A Methodist Revival in Bedford Starts a Bitter War of Creeds. LEEGYMEN OF OTHER DESCHINATIONS UNITE

IN A LETTER TO THE METHODIST MINISTER. ACCUSING HIM OF OBJECTIONABLE PROSELYTING.

BEDFOED, Dec. 20-For the past six weeks the Methodists of Bedford, led by their pastor, Rev. M. L. Smyse, have been carrying on one of the most successful religious campaigns that has ever been known in the country. Already over 150 people have been converted. The Methodist Church has been crowed nightly while the other ministers have been propounding the gospel to small congregaions. The managers of the Opera House have declined to bill any more performan ces, as the one that was here recently could not draw an audience owing to the relig ous fervor. Rev. Mr. Smyser, as a result of the revival, has received a letter protest, ing against the influence upon members of other denominations. The letter is signed by Rev. J. K. Andrews, pastor of the Preshyterian Church: Rev. Chauncy Langdon of the Episcopal Courch; Rev. M. H. Valenments. Vestibuled trains, heated by tine of the Lutheran Church, and Rev. R steam and lighted with electricity. It is L.
