

This powder never varies. A harvest of prizes in all the world's exhibitions. It is pure, healthful, and economical. It contains neither alum nor phosphate. Royal Baking Powder Co., Wall St., N. Y.

The Columbian

Published every Friday. Subscription price, $1.00 a year. Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 1, 1908.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1888.

CONDUCTOR RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

BLOOMSBURG & SULLYVILLE RAILROAD.
Taking effect Monday, November 8, 1888.

	A. P.	A. R.	A. S.	A. T.	A. W.	A. X.	P. M.	P. P.	P. R.
Bloomsg. to Sullyville	6:15	7:15	8:15	9:15	10:15	11:15	12:15	1:15	2:15
Sullyville to Bloomsg.	6:30	7:30	8:30	9:30	10:30	11:30	12:30	1:30	2:30

The name of the station on the B. & S. railroad heretofore known as Tubbs, has been changed to that of Zander's. It is named after John Zander, on whose farm the station is located.

A turkey supper will be given at the residence of Mr. D. P. Weiss, on Friday, December 14, from five to ten p. m. Proceeds for the benefit of the Lutheran Church.

Five per cent will be added to all taxes unpaid in Jackson township after the ninth day of January 1889, and collection will be enforced after that date.

D. L. EVERSHEAD, Collector.

The residence of Mr. E. B. Brown at Millville Pa., is offered at private sale. Apply before Dec. 24th 1888. Two-thirds of price may be left in the property secured by first mortgage. Apply to J. J. Brown Bloomsburg Pa.

Notice is hereby given that five per cent will be added to all taxes unpaid in Hemlock township after the tenth day of January, 1889, and collection will be forced after that date.

JOHN APPELMAN, Collector.

The window of J. F. Caldwell's Cafe presented a very attractive appearance on Thanksgiving Day. In it were turkeys, ducks, geese, woodcock, rabbits, pheasant, quail, and all other delicacies of the season. It was handsomely arranged, and a single look was enough to make a man hungry. Caldwell's Cafe has built up a wide reputation.

The Great Eastern Tea Store has given the people of Bloomsburg a better market for luxuries, than has ever been enjoyed here before. Fruits of all kinds, fresh vegetables in season, and many other desirable things for table use, can be found there. Messrs. Porter and Weaver are entering young men, and they merit the liberal patronage which they are receiving.

The contract for the erection of Manor Rest Inn at Jamison city has been awarded to Wesley and Smith of Benton for $5375, and work will be commenced soon. The stone foundation has been laid under the direction of Mathias Shaffer, and by May 1, the new hotel will be completed. It will be the first class in all its appointments, and it is expected that it will be a popular mountain summer resort.

The Philologist Society gave an entertainment in Normal Hall and afterwards held a reunion in the boarding building on Thanksgiving evening. The program for the evening's entertainment consisted of music by Prof. Niles' orchestra, vocal music, tableaux, recitations, &c. and well carried out and listened to by a good sized and well pleased audience. The entertainment was also well attended and the evening passed off pleasantly for all.

Paul E. Wirtz's latest design in fountain pens consists of a gold ink shaft instead of rubber. The pen and shaft are in one piece and the shaft is bent back over the pen, thus making the construction more simple, and reducing the chances of the pen getting out of order. Mr. Wirtz's inventive genius in the pen line seems to be unlimited. He has made lots of money out of his patents, and the best feature of it all is that he invests his money in a manner calculated to benefit the public by improving the town. Such capitalists are a blessing to any community.

Margaret, youngest daughter of Rev. Dr. S. Mitchell, died at Mt. Carmel last week Tuesday. The remains were interred at Muncy on Friday. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends here.

Small-pox has broken out at Kingston.

A nice line of wedding invitations will be found at the COLUMBIAN office.

Consult the advertisements in this paper before making your holiday purchases.

Two large black bears have been killed on the North Mountain recently.

For hanging lamps, cheap prices, way down, go to Mercer's Drug & Book store.

Hohr McHenry's new store building at Benton is about completed.

Fine Cabinets in vignette or scroll.

M'Killip Bros.

Our merchants are getting in holiday goods in great quantities.

Powder for stump blasting at J. R. Schuyler & Co.

W. S. Moyer has moved into his new house on Market street.

Bela Lockwood will be one of the lecturers before the coming Teachers' Institute.

See the line of plush and leather albums. Price $1 to $2. at Mercer's Drug & Book store.

Tuesday last week the First National Bank, of Nantuxum, was organized with a paid up capital stock of $100,000.

Orangeville is among the growing towns of the county. A number of new buildings have recently been erected there.

Deer seem to be scarce on the North Mountain this season. But few have been killed.

J. R. Schuyler & Co., have opened their holiday stock of fine silverware, the largest assortment ever shown. No trouble to show goods.

A. Soller, of Bloomsburg, Pa., has just received another fine lot of German Day and Night Singing Canaries also on hand Parrots, Mocking Birds, Nightingales, etc.

Saturday morning 2000 men and boys were thrown out of work by the indefinite suspension of the Union Coal Company and the Reading Coal and Iron Company's collieries in the region about Mt. Carmel.

Jamison City is growing. A large boarding house has been recently completed, but it is not sufficient for the accommodation of all who would board. By next summer this new town will be in a flourishing condition.

The change of time on the B. & S. which went into effect last week, Monday, will be found under the proper head on this page. Due notice was given by printed schedules posted up at every station, and elsewhere. There are now three trains a day each way.

