

In Defense of Prohibition. EDITORS COLUMBIAN, DEAR SIR: As I have been asked to personal abuse by Mr. Derr, I expect in defense of myself the same privilege.

what a contradiction that is, to say first that they have the power of obedience by becoming responsible for the government of their children, and then to say that they are to be under obedience, and he allows the man to slip clear when he has all the power to make laws, etc.

Make a very small hole in each end of a fresh egg and after blowing out the contents, close one end with a bit of sealing wax, cut two pieces of cloth in the shape of the body of a fish, and sew them together on the edges so as to make a pointed bag.

THE SHOE BRUSH GONE. I won't miss it, for I have long since adopted an easier and cleaner way. A bottle of Wolff's ACME Blacking and a sponge to keep my shoes washed clean, save a deal of labor and shoe leather.

Hospital Punishment Abolished. The present Board of Pardons has practically abolished capital punishment in Pennsylvania. It has made a startling record in reversing the laws and the judicial tribunals of the State, and this week it reached the climax by setting aside two judgments of the only proper authority in the administration of justice.

When Samuel Johnson could be released from the death penalty, after his conviction had been adjudged by every judicial tribunal of the State, it would be simply a mockery of justice to execute the sentence of the State.

With Johnson rescued from the judgment of the law, there was eminent fitness in commencing the death penalty in the case of Mrs. Whiting, now Mrs. Moysenowicz, for the murder of her husband, and a like commutation in the case of Mrs. Whiting, having been hung in effigy in Juniata county for saving a wife-murderer from the gallows.
