His Family Has Perished.

A GERMAN RETURNED FROM JOHNSTOWN NOT KNOWING THERE HAD BEEN A FLOOD.

Emile Etoune, a puddler in the employ of the Cambria Iron Company at Johnstown, left that place shortly before the flood of May 31 and went to his native place in Germany for the purpose of taking possession of some property left him by a relative.

On reaching Johnstown he was amazed to see the devastation wrought by the flood of which he had heard nothing, and vigilant inquiry on his part has failed to reveal to him the fate of his wife and children. The house in which he lived was swept away and it is presumed that his family was buried among the ruins of the town, as they were but little known and their names do not appear upon the roll of deaths.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregular bowels.

Distress After Eating. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the systemic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

Headache. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had lost my appetite, and what I did eat did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a few days I felt better. I gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied. The craving I had previously experienced for Gross's A. P. Water, was satisfied. Hood's Sarsaparilla sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents per bottