

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 1889.

The joint resolution to submit the prohibition amendment to the constitution to a vote of the people passed the House finally on Tuesday by a vote of 132 to 55.

THE COURT AND THE LICENSES.

Persons engaged in an effort to restrain the liquor traffic are entitled to all respect and consideration, and so far as this paper is concerned, they are at liberty at all times, and in all proper ways, to bring their views before the public.

On the other hand, there are certain provisions regarding the manner in which the proceedings on behalf of those who wish to oppose the granting of licenses shall be conducted.

A failure to comply strictly with the provisions of the law laid down for the guidance of the opponents of licenses, is just as fatal to their proceedings as a failure on the part of license applicants to do so.

In order to remind the readers of the COLUMBIAN that the above named law is still in the country, we give the following items from our side: Our oldest weather prophets cannot understand it—the weather.

Our side got left at the Agricultural meeting last Saturday. We have no officers on the board from here.

Supreme Court questions whether its sale should be licensed. The Supreme Court, Jan. 14, reversed the Quarter Sessions of Warren county in the case of the Commonwealth against Reiburg.

A Personally-Conducted Tour to Florida and Pennsylvania.

Following up the policy so successfully inaugurated last winter, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that a series of tours will be arranged this season for points in Florida and Georgia.

An amendment giving a bounty of one cent per pound on all sugar produced in this country has been added to the Senate tariff bill.

General J. C. Black, commissioner of pensions, will, it is thought, be appointed Judge Advocate General of the Army, unless it shall be shown that he is ineligible, which is claimed by some prominent men.

There are nearly 250 nominations pending on the Senate, the most of them for postmasters. There is no reason why they should not be confirmed except that the Republicans want to keep the place for Harrison to fill.

Tom Reed, of Maine, is much discredited in the manner in which Blaine is underlining his strength in the Speakership canvass.

On Saturday afternoon last the President and Mrs. Cleveland received a visit from Vice President and Mrs. Morton.
