From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat

"It is a singular fact," said a lady yesterday, "that a hen's eggs which is scarcely necessary for me to stamp the rumor of an intended visit to Europe like any other, but may be kept for as utterly without foundation. The years, and when opened will be found time has long passed when such a trip to contain only a small, yellowish-brown lamp, resembling beswax." able. At my age one travels easiest And getting up she went to a bracket. shelf and took from a little vase an egg which was marked with indelible ink "Good Friday, 1882," and asked the reporter to examine it. It looked a little old, was very light and had an oily feeling, but that was all that could be noticed different from any Pitcairn, Soperintendent of the Pennother. Then, taking a little pearl paper knife from the table the lady broke the shell and, as she had said, At weddings among Garm it only contained the little waxy lump that she flattened on the end of a spool and dropped in her work-basket. She chatted on about it, saying:

about it, my mother was m New Or-leans some years ago on a visit and someone told her of it. She only laughed at the idea, but when she re-turned home during Holy Week that years she said: 'You must all gather try it, just for food Friday and try it, just for fun.' We did and several years after broke them and all were the same as this one. I don't pretend to give any reason for it, but know it is so."
