COM.

Great changes are going on in the COLUMBIAN office this week. Carpenters, machinists have had full possession, and the entire interior of the composing and press rooms has been changed. The new job and book press has been set up by an expert from the shops of the Campbell Printing Press Co., in New York, and in a very short time everything will be in complete running order.

John S. Williams is a first-class auctioneer. When his services are engaged he does not content himself with simply crying the sale on the day appointed, but he hunts up bidders beforehand, and gets them interested. His sales are always well attended, and bring fair prices. Those who have real estate or personal property to sell will do well to secure his services.

There will be two games of ball at Athletic Park to-day (Thursday) between the home nine and Anthracites of Wilkes-Barre, one in the morning at 9.30 and the other at 3 p. m. The batteries for the Bloom nine will be in the morning, McAuliffe and Hayes and in the afternoon Hayes and Shaffer. Don't miss seeing these games, which promise to be most exciting ones.

The alumni dinner at the Central hotel last Thursday was served in excellent style and all who participated were well pleased. The committee having the matter in charge did all in their power to make the occasion a success, but for some cause the attendance was small, only about thirty being present. Notices were sent out to over 500 of the alumni, and six of them replied. But two of the graduating class were present at the dinner. The members of the Alumni Association who reside in Bloomsburg should take more interest in these annual dinners.

Irene Crawford, little daughter of Mr. Francis Crawford, near Light Street, who was a great sufferer for several weeks, departed this life June 27th at the age of 9 months and 20 days.

The funeral services were held at the house of Mr. Emanuel Artman in Frosty Valley, where the child had lived since the death of her mother about a month ago. The remains were borne to the Light Street cemetery. A. R. Glaze of Espy was the officiating clergyman.

On Children's Day the Lutheran church at Buckhorn also remembered the children of the Orphan's Homes with a handsome contribution.

Concerning the matter of dividing Lycoming county into two counties is thus alluded to by the Gazette & Bulletin:

The talk among the people of the South Side townships about organizing a new county is still being agitated. They claim that it would be beneficial to them, especially on the bridge question. Viewing the situation calmly, however, it would seem that it would be more difficult to get a new county than a free bridge. The organization of the county would have to be effected by legislative enactment. Last spring a great effort was made to form the county of Hazle, which failed in the face of great pressure. It is evident that the Legislature considers the State divided into a sufficient number of counties.

"If you are going to camp out in the woods this summer and want to enjoy yourself," said a veteran in the business, "be sure of the make-up of your party. A camp should never contain any but the most congenial spirits. A person may be a tiptop fellow, as things go every day, and yet be a disturbing element in camp. There should never be a 'kicker' in the party. A man who will shirk any duty about a camp will set the whole party by the ears in a short time. You don't want with you the fellow who is always watching his chance to get the best place by the fire, the preferable corner for a bunk, or the brownest trout for breakfast, or who is unseemly hasty to be the first on the brook or lake with his rod. And never go into camp with three in a party. There will be trouble, sure, if you do. It is a singular freak of camp human nature for men to divide in couples. Two of your three campers will thus favor one another, and the third will naturally become dissatisfied. Two is company and three is none in camp. Have your party an even number, whatever you do."

A party of young and old people of Laporte visited Columbia county on Saturday last. Among the number were Russel Karns and wife, Sheriff Tripp and wife, F. M. Crossley and wife, and George Cole and wife. The party on their way to Benton enjoyed a trout dinner at Hotel Perry and after amusing themselves for a few hours, gazing upon the mountain scenery, continued their journey to Benton and put up for the night at Hotel McHenry. Mr. McHenry had been notified that a party of Laporters would register with him on Saturday and in order to give them a good time, invited the young people of Benton to assemble at his house in the evening to join in a dance which he had arranged for the Sullivan party. There were a large number of people present and all enjoyed the evening's entertainment. On Sunday forenoon the Laporters started homeward bound, and took dinner at Hotel Tripp, at Jameson City, and after exploring the lumber city for a few hours continued their journey, reaching home at 5 o'clock p. m. All expressed a good time and extended their many thanks to the Columbia county friends for courtesy shown.—Laporte Republican.

A Big Sum For Bridges.

