

The Columbian.

Editors: J. E. Howell, J. E. Blinn, J. E. Blinn, J. E. Blinn. BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1889.

The President has appointed John J. Ridgway Surveyor of the Port, Thomas J. Power, Naval Officer, and William H. Schalmers, Pension Agent at Philadelphia.

The Democratic State Committee will meet at Harrisburg on January 22, to elect a chairman. Besides the present incumbent, E. P. Kiener, the names of B. F. Meyers, of Harrisburg, S. M. Wherry, of Cumberland county, and W. J. Brannan, of Alleghany, are mentioned for the place.

Judge Hare, of Philadelphia, has decided that the permission to build an elevated track in that city by the Philadelphia & Reading R. R. Co. must come from Congress. The company will carry the case to the Supreme Court.

Business is dull in every branch of trade, money is hard to get. Traveling men complain that they cannot sell goods, and that they find it very hard to get their pay for what they do sell. Last spring when President Cleveland handed over the reins of government to a republican executive, the country was in a high state of prosperity, and money was plenty. The reader can draw his own conclusion from these facts.

New York state legislators along the Pennsylvania line denouncing business by marrying Pennsylvania sloping couples; but the Pennsylvania Divorce courts more than recover the lost fees by divorcing New York couples. Pennsylvania courts grant divorces on slight provocation to any one who has been a resident of that State a year; consequently, northern Pennsylvania hotels are filled with divorced boarders and lawless take in enough shooks to make New York clergymen green with envy. Ten New York grass widows are reported to be boarding at Susquehanna until they can swear to a year's residence and climb the hills to Montrose and get divorces.—Binghamton Republican.

This is a sad reflection upon the divorce law of this state. It is high time some of our representatives who are so anxious to do our country a great service, revise our divorce laws. There is hardly a session of Court held in this County, but that some divorce is granted. Will our representatives make the lead in this matter of reform.

George H. Pendleton, late United States Minister at Berlin, died at Brussels on the 25th. The remains will be brought to America. Mr. Pendleton was born in 1825, in Cincinnati. He was a democrat and represented his party in congress from 1856 to 1855. In 1864 he was the nominee for Vice President on the ticket with General McClellan. In the Democratic National Convention of 1868 he came within two and a half votes of nomination for President on the eighth ballot, Horatio Seymour being chosen. He was the author of the bill under which executive service is now conducted in the executive departments of the government. President Cleveland appointed him Minister to Germany, which position he filled creditably and faithfully.

It was during his diplomatic career that he experienced the great sorrow of his life in the death of his wife, who was killed while driving in Central Park, New York. Neither she had gone to attend the funeral of a relative, which she had followed by failing health, and in April, 1888, he sustained a paralytic stroke. He returned to Berlin as soon as he rallied and attended to his duties until April 25, when he presented his letters of recall, having been succeeded by the present incumbent, William Walter Phelps.

Mr. Pendleton was a graceful speaker, a good linguist and a polished gentleman. He lived in good style, having accumulated a large fortune in railway transactions and in the practice of the law. He had a residence in Washington, one at Cincinnati, another at Newport and a summer villa in the White Mountains.

It is Good Work to Give Health: The only remedy for disorders is one that will expel the germs of disease, and make the blood pure and rich. That is best effected by Dr. David Kennedy's "Fever Remedy," or "Kidney and Bowel" medicine, of great value in the treatment of all blood disorders and diseases of the Kidneys. It tones the system and helps to do good work. 11-8-11.

Spoken campaign. Mr. Reed left Harrisburg for New York last Tuesday evening and the rest of the candidates have been puzzling their brains ever since to find out what he went for. They are all afraid of Reed though they will assure you that they have got him beaten. Mr. Blaine, who has not been personally friendly towards Mr. Reed for some years, promised that gentleman's friend last summer that he would do nothing to prevent his being Speaker. He has kept that promise up to this time, though great pressure has been brought to bear on him in behalf of one of the other candidates. The caucus will be held next Saturday and unless Mr. Blaine shall break his promise next letter will chronicle the nomination of Reed for Speaker.

Gen. Crook, the Secretary of War, and Capt. Pratt, Superintendent of the Carlisle Indian Reservation, to visit Mr. Vernon barracks, Alabama, during the latter part of December for the purpose of deciding whether Geronimo and the other Apache Indians now confined there shall be removed.

Verily the democratic cup of joy is full almost to overflowing. Mahone and Foraker have been put on shelf, and now comes news to the republican Senators that Ingalls will probably be defeated for re-election to the Senate. "Too good to be true," is the general democratic comment on the last item.

The local real estate market has worked up over the rumor that Bruce, the negro ex-Senator, is to be appointed Recorder of Deeds for this city. If protesting to the President will not be made, the appointment will not be made.

Honors are now easy between Senator Quay and Mr. Waunmaker, as the President has followed the Quay side in making the rest of the Philadelphia Federal appointments.

It begins to look as though President Harrison proposed to appoint the report of the Civil Service Commission handed him nearly a week ago. It recommends the prosecution of several oil holders for violating the law against soliciting campaign contributions from office holders. The Commission is anxiously awaiting the President's decision in this matter.

A strong effort will be made this winter to have Congress adopt the English idea of a postal savings bank, to be conducted by the Postoffice Department.

For Better Roads. EDS. COLUMBIAN: I am pleased that you have called this week the attention of your readers to better roads, by the publication of a paper read at State Board of Agriculture, by Mr. S. R. D. writing an article is one worth careful study by our tax payers, and all interested in good public highways for travel. I have for many years advocated a better plan than the present one, I think, and have seen it adopted in some portions of my native Kentucky. Such a plan, working to the perfect satisfaction of all, that of the dividing of the roads into convenient sections, and kept in repair for a term of years, under contract, and cash tax paid. I have also advocated the payment of all the road tax in cash, on the above system, and setting apart annually one tenth of the same for permanent repairs, such as underdraining and macadamizing. By so doing in ten years nearly all our roads could be put in good underdrained macadam condition. Proper underdraining will, in many instances, with a little grouting, make road perfect to the macadam, or all of it. Millville, Benton and Berwick, in this county, have Farmers' Institute this coming winter, and I trust the roads will receive proper attention in their deliberations and discussions. Not farmers alone are interested in good roads for travel, but all who use them.

Yours Truly, E. M. TEWKSBURY, Nov. 23, 1889.

ing them. If they remain of the same opinion they will certainly leave. Sherry Pitts seems to have a very good school on Pitt Hill, where he taught two years ago. Last winter it was taught by a lady by the name of Nora Harvey from Fairmount Springs. This year she is teaching the Hobsbargh school.
