In consequence of winter diet and lack of open air exercise, the whole physical mechanism becomes impaired. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy, in the spring of the year, to strengthen the appetite, invigorate the blood, and expel all impurities from the system.

There is a little dwarf hairy elephant, it's a great living curiosity, which actually rides a bicycle in Barum & Bailey's Greatest Show on earth to the amazement and delight of the children. Subsequently, to gether with the pretty little Steadfast pony, the elephant sits at a table with his pony companion, and both are served in a nice cap style by a large trained monkey acting in the capacity of waiter. It is a very unique and clever exhibition of the remarkable manner in which many animals have been trained to perform in Barum and Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth, which will come here on May 11th.

It may not be generally known that there is a society in Bloomsburg composed entirely of Veterans who enlisted before July 1st, 1863, and served at least two years, unless discharged for wounds received in service. To be qualified to become a member of this organization the applicant must have enlisted before July 1st, 1863, and served at least two years.

At the musicale to be given for the benefit of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, April 23, the pupils of some of the finest teachers in the United States will perform. Mr. and Mrs. W. Lockard studied under Signor Recordi Bandi, of Milan, Italy, and Prof. Mahan, of Detroit, Michigan, well known as the oldest Italian vocal teacher in America. Mann studied under D. D. Wood, the blind organist, and was also a pupil of Marvitz Leeftson, of the Conservatory of Cologne, well known as one of the finest pianists of the present day. A good programme will be presented and all lovers of good music should embrace this opportunity to spend an enjoyable evening.—Sunbury Daily.

Barum and London Fifteen New United Shows.

FIVE NEW SHOWS ADDED THIS YEAR—SOME OF THE WONDROUS THINGS TO BE SEEN.

Among the chief things to be exhibited this year by the Barum and London 15 United Shows, and which have been especially imported at great expense from distant foreign countries, is a grand real wild Moorish Caravan, with male and female Barbary, and comprising Moors, Algerians, Bedouins, Bayaderes, Ouled-Nacis, Arabs and others, together with all their warriors, horses, weapons, costumes, slaves, attendants, musical instruments, domestic animals, charming dancing girls, high priests, soothsayers, herders, tents of animal skins, and everything essential to illustrate the lives of these remarkable people who have existed on the desert of Sahara in a nomadic state since the days of Solomon the Great. Another new feature is the Paris Olympia Hippodrome, purchased in Paris especially for these shows, and in which will run a series of novel and thrilling races, such as four horse Roman standing races, four-horse chariot races, races by trotting steers, giraffes, ostriches, moose, sacred cattle, elephants, camels, ponies, flying pelican race, English whippet race, and others. There are besides other new attractions, such as a real horse fair with actually 800 first-prize horses, the wonderful black tent teeming with chaste, weird, and supernatural illusions produced by the aid of a modern scientific method by a famous magician, the talking seals, the elevated circular stage performances, the double menageries, museum of wonders, performances in three rings, of the wild, the artists, the celebrated imported female riders, 7 open days of trained beasts, 20 four-footed clowns, 20 pantomimic clowns, three circus companies render 125 startling acts. All the tents will remain up until 9 o'clock and the night performances will be precisely the same as those of the afternoon. No peddling will be permitted on the seats. The new street parade with its elegant costumes, new chariots, 12 kinds of music, full military bands, etc., will take place every day at 9 a. m., rain or shine. The shows will exhibit here as they did in New York, on May 11th.

Think you not farmers that if the 70 millions of dollars in Pennsylvania annually wasted for food that impoverishes thousands and thousands of families, robbing them of peace, happiness, and the necessities of life, were turned into the proper channels of trade that the merchant, mechanic, laboring man and farmer would reap a more refreshing profit than the financial depression so frequent and disastrous would not only be remedied, but a thing altogether of the past.

Council Proceedings.

A special meeting, Friday April 19, 1890, was called by the president. Present: President, Harman, Messers. Petterman, Gross, Ringler, Schwinz and Vost.

President stated object of meeting to be to take steps toward fixing tax rate and have that matter disposed of instead of leaving it until later in the summer as had been customary heretofore. He suggested that a rate be proposed, laid over, and adopted at next meeting. Council should also consider the matter of purchasing some stone as they had none on hand and it could not be had on short notice.

