Among the visitors at Barnum's last Satirday was an English tourist, wearing a check suit, a tourist cap, field glass, and he inevitable one eye-glass and cane. He mingled in the crowds everywhere, and asked all sorts of absurd questions, with the broad accent of the English dude. Just before the performance began, he unceremoniously walked into the reserved seats and sat down. An usher demanded his check, but the dude refused either to show his check or leave the seat, whereupon the usher seized him, and rushing him down the seats pitched him head-long over the ropes. The dude was wild with rage, and protested that "you wouldn't dare to do that in England, my boy." He repeated the same act several times, while the audience indulged in expressions of approval or disapproval of the roughness of the usher. "Serves him right." the men said, while the ladies exclaimed. "Oh, what a shame! Those who were in the secret, and knew that this was only a part of the show, enjoyed the sell immensely. ### Married too Couple.

Monday Alderman Noble, of this city nited in marriage Mr. Thomas A. Defty and Miss Mary A. Moore, both of Cook's Run. This makes the three hundredth couple that the Alderman has tied together for life during his official career, which is s record that but few, if any, can boast of. Mr. Noble has also married three people of the second generation, children of parents ing at. formerly married by him. We think the Alderman is entitled to the banner .- Lock Haven Democrat.

WANAMAKER'S. PHILADELPHIA, Monday, May 18, 1889. It has been our aim for a series of years to print store news that would be universally read. Our methods, being right, have succeeded. Fresh Co. Judgment for plaintiff, amount to be items and true statements have won and held a reading constituency the like of which never before been known. Under the leadership thus created a larger truthfulness has come about, but a mass of inaccuracy in advertising still remains, which discounts the efforts of all sincere advertisers. Our interests demand unceasing warfare upon everything of the

But we cannot fight in detail. Every instance in which competing goods are offered as B. Bowman and Samuel E. Smith. On bargains at higher prices than we charge regular cannot be challenged; when Sateens are stated to be more popular this season than ever, which every dress goods man knows to be untrue; when Mohair is called Gloriosa, or Cashmere Henrietta; when staple articles, open to all the trade, are represented as exclusive simply because of a fictitious trade-mark arbitrarily attached; when such things as these are printed we cannot pause to contradict each misstatement. The fixed principles beneath this business are our reliance. We try to make them plain and execute them.

A trade trophy turns up this week. Wool Challis, 281/2 Commonwealth vs. Chas. Anderson, rule inches wide, at 25 cents. Recently they were cheap at 371 cents. If ever retailed less, we