It has been stated in these columns that Lycoming County lost twenty-six bridges by the flood which have to be replaced. And the Commissioners have been busy for some time letting the contracts for the new structures, the majority of which will be of iron. These bridges will average $4,200 each, which will entail an expense on the county of over one hundred thousand dollars. This is one of the results of the flood, and while the item is a big one, it must be borne by the taxpayers.—Gazette & Bulletin.

The Stars in the Flag.

On July 4, an incident of no little interest and one not likely to be soon duplicated, will take place in our navy. The flag with thirty-eight stars, which has waved for thirteen years, will be replaced, by Secretary Tracy's orders, with the new flag with forty-two stars on its field of blue. The arrangement of stars on the new flag will consist of six rows of seven stars each. It is to be noted that such a rectangular disposition of them will not be possible again until there are forty-eight states in the Union; and when there are forty-nine the stars will form a perfect square.

The New Bridge at Montgomery.

It has been decided by the officials of the Pennsylvania railroad to build a double track iron bridge over the West Branch at Montgomery to replace the old wooden single track structure swept away by the flood a month ago. Orders for the new material have been just placed, and the work will be rushed to completion by fall. A large force of men is now employed on the preliminary work. A branch road from that point to Williamsport, on the tow-path of the canal, is also one of the probabilities of the near future. Such a line would give connection with that city despite the washing away of the bridge.

Johnstown Relief Fund.

The following sums have been received at the First National Bank of Bloomsburg in aid of the Johnstown sufferers and remitted to Drexel & Co., Treasurers of said relief fund.

James C. Sylvis, .50; Mrs Galloway, .50; J. H. Aikman, $1.00; Sherman Peacock, $1.00; T. C. Wilson, $1.00; A. W. Spear, $1.00; W. T. Galloway, $1.00; Prof. Chapin, $1.00; Rebecca Kline, $1.00; A Friend, $1.00; Sarah J. Houtz, $2.00; A. Houtz, $3.00; S. W. Sears, $3.00; Layton Runyan, $5.00; G. W. Keiter, $5.00; Philo Literary Society, $5.00; Mary Tustin, $5.00; Ed Tustin, $5.00; J. P. Tustin, $10.00; I. W. McKelvy, $10.00; Dr. J. J. Brown, $10.00; Wm. Neal, $20.00.

Total $92.00.

New Coal Yards.

Messrs. W. R. Kocher & Co. have purchased lands north of Iron street, adjoining the railroad, and have now nearly completed a switch leading to an elevated coal shed. The switch enters at Iron street and circles around to Seventh street. In this manner parties can obtain entrance at Iron street, Seventh street and Clinton alley. The elevated shed is constructed with shutes, having the bottoms lined with sheet iron, with perforations, so that the coal is screened while loaded, and is loaded without any shoveling. The building has storage room for 1500 tons of coal. Scales are located on Fifth street, alongside of the shed, making it convenient for weighing. Large awnings will be built to protect the teams from the storms while loading. When the cars are once in the sheds they will be free from all storms. The use of the shutes will certainly save much labor in handling coal.

Queer Things That are Patented.

There is a claim in the patent office for a patent on the Lord's prayer, the specifications are that the repetition of the same "rapidly and in a loud tone of voice" will cure stammering.

Among odd inventions are "chicken hopples," which walk the chicken right out of the garden when she tries to scratch; "the bee moth excluder," which automatically shuts up all the bee-hives when the hens go to roost; "the tape worm fish-hook," which speaks for itself; the "educational balloon," a toy balloon with a map of the world on its surface, "side hill annihilators"—stilts to fit on the down-hill legs of a horse when he is ploughing along a side hill; and the "hen surpriser," a device that drops the newly-laid egg through the bottom of the nest, with intent to beguile and weedle the hen into at once laying another.

One of the latest patents is an automatic bath-tub, which starts the hot and cold water at a given moment in the morning to which it has been set, maintains exactly the right temperature of it by graduating the flow of water, rings a bell, when all is ready, and, two minutes later, suddenly drops the sleeper's pillow about a foot and turns him out.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Trinity College Encampment.

