THE KING OF HIGHWAYMEN AT LARGE

Everything seems to indicate that Black Bart, the lonely highwayman who was released from St. Quentin Prison in January last, has again taken up his old profession and is responsible for the numerous stage coach robberies which have recently occurred in the far West.

Black Bart's real name is Charles E Boles. He was born in Jefferson county, N. Y., in 1830. He came to California after the excitement of 1849 or about 1850 and worked in the mines with some success in Butte, Eldorado Shasta and Trinity counties. In 1854 he returned east and settled in Illinois. When the war broke out he lived at Decateur, where, early in 1861, he joined the One Hundred and Sixteenth Illinois Infantry Volunteers. He gained some distinction for bravery and was made a sergeant. In 1865 he re-turned to his home and sold his farm, locating his wife and three small children, all girls, in Oregon, Illinois, and started for Montana. He worked for eighteen months in the mines at Helena and regularly corresponded with his wife and family, and in 1867 wrote them that he had settled up his business and was coming home.

Then he disappeared entirely and from this time forth his career as a noted highwayman began. He robbed twenty eight stages before he was caught and since his release from prison several robberies have been committed in which his peculiar methods are recognized On the 27th of last July a stage going from Balber, Modoc county, to Redding, Shasta county, was stopped in a lonely piece of road. Suddenly, from a piece of copse, out stepped a man armed with a six shooter in front of the lead horses, who covered the driver and ordered him to hand over the mail-bag and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s treasure box. He secured between $300 and $400. Not until the 8th of November last was he heard of again, when he cropped up in front of the Downieville and Nevada City stage near Nigger Tent. Here Mrs. Vanderbilt, the widow of William valued at $2,200 six and three quarter inches long, and marked "H. Scammon

CATARRH,

Catarrhal Beafness and Hay Fever A NEW HOME TREATMENT. A NEW HOME TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should ad the above carefully.

In addition to the regular business course it makes a specialty of Phonography, Type-writing, Telegraphy, and Ornamental Pennanship. The prominent feature of the Commercial Course is its practical character. Nearly every set of books has been taken from first-class business establishments, and a large proportion of the course in book-keeping is made up from our system of actual business practice ansurpassed in the scientific application to modern business methods. A larger proportion of our graduates regularly obtain first-class positions than from any other commercial college in the state. Year begins Aug. 29, 1888. For circulars address.

MINERS FIGHT FOR THE CHAMPION-SHIP OF COLUMBIA COUNTY.

CENTRALIA, December 15 .- One of the fiercest prize-fights that have ever taken place in this section was fought in a scoluded spot about a mile from town at six o'clock this evening. The pugilists were William Callogy and Michael Grant. Callogy is 27 years old, measures six feet and weighs 200 old, measures six feet and weighs 200 pounds. Grant, who is 24 years old weighs but 180 pounds and measures five feet ten inches. The mill was governed by Marquis of Queensberry rules and seventeen rounds were fought in which both were frightfully pun-

Grant, who suffered the most, presen ted a horrible abpearance. His face was bruised and swollen and his body pouuded black. He avoided a great many blows by falling as his opponent rashed at him. After fighting half an hour the friends of Grant become dissatisfied with the decisions of the referee, and breaking down the ropes rushed into the ring. The referee quickly declared the fight a draw, and the men were carried away by their admirers. Both men are miners, and the fight is the result of a dispute as to which was champion of the county. It is believed that they will meet again, as both are determined to have the question settled.

Pond's Extract

As a household remedy there are tex family medicines that are as popular as POND'S EXTRACT. It can be found in the houses of almost every family North, South, East or West, in this country, and largely abroad. First mede over forty years ago in a small way, it has continued to increase until now its sales run into millions of bottles year. Its uses are almost universal, and one of its valuable properties is that it is perfectly harmless. For wounds its healing powers are wonderful, its stringent properties stopping the flow of blood; for bad wounds it's just the thing to aply until the doctor arrives. For inflamations, the pain and swellings go down immediately on its aplication. To name what it can would fill a book. Reader we ask yon, if you have not already done so, to try it." Medical Value of Wines

As a general rule the use of wire is not necessary for young persons in good health, breathing country air and not exposed to overwork. As, however, life advances and the circulation ecomes languid, natural red wine used in moderation, becomes an essential article and in many cases absolutely accessary, but it must be the pure pro-duct of the grapes. And even in the Eastern States the physician meet large umbers of town people, especially vomen, who cannot diges the food and drinks suited to out-door laboring people. In such cases they resort to he beverage of tea which gives rise to a distressing dyspepsia. The wines produced in New Jersey, especially the Burgandy and the Port Grape Wines from Alfred Speer, svineyards, at Passaio, are the more reliable and the most sought after by physicians and those who have traveled abroad and known what wires are. Alfred Speer, Passaic, N. J.

Expelling an Advertising Doctor-At the meeting of the Luzerne County Medical Society Thursday they declined to accept the resignation of Dr. J. Harvey Moore, of Pitteton, and ordered his name to be expunged from the list, of members. Dr. Moore it now transpires has been advertising his business in the local papers and this is in opposition to the code of ethics of the society. He is a prominent well-know young physician of Pittston, and having mate a special study of diseases of the eye, ear and throat, inserted a card to that effect in the local papers. The medical society of which he was a member notified him that his conduct was unprofessional. Dr. Moore refused to discontinue advertising, regarding it as a matter of business, and handed in his resignation, which was acted on as above mentioned. The Luzerne County Medical society dorsn't believe in any kind of advertising except the dead head brand. When the members do anything out of the usual routine of medical work they want the news papers to give them 2 half column, but when it comes to a paid advertisement

TATE SPRINGS, TENN., July 4, 1888.
The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.:
During the spring of 1871, while working in the field at my home in Morgan county, Ga., I pulled off my shoes to give my feet a rest. Unfortunately, I walked into a clump of poison oak, and in a few days my feet were in a terrible condition, and I could not put on a shoe because of the soreness and swelling. I was treated as poison oak cases usually are, and everything was healed up. About the same time the following spring, 1872, my feet became sore again, as at first, and every succeeding spring for five years 1872, my feet became sore again, as at first, and every succeeding spring for five years brought back the same condition of the disease, only each time it became more distressing, because I began to think it was a lifetime trouble. Finally, I was induced to try Swift's Specific. I took six bottles, and to-day am entirely well. My improvement was gradual from the first, and no evidence of the disease remains. I shall take pleasure in testifying as to its curative properties. It is the greatest blood purifier in existence. Yours truly, J. L. Moscan.

The foregoing certificate is taken at random from thousands of letters in possession of the Swift Specific Co., and presented simply as a sample. It is a voluntary attacement, giving facts and results of the case. Its accuracy and genuineness are leavened question. beyond question.
