

The Lancaster New Era has made the following careful synopsis of the new dog law. It covers the State: The law provides that from and after its passage there shall be assessed, levied and collected annually in every township and borough of the Commonwealth from the owners of dogs a tax of fifty ceats on every male dog, and one dollar for every female dog, the sum to be collected with the other dogs may be paid for such loss, along Tanner and Tannerism.

After holding on to Tanner until it was impossible to hold him any longer, Tanner has been thus far one conspicuous feature of the Harrison ad ninistration, and his career has em-many years. The man himself is less ed and encouraged bim. His charac ter as an irresponsible blatherskite, his atter unfitness, intellectual and moral, for any position of trust, were as well known before his appointment as after it. His selection for the important place of Commissioner of Pensions was made with the definite purpose of pleasing an influential class of voters and in accordance with Mr. Harrison's own proclaimed policy of being "liber al with the boys." He took the President at his word and went to work to carry out this policy with such extra ordinary vigor that in a few months he had plunged the administration in to an unexampled career of lawless profligacy that threatened bankruptcy,

Still he was tolerated and apologiz-ed for, and it seems to have been not until the Treasury statement showed an alarming depletion of the balances that the President could bring himself to make a definite stand against Tanner. Even now it is expressly stated that the change in the office involves no reflection on him or his methods the extraordinary explanation is further offered that there would have been no objection to Tanner if he had only kept his mouth shut -as if there would have been no harm in his pension grabs

All this consideration is no mo than Tanner is fairly entitled to under the circumstances. It would be very unjust to make him a scapegoat when he was only carrying out the promises made before election. But if these promises are still to be maintained, the dismissal of Tanner will accomplish

The United States has a lawyer to every 909 of its population. "It is pleasant to think," says the Boston Transcript, "that these legal gentlemen are not likely to be bought up by an English syndicate. Therefore, when 909 of our people get together they will still have the Boston how much has come into his hands from this source. Haines, a detective of Easton, arrested at the instigation of the Lehigh County Mercantile Association R. Eicherberg, the agent of a tea company doing bus-iness in Reading, for the recovery of a penalty of $50, imposed for the violation of the Act of April 10, 1868, which says that no person shall sell or expose for sale as a hawker, peddler or travel-ing merchant any foreign or demestic goods without haveing first obtained a license upon payment of $100. The defendant, it was alleged, traveled through the country and took orders for tea, coffee and other goods and sometimes sold goods from his wagon. Alderman Sopp, before whom the act-ion was brought, decided in favor of the plaintiff. Eichenberg contended that the act of May, 1889, repealed the act of 1840, which permits the sale of goods manufactured by the seller and made application to appeal from the alderman's decision. Judge Algright refused to allow the appeal, and sustained the decision of the alderman. contending that a hawker, peddler and traveling merchant are synonymous as distinguished from those doing bus-iness at an established place. The case will be appealed to the Supreme Court. Much interest has been manifested among the merchants in the outcome of the suit. Another suit for selling goods on orders is pending against Eicherberg, and a test case will be made of it.

The public criticism, instead of subsiding, continued to increase. At last it became evident to President Harri- bodied the worst official scandal of son, on his return from Deer Park a short time ago, that the matter was to blame than those who have sustainripe for action and that a further postement could no longer be tolerated by the public in general.

The case was stated clearly and coneisely to the President by Secretary Noble. The President was given to understand that unless Tanner was dismissed the Secretary of the Interior would tender his resignation. It was thus that the matter was forced upon President Harrison and he was obliged to take action.

The following is Commissioner Tanner's letter of resignation and President Harrison's reply there to: DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, BUREAU OF PENSIONS.

Washington, September 12. TO THE PRESIDENT: The differences which exist between the Secretary the Interior and myself as to the policy to be pursued in the administration of the Pension Bureau have reached a stage which threatens to embarrass you to an extent which I feel I should not call upon you to suffer ; and, as the investigation into the affairs of the bureau have been completed and I am assured, both by yourself and by the Secretary of the Interior, contains no reflection on my integrity as an individual or an officer, I herewith place my resignation in your hands, to take effect at your pleasure, to the end that you may be relieved of any further embarrasment in the matter.

Very respectfully, yours, JAMES TANNER. The President's letter accepting the resignation is as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, D. C. September 12. Hon. James Tanner, Commissioner of Pensions. DEAR SIR : Your letter tendering your resignation of the office of Commissioner of Pensions has been received and your resignation is accepted to take effect on the appointment and qualification of your successor. I do not think it necessary in this correspondence to discuss the causes which have led to the present attitude of affairs in the Pension office. You have been kindly and fully advised of my views upon most of these matters. It gives me pleasure to add that, so far as I am advised, your honesty has not at any time been called into question. and I beg to renew the expression of my personal good will.

BENJAMIN HARRISON. Commissioner Tanner was somewhat reluctant about speaking upon his resignation. He, however, does not appear to show any resentment, but desires to maintain nothing but cordial relations with the administra tion. He said: "The President did To make a long story short it save not ask for my resignation nor did he my life. It is the best medicine in the advise that I resign. I was assured world for difficulties of the kidneys, however, that the investigation into the affairs of the Pension Office had developed nothing that reflected upon UNABLE TO TELL. my honesty or my good intentions.