A new feature in college life was recently introduced by Mr. Robert H. Coleman, of Lebanon, who is this week entertaining the faculty, alumni and undergraduates of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn. at his beautiful park in Lebanon County, Pa., known as Mt. Gretna. The Park is a very inviting resort, and possesses attractions that are hardly surpassed anywhere. To get there, one goes to Conewago, a few miles below Harrisburg, and there takes the cars on the Cornwall & Lebanon R. R. This road extends to Lebanon, and was built and is owned by Mr. Coleman. A ride of a few miles brings one to the entrance of Mt. Gretna, and the beauty of the surroundings bursts upon the view. Upon entering the gates one sees a large grove wherein is a pavilion containing a restaurant. All around are tables, benches, swings, a dancing platform, merry-go-round, fountains, &c. and just at the right is a train of miniature cars which run on the Mt. Gretna Narrow Gauge, to the camping ground, to Lake Conewago and then climbs the mountain for four miles until it reaches the summit 1200 feet above the camp, and there discloses a view beyond description. All this is the property of Mr. Coleman, his lands embracing 6000 acres, and to this lovely spot he invited the men of Trinity College, his Alma Mater, to spend a week, beginning Friday, June 28th, and ending next Saturday. It was the privilege of the writer to spend three days at the encampment, and to meet some old school fellows whom he had not met in many years.

The tents used in the camp were those used by the National Guards of Pennsylvania. In separate tents there was an office where a register was kept, and anything wanted could be obtained of Mr. Burchinell, an experienced hotel clerk; a barber shop, news stand, telegraph office, &c. In the centre was a large tent designated as headquarters, which was presided over by the Camp Director, Mr. Allen D. Hoffer, a most accomplished and entertaining gentleman, who had charge of the details of the camp, and the universal expressions of approbation that were heard throughout the grounds gave testimony to the very successful results effected by him. He is the treasurer of the Cornwall & Lebanon R. R. Co., and one of Mr. Coleman's most valuable and valued assistants.

The amusements and pastimes that engaged the attention of the camp, were boating, fishing, base ball, tennis, music, and excursions to surrounding points of interest on Mr. Coleman's extensive domains, on one of his railroads, special trains being made ready on short notice by Superintendent Irish apparently when anybody wished for one.

The reunion was a most enjoyable one, and even the almost continuous rain of the opening days could not dampen the ardor of the participants. Trinity College owes Mr. Coleman and his assistants a large debt of gratitude.

Sullivan and Kilrain.

THE ELABORATE ARRANGEMENTS MADE TO GET TO THE FIGHT.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—Five of the ten club cars for the prize fight have already been taken and there is little doubt but the others will be sold. The press representatives will go on the first train and so will the pugilists, Sullivan's car being at the front of the train and Kilrain's at the rear. This is if Sullivan does not go over the night before the fight. Mr. Renaud has received such encouraging news from the North that he has changed his views as to the crowd at the ring, and now expects 2500 persons. This will necessitate thirty-five cars, which will go out in three trains, one at 4 o'clock in the morning, the other two at 6 o'clock. Telegrams have already been received here of parties coming from Birmingham, Montgomery, Pensacola, Mobile, Chattanooga, Hazlehurst, Vicksburg, Greenville, Memphis, Jackson, Houston, Galveston, Jacksonville and other points in the south and many have already ordered their tickets. Less is known of the attendance from the North, but a fair number is expected. It is thought that all who hope to witness the fight will be here on Saturday. Quite a number of sporting men are already here to survey the field well in advance. Among the arrivals today were twenty-five from Denver.

There is no change in the programme. Captain Jamieson, of Meridian, has accepted the offer to police the grounds and will come with twenty Mississippi rangers, men who have had a wide and varied experience in quelling riots. They will be supplemented by forty officers from New Orleans, giving a police force of sixty men, all men of nerve and spirit. There will be two to each car to prevent any roughs sneaking in and to keep order at the ring side. Every effort will be made to deter the roughs from going to the fight, and it is hoped to get a genteel crowd there.

KILRAIN'S PROGRAMME.

There is some doubt whether Kilrain will be here on Friday as originally proposed, as a despatch was received here to-day saying that he would come in the train due Saturday. It has finally been determined by his representatives here that he shall accept the offer of the Southern Athletic Club, practicing at their club room and boarding next door, where a suite of rooms has been fitted up especially for his benefit.

