

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness...

The Columbian BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1890. Published every Friday. Subscription price, $1.00 a year...

Two good incubators for sale at a bargain at the Sanitarium. L. T. Sharpless has a car of Michigan winter wheels on track near D. L. & W. depot.

A rumor has been circulated recently to the effect that a suit brought against Paul E. Wit in New York for an alleged infringement of fountain pens has been decided against him. We are authorized to say that the rumor is without foundation in fact...

Vote in Bloomsburg. The election in this town on Tuesday November 5th was the quietest known for many years. The republicans made a "still hunt" and succeeded in getting out 60 per cent of the entire vote...

To-Night and To-Morrow Night. And each day and night during this week you can get at all drugists Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, acknowledged to be the most successful remedy ever sold for the cure of Coughs, Croup, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption...

WINTER IS HIGH. Winter is now at hand and reminds all to prepare for it. Clark & Son are now ready to supply your wants with large lines of Dress Goods of all kinds...

W. E. BROOKE & CO. The screen doors are being taken from their hangings, which proves that the flies are gone for another season. We have not told our Wall Paper story for several weeks...

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Are You Coming? To Philadelphia. IF SO Be sure to visit 1338 Chestnut Street, directly opposite the U. S. Mint. Here you can see the finest line of Clothing obtainable...

W. O. THOMPSON Special London Made Clothing. 1338 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA. Bloomsburg is not only looking up in the way of building fine Queen Ann residences and Large Public Buildings and Factories...

Hotel man of experience wanted to take lease of the Catawissa House and Sanitarium, opposite depot, in Bloomsburg. The right man can secure favorable terms.

Thieves broke into the store of Jacob Weliver at Eversgrove one night last week and robbed the money drawer of about fifteen dollars, besides taking a few articles of merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. Little lost a daughter, aged about seven years, Monday last. Death was caused by membranous croup. Several other children in the same family are similarly afflicted.

Rabbits are having a hard time in this section. The hunting season began Nov. 1st, and W. P. Reddie shot at them, and the following day he and Prothonotary Snyder shot eight.

GREAT BARN—A second hand parlor suit, but little used, goes as a new, solid walnut framed set, all solid clear. Also fine lot of new parlor suits for sale at a bargain at W. J. Curran & Co.

The best team of blooded mares in Columbia County, together with double set pack ponies and a couple harness for sale at a bargain at the owner is going South for the winter. Inquire of Dr. Stubbick.

Charles Krug has bought fifty feet of land along the D. L. & W. R. from J. A. Pustator, adjoining the Agricultural Works, and intends to erect a planing mill thereon.

The new mill at Jerseytown is now running. It has a capacity of thirty-five barrels of flour per day, besides the wheat and chaffing and fits a long felt want of the farmers in that vicinity.

Secretary Edge of the Stock Board of Agriculture has arranged forty-one Farmers' Institutes to be held during the winter. Among them are Barton, Berwick and Millville. The dates are not yet announced.

W. Neal & Sons' furnace was fired up on Tuesday afternoon after a stop of six weeks, during which time the boiler and chimneys have been made. A large steam crane has been erected, and three additional towers have been put in. Miss Grace Neal applied the torch.

James C. Sylvester died at his home on Market last week Saturday, aged 57 years. He was at one time prominent in the Greenback Party as one of the local managers. He served during the war in Co. L, 113 Regiment, P. V. for more than a year. The funeral occurred on Sunday afternoon. Ext Post G. A. R. having charge of it.

Charles Sumner of Afton husked 106 bushels of corn and thir his fodder one day last week. On the farm of Elvha Hinchbarth, he husked 100 bushels. It is said that 90 or 90 bushels is a good day's work. We don't know much about husking, but we are told that Mr. Sumner's record as a husker is a remarkable one.

Charles W. McKelvey is spending a few weeks in Philadelphia. Dr. Jensen of Washington spent a few days in town this week. Mr. J. Salzer is confined to his bed by a severe attack of inflammation of the lungs. Dr. D. H. Montgomery of Millville, is in town on Monday. L. S. Winterstein Esq. has gone on a ten days' trip to Virginia.

Persons calling for these letters please send their names advertised Oct. 29, 1889. One cent will be charged on each letter advertised.

The Epoy Plating Mill formerly owned by Snyder, Hartman & Co. has again changed hands. B. F. Reddie has purchased it, and is repairing it throughout, and will put in new machinery. Mr. Reddie has had large experience in the plating business and has been very successful, and no doubt he will make the Plating Mill pay equally as well. It is a good location, and there is no reason why he should not command a lucrative patronage.

The Agricultural Works have been purchased by the Acme Oil Co. at Truayville, who are erecting two iron tanks 15 feet in diameter and 20 feet high, one tank 15 feet high, and one tank 12 feet by 15 feet. The station is under the management of H. D. Rodgers, who also has charge of the stations at Danville, Sunbury, Milton, Shamokin, Selma Grove, Hazleton and other points. The Acme Oils are well known and their already large trade will be greatly increased by this step.

