Land Commissioner Stockslagr fears there will be trouble in Oklahoma. He says that only about 10,000 homesteads can be entered under the President's proclamation, and he has every reason to believe that at least 100,000 persons will enter the country within thirty days from its opening next Monday.

The new administration is making a record for itself on the pension ques tion. It is going faster than the most radical had any idea that it would a short time ago, and no man can at this time foresee the end. Aseistant Secretary Bussey, of the In-terior department, before whom appeals from the decisions of the Comsioner of Pensions are heard, seems to outdo the "Corporal" in his con struction of the law as applied to pen-sions. It is estimated that the decisions of the late Commissioner-General Black-which Bussey has always reversed, will cost the Government more than $1,000,000. He should changhis name to Buster. cost more than $50,000 a year. The following is the order: "Whenever a pensioner is disabled in a hand or foor in a degree subtraction of the narder of the cer, made an order last week that will in a degree entitling him to $24 a month under the act of March 3 1883. fact be entitled to the rate of $30 a month under the act of August 4, 1886." nearly 800 pensioners get an increase of $72 a year by this order, and arrears from August 4, 1886.

"The noblest Roman of them all," Allen G. Thurman, iste D mocratic candidate for Vice President was in Washington last week on legal business The old gentleman was looking well and feeling well with the exception of slight rheumatism in his legs. In a conversation with a friend he said: "The people of the country were go d enough to me to vote for me to stay at home, and personally I am glad of it. but I regret the defeat of the party very much, as I regard it as a grea calamity to the country. Mr Cleveland brought about a great many grand reforms during his term of office, and would no doubt have accomplished many more if he had been re-elected.

The Ashland Hospital Managers

Chairman Dearden, of the Appropria tion Committee, has been officially no tion Committee, has been omenany no-tified of the retirement of all the managers of the Ashland Hospital except E. C. Wagner, the Secretary. Mr. Wagner is a new member, and there was no objection made to him. The Appropriation Committee had refused to recommend the appropriation of $900,000 for the maintenance of the hospital unless all the old many gers resigned. The committee took this stand because serious allegations of mismanagement were made against the managers. The resignation of all the managers has been forwarded to Governor Beaver, and it is now safe to say that the appropriation will be recommended by the committee.
