The campaign is over, and both parties can congratulate themselves that it has down to its normal condition now, and the world will move right on just the same as though there had been no election. Politics is a queer thing.

Charles Armstrong was struck in the Saturday night and badly cut. He was on his way to the depot after the parade, and had just left Mill street to go up the track when without cause or provocation a stone was thrown by a cowardly and mallcious hand with the above result. A large audience greeted the Rinchart-Delhauer company of comedians at the Park last night in Puddle's rond. If a play can be gauged by the applause i creates Puddles' Pond is a howling success. It was a succession of encores and laughs from beginning to end, and when Delhauer the frog appeared the applause was deafening. That the people were satisfied does not express it; as the antics of the frog continued expressions of "wonderful," possible," very audibie, oh's," &c. were heard on every side. His performance has never been equalled in this city. It is plainly evident to the most obtuse why this strangely constituted man has no imitator. There could be no two such. Miss Beatrice Rinehart as Peetie made a pleasant impression, she has a beautiful soprano voice of rare power and volume and handles it with the easy assurance made of a true artist. the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyron, (of Fernandina, Fla.) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarssparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. E. Wiley, 146 Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter a was troubled with a dull, beavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mos. Augusta A. causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a terpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncie broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my hed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more
