FORCED REPLY TO NO. 2.

Mr. Krickbaum, you commenced this paper content without the slightest provocation and when it is over I hope you will ever after hold your peace.

You tried to vilify my father while living because he supported Mr. Snyder of Millin for Sheriff and you was defeated. You wrote a letter to Mr. Joseph Martz of Catawissa in which you made false accusations against him and I secured the letter and handed it to ex-Sheriff Aaron Smith of Hemlock. Since then you turned your attention toward me, until forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and have taken every advantage with your vile sheet to glut your vengeance.

As I stated before, you are conducting your paper for the sole purpose of applauding your friends and denouncing your enemies.

You made several abusive statements about ex-Sheriff Smith of Fishing creek because he refused to become a tool in your hands. You called him a scoundrel and had the Associate Judges bend their trust and convictions and refused you the license advertisements you would have poured your spittle upon him just as you do upon other officials you fail to control.

I care for nothing you said in your last week's article, but about teachers' certificates, which you know to be a branded falsehood. You made a similar charge in front of the Central Hotel during our campaign in '84 when you said that I had sold Hon. J. T. Fox of Beaver and Mr. G. M. Deiler of Mt. Pleasant each a certificate, which I made you recall quicker than you said I never examined Mr. Deiler and as to Mr. Fox you denied to him ever saying so. It appears that lying and deception are your essential elements of success. You always lied about that barrel of whisky you bought and had placed in the new jail, to which I will refer by and by.

As to the certificate, I dare you to produce your authority, you branded falsifier. The first time I ever hear of you repeating this falsehood, I'll make you retract it the first opportunity. I am sorry you have not more respect for the teachers.

You want me again to explain about fees, which is becoming monotonous; however, I'll repeat in substance what I said before: I never examined Mr. Deiler and as to Mr. Fox you denied to him ever saying so. It appears that lying and deception are your essential elements of success. You always lied about that barrel of whisky you bought and had placed in the new jail, to which I will refer by and by.
