mr. Hinckley, who has heretofore been a bitter partisan, than they discovered that the judiciary should be entirely removed from politics, and on that ground appealed to democrats to support their nominee. If Mr. Hinck-ley ever had any chance of election he is indebted to the republican party for having removed all doubt as to the result of the centest, very early in the Tuesday's Election.

Lord Sackville Was Spubbed

ERS. CLEVELAND 'IS SAID TO HAVE DE-CLINED TO NOTICE HIS UNFORTU-

There are many things to indicate that the position of Lord Sackville at Washington has been irksome to him for a long time, and that he has been far from satisfied with the icy formality with which he has everywhere been received almost since he came to the loneliest part of the road, where his body was found before dawn.

Haines was an exceptionally modest, unobtrus ive and gentlemanly young man. He was 25 years of age, and was not known to have an enemy. There is no clue to the murderers. But one motive, robery, can be ascribed, as it was known that he often carried a large amount of money with him.

He had but $20 when he left, and the murderers stole this sum and his gold watch. There is a suspicion, however, that plunder may be a scheme to throw the police off the track. Coal and iron Policeman Christian and Titus are investigating every clue, and hope to run the guilty one down.

At the post-mortem made by Drs. A. P. and Charles D. Carr, it was found that the pistol by which the wounds were inflicted, was held so close as to burn the coal and skin. Either wound was necessarily fatal. The excitement of the postions have been involved.

Shortly after his appearance in Washington when it became known that his eldest daughter was coming over and would preside at his house, official society was stagger ed by the discovery that the young ladies were daughters of different nothers and that Minister West bad never been legally married.