Mr. Gross gave notice that he would propose a tax rate of six mills at next meeting.

On motion John Q. Barkley, C. C. Keny and Wm. Lemons were appointed additional policemen.

On motion of Mr. Gross the committee on streets, alleys and materials shall have entire supervision of all work done on the streets and alleys and that the Commissioner of highways be notified that all work contemplated must have the approval of said committee.

President Harman appointed the following standing committee: Louis Gross, Joshua Olympia Hippodrome, purchased in Paris especially for these shows, and in which will run a series of novel and thrilling races, such as four horse Roman standing races, four-horse chariot races, races by trotting steers, giraffes, ostriches, moose, sacred cattle, elephants, camels, ponies, flying pelican race, English whippet race, and others. Communicated.

The selection of sacred music which the young men's orchestra had so appropriately made for the Easter services of St. Paul's Sunday School, was most beautifully rendered last Sunday evening. Not only the Rector and his Sunday School, but all who were in the church at this service were joyfully enjoyed and appreciated. This was a fitting sequel to the delightful music which had been furnished at the earlier services of the day.

Wanamaker's.

The Spring and Summer Catalogue (illustrated) is ready. It will help you in ordering by mail. The book will be sent free if you ask for it on a postal card.

It needs to be repeated and remembered that in all goods, and most emphatically in dress goods, not only is the stock we show the most complete in the world, but the prices are always as low or less than the market. We couldn't afford to have it otherwise.

The effort is frequently made to misrepresent our policy in respect to staple and medium

Wanamaker's.

We do keep everything in Dress Goods that a self-respecting and complete dry goods house should have. You can buy plain staples here at the least, and can find the greatest variety.

We hold and have held the only worthy stock of Gloriosa, Mohairs—Gloriosa so called—have been sold for them at lower prices. Perhaps you've bought them. Had you come here you could have seen Gloriosa and the whole range of Mohairs, each called correctly by name and at proper prices. The same is true of many other things. Sound reasoning says that you cannot afford to ignore Wanamaker's on anything.

A choice pattern of 40-inch all-wool Black Veiling, 50c. One straw from the whole Dress Goods price-sheaf.

Black Surah at 50 and 60 cents a yard, and Black Satin Soleil, a wear well dress-silk, at $1, are the Silk bargains of the hour.

We need to say that sub rosa, else the bargain Indians might be provoked—they are cheap at 75 cents and $1.

But it is the elegance, the completeness, the general excellence and superiority of the Silk stock of which we boast. You know it, as your purchases show. Ere long we shall have even greater cause for boasting—and you for buying.

Don't forget what we told you before—the Museum for Gingham is here—more than a thousand styles. The best of Scotland and New England—the cheapest in Philadelphia.

In almost every case Baby Coach prices are less than last year, and for better qualities at that. All of the higher grades are very much less in price. A remarkably good Carriage for $6; satin lined and some gew-gaws, $9; beribboned, cushioned and parasoled, $11.25; special, shell body, and all the needed agonies, $20. As much better as you care to pay for. All the sorts (maybe fifty of them) are where you can glance them over in five minutes.

Not a bit too soon to think of the Summer Bed Clothes. Summer Blankets, like a film of wool, warm without weight. Single, $3.50; double, $5 and $6. Old-fashioned Dimity Spreads, 65c to $1.20.

Our most popular Summer Spread last season was the "Pique." Same weight as Dimity, but prettier. Four neat block patterns, double bed size, $1.

Colored Cheese-cloth comfortable, to mellow the mattress with or take edge from chill air.

The best $3 shoe for men is the "Wanamaker Wearwell." they're made of tanned calf seamless vamp, genuine Dongola kid top, solid leather insole and half double sole, solid leather counter. Put together to stay. Perfectly smooth insole; no tacks or nails or thread to harrow up your sole. As easy on the inside as a hand sewed shoe. Every pair warranted. Four styles: Laced, capped toe Laced, plain toe Congress, plain toe Button, plain toe Sent anywhere for $3. Send your number and width.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
