We mean the Black Surahs, the 26 inch wide sort, at 75 cents, well worth $1, and the other sort, 22 inch wide, at 65 cents, equally worth 85 cents.

They have been fetching the higher prices. The lower prices are not, as it were, gammon with or myth to mystify, but facts, hard facts, worth all your Black Surah faith.

We crow for the real Shanghai. Honest for once is the heathen Chinese, and he beats out the French Foulard.

Our India Silks produced by Art and Nature, brought by Commerce. We have said boastful things of them—not vainglorious. We boast more each day as the choice grows greater of the styles exclusively our own.

Come look on them in the first coming brightness. The widths 24 to 28 inches. The prices 75 cents to $1.50. The patterns—types cannot tell them, nor the colors.

Converted Mohairs. Perhaps they started in the natural gray to be men's coatings, but here they are exquisite dress goods.

The botany of the decoration we leave for your critical study. But the tone and the face of the goods as a ground for exquisite color-work is the special point for your thought.

January was a month of rush, crush and scurry in Linens as well as in other goods. Clear-