Samuel Knorr of Briarcrest shot a large deer at the North Mountain Friday last week, weighing about 200 pounds dressed. The friends with him shot another one. They saw a number of deer, and also wounded a large bear, but he escaped from them.

A democratic administration gave Bloomsburg the best, post-office the town has ever had, both in the location, equipment, services and all its appointments. If there is anything in civil service reform, there will be no change in the post-office for the next four years.

Life size crayons in gold frames only $1.00.

M'Killip Bros.

Twenty-five cents a day purchases a $4,000 policy in The Travelers of Hartford, which is payable in event of death by the insured, with $15 weekly indemnity for wholly disabling injury. J. H. Malzer, agent, second floor COLUMBIAN building Bloomsburg.

For nearly two hours the speaker held his vast audience spell-bound, one moment causing his hearers to shed tears in the next convulsing them with laughter. Harrisburg Telegram.

Rev. N. H. Miller of Evansville, Ind., says of Dr. Willitt: It was the most captivating, thrilling, interesting lecture I ever heard.

Bela Lockwood, the distinguished orator and queen of the American bar, will lecture on Social and Political Life in Washington.

Look out for our holiday goods in a week or two.

Alfred, occurring Sunday in Briarcrest, was that of Mrs. J. L. Hicks, daughter of Mr. A. B. Croop. She was sick about four weeks with pneumonia, and while she was lying in her sick bed on the first floor her husband was on the second floor. She died without the attention of an affectionate husband while he was seriously ill did not see the face of his wife, even after her eyes were closed in death. The husband is lying in a critical condition, while two little boys one 3 years old and the other four and a half, are left. Fortunately kind grandparents have taken care of the children. The funeral took place Tuesday, many sorrowing friends following the remains to its last resting place. She was 26 years of age.

Do you suffer with catarrh? You can be cured if you take Hoo's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. Sold by all druggists.

In order to close out the first edition we will send, postage paid, for one dollar to any address a copy of the History of Columbia County. This volume contains 600 pages, and is handsomely bound in cloth, with gilt lettering. The price asked does not pay first cost, but this special inducement is offered in order to close out. 75 cents will buy the book at this office. The information contained in this book is invaluable to every intelligent citizen, and many persons have paid twelve dollars for a history of the county, containing no more information than can be found in the book we offer for 75 cents. In fact the historical portion of the twelve dollar book was largely copied from Freese's History. But strange to say, there were more copies of the former work sold than of the latter. Why was this? Simply because "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country." The writer and the publishers of one book that sold at first for $2.50, lived in Bloomsburg, and there was no chance for humbuggery; the writers and publishers of the $12.00 book were entire strangers, and hence there was a chance to be swindled, and therefore the book took like wildfire, and nearly 1000 copies were sold.

Freese's History of Columbia County contains information that cannot be found elsewhere, and when the present edition is exhausted, (and there are but a few copies left.) it will never be printed again. Think of it! A complete history of your own county for 75 cents. Send in your order at once. $1.00 by mail. Address, The COLUMBIAN, Bloomsburg Pa.

Peruse I. Maier, the Clothier, his new ad- vertisement, and learn what he has to say.

Notice to Collectors and Township Officers.

An act of the Legislature and approved June 2nd 1881 (See pamphlet laws, page 45) requires tax collectors, township and borough officers to make return of seated and unseated lands upon which no property can be found from which to make taxes the first day of January next, with a sufficient description by boundaries or otherwise, of each separate lot or tract and about the quantity of the same. Those who fail to make returns by said day will be held for such less Taxes so returned become a lien against the property so returned. We have blanks on which these returns are to be made and will furnish them upon application of collectors.

It is the duty of each School Board, Supervisor, and Overseer of the Poor to see that these taxes are returned. J. D. BOSS, Com's. Clerk, Nov. 16 77.

For stationery of all kinds go to Mercer's Drug & Book store.

List of letters remaining in P. O. at Benton P. for week ending Nov. 30, 1888.
Mrs. S. W. Wiles, Mr. Mathew Luxenberger, H. Clay Jones, Mr. C. M. Miller, Mr. Albert Schuster, Mr. Peter Wademan, Mr. Albert Carpenter, J. B. Linn, B. W. Linn, Leonard Hess, J. H. Brown, Henry Everett, Leonard Post, H. H. Roberts, Daniel Giger, R. L. Shultz, M. F. Nagel, Jno. W. Shultz, Lawson Lewis, J. Z. Roberts, E. Sweet, C. B. Melick, Jacob Snyder, Franklin Nagle, R. M. Shultz, David Roberts. Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised."
ELA E. APPELMAN, P. M.

For every variety and phase of the many diseases which attack the air passages of the head, throat, and lungs, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will be found a specific. This preparation allays inflammation, controls the disposition to cough, and prevents consumption.

Suit was brought before Esquire Jacoby by B. F. Rice of Esopus, against Dr. Frost of this place, on Tuesday last week to recover damages for breach of contract in the sale of a horse. The particulars are given in our issue of the 11th inst. Dr. Frost had entered into an agreement with Mr. Rice to have a horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for $50 damages for breach of contract. Several witnesses were called for both sides. Dr. Frost testified, in effect, that he had sold the horse to a third party, and that he had no horse brought to his place at a stipulated time, and for which he was to pay $120.00. Dr. Frost afterwards re-considered his offer and refused to accept the horse, when Rice brought suit for