On Sunday night he is to go down to the car specially fitted up for him and retire to rest early. His car will be hitched on the club train next morning and taken to the ring without awaking him, as he is said to be a very heavy sleeper, and he will not leave until he walks out of it dressed and ready for the fight.

Sullivan is to lodge at the Spanish fort on Saturday night, in a room fitted up for him just over the Casino. Sunday night it is proposed that he shall take his car for the battle ground and lay at a side track, within a short distance of it, where he will sleep quietly there until next morning, thus avoiding too early rising or any exhaustion from a trip on the cars. The final decision in this matter will rest with his trainers.

Messrs. Barnett, Stevenson and Harding, Kilrain's and Sullivan's representatives here, attended a reception tendered them by the Southern Athletic Club to night. There is expected to be a general outpouring of sporting men at Mike Donovan's benefit at the St. Charles on Saturday night, and Kilrain has telegraphed that he will be present. There seems to be a general disposition here to lionize not only the pugilists themselves, but even their advance agents. All the athletic and boat clubs have tendered the use of their houses to Sullivan and Kilrain; indeed, they could get any quarters in town they wished.

A SQUARE FIGHT LOOKED FOR.

There is not much stock taken here in the stories of a hippodrome, and the general belief among the many sporting men already congregated here is that it will be a fight and a square one, with the result largely depending on Kilrain's style of fighting.

In this connection the remarks of Kilrain's representatives here are generally considered as significant, for, while they no authority to speak for him, it is probable that they have some idea of the tactics he will pursue. Mike Donovan says his man will follow Sullivan's lead of fast fighting if the champion so leads off, or play a waiting game if Sullivan is slow.

Frank Stevenson delares that Kilrain is not going to stand up straight and let Sullivan hit him, just because he can hit best in that way. People may talk about Kilrain's imitating Mitchell's tactics, said he, but that will make no difference, and will not deter him from fighting in the way that suits him best. The general impression is that Sullivan will try a rushing fight and Kilrain a waiting game.

Any difficulty in the ring between the seconds is regarded as improbable, although Cleary and Mitchell hate each other so that it will be difficult to keep them apart.

Some doubt has arisen as to the meaning of Rule 5 of the London prize ring rules, which declares that the referee shall call time at the expiration of thirty seconds, upon which each man shall walk unaided to his own side of the scratch, the seconds leaving it immediately afterwards. The doubt existing is as to how the time is to be counted. Donovan thinks it ought to be construed to mean thirty seconds from the time the corner is reached, and Harding says that at the Smith-Kilrain fight this point was argued and an agreement reached that the time should be from the moment the first man reached his corner. This point will be re-argued at the coming fight, and a similar agreement probably reached.

There is no betting here, although there is plenty of money here to bet, but the two factions cannot agree as to terms.

WANAMAKER'S.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, July 1, 1889.

Stop a moment to think that every thing you need for Summer use or for help to comfort is at Wanamaker's, and at Wanamaker prices too. If you want to know of the goods and prices, the Illustrated General Catalogue (free—ask for it on a postal card) will tell you. And you can write for any article and be as well served as if you were here. It takes skilled people to fill written orders—but we've the skilled people.

Have you noticed how a thoroughly good Canvas Shoe stands the cutting and scratching of sand at the shore and stones and stubs in the mountains? Of course the slimpsy, sleasy affairs, with "pancake" soles, go to bits in a hurry. We don't deal in them; they're a nuisance. But an honest, well made Canvass Shoe is a joy as well as a thing of beauty.

Trim, tough, easy, springy. They don't sog and change color for a wetting. So light that you can wear them long without weariness.

Plenty of shoes good enough for dry, careful use are not right to knock about in.

Misses' and Children's Brown Canvas, trimmed with russet goat; button or lace, $1.25. Olive Canvas, ooze trimmed, button or lace, $1.50.

Misses' Drab Canvas, ooze trimmed, opera toe, lace, $2.50.

Women's Brown Canvas, russet goat trimmings, $1.50; black, with black dongola trimmings, $1.50; brown, with dark brown goat trimming, $1.50; black, with copper ooze trimmings, $1.75.

Men's Gold Canvas, russet trimmings, $2.

If you wish the shoes sent by mail the postage will be 16 to 28 cents a pair. Should you send too much the remainder will be returned.