Esos Jacoby died on Tuesday, the 5th inst., at his home on Iron street, aged 69 years, a month and 13 days. He has had several paralytic strokes in the past few years, and was stricken down again on Saturday night and never regained consciousness. He was born in Bloomsburg and always lived here. While a boy he spent four years at sea on a whaling vessel. On Aug. 16, 1854, he married Catherine, a daughter of Valentine Bideman.

Mr. Jacoby served as street commissioner a number of years, and was one of the best officials in that capacity the town has ever had. He was a good citizen, a genial man, and a member of the Episcopal church. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon at the house, at 9 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. W. C. Levert. Mrs. Jacoby and three children are left to mourn his loss.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

A Woman's Vindicty. SHE TRIED TO KIDNAP A CHILD AT THE SUNBURY STATION. It was on the twenty-fifth of September that an attempt was made to kidnap the two-year old son of Mrs. Hacker, who lives on Arch street near Market. Mrs. Hacker had left her home in Shamokin about one month ago to pay a visit to friends in Plymouth. It was the first time she had traveled alone, and was standing in the station at Sunbury waiting for the train that was to bear her to her destination, when a young woman with light hair, light eyes, middling stout, and dressed in a light drab woolen dress, also wearing a small bonnet that corresponded with her dress, came in, scrutinized her surroundings, and while Mrs. Hacker was engaged in conversation with another lady, this female stranger grabbed the child, lifted it on her shoulder and was about to take the little one away when the mother started and took her child away. When the stranger saw that she was caught she fled and while Mrs. Hacker was engaged in conversation with another lady, this female stranger grabbed the child, lifted it on her shoulder and was about to take the little one away when the mother started and took her child away.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Barred Out. A SHERIFF LATER STOPPED ON THE THRESHOLD OF GIBARD COLLEGE. S. P. Boyer, Sunbury's famous criminal lawyer, is probably as well known as any man in Northumberland county, and in more or less of a plain man. He is one of those who will go down in his grave with faith in the "demagnetization machine" and the presence of a great gold dust at Tanama, but he will never find it. Even the hills of the farming country of Columbia county have been sacrificed by gold seekers. Sometimes it was the ignominious end of an old story that turned to one and more often it was a plain man. Just what started the Pittston people to grubbing isn't known. They will soon stop however.—Ashland Advertiser.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

A Woman's Vindicty. SHE TRIED TO KIDNAP A CHILD AT THE SUNBURY STATION. It was on the twenty-fifth of September that an attempt was made to kidnap the two-year old son of Mrs. Hacker, who lives on Arch street near Market. Mrs. Hacker had left her home in Shamokin about one month ago to pay a visit to friends in Plymouth. It was the first time she had traveled alone, and was standing in the station at Sunbury waiting for the train that was to bear her to her destination, when a young woman with light hair, light eyes, middling stout, and dressed in a light drab woolen dress, also wearing a small bonnet that corresponded with her dress, came in, scrutinized her surroundings, and while Mrs. Hacker was engaged in conversation with another lady, this female stranger grabbed the child, lifted it on her shoulder and was about to take the little one away when the mother started and took her child away.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

A Woman's Vindicty. SHE TRIED TO KIDNAP A CHILD AT THE SUNBURY STATION. It was on the twenty-fifth of September that an attempt was made to kidnap the two-year old son of Mrs. Hacker, who lives on Arch street near Market. Mrs. Hacker had left her home in Shamokin about one month ago to pay a visit to friends in Plymouth. It was the first time she had traveled alone, and was standing in the station at Sunbury waiting for the train that was to bear her to her destination, when a young woman with light hair, light eyes, middling stout, and dressed in a light drab woolen dress, also wearing a small bonnet that corresponded with her dress, came in, scrutinized her surroundings, and while Mrs. Hacker was engaged in conversation with another lady, this female stranger grabbed the child, lifted it on her shoulder and was about to take the little one away when the mother started and took her child away.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

A Woman's Vindicty. SHE TRIED TO KIDNAP A CHILD AT THE SUNBURY STATION. It was on the twenty-fifth of September that an attempt was made to kidnap the two-year old son of Mrs. Hacker, who lives on Arch street near Market. Mrs. Hacker had left her home in Shamokin about one month ago to pay a visit to friends in Plymouth. It was the first time she had traveled alone, and was standing in the station at Sunbury waiting for the train that was to bear her to her destination, when a young woman with light hair, light eyes, middling stout, and dressed in a light drab woolen dress, also wearing a small bonnet that corresponded with her dress, came in, scrutinized her surroundings, and while Mrs. Hacker was engaged in conversation with another lady, this female stranger grabbed the child, lifted it on her shoulder and was about to take the little one away when the mother started and took her child away.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days at Northumberland, found the parsonage filled with friends and parishioners, whose countenances beamed with expressions of delight. Each brought along to the parsonage a large cabbage-head, or something else useful and useful in the home. Preparations were made beforehand for a good social time with the Pastor and his family, hence the abundance of excellent cake and ice-cream to which all were helped to the great satisfaction and delight.

Notes from Esqpy. The members and friends of the Lutheran church at Esqpy so gratefully remembered their Pastor, Rev. A. R. Glaze, on Hallow'een, as to hold the evening and its pleasures in happy recollection for time to come. Glaze, upon returning from the North Branch Conference of the Susquehanna Synod, which was in session several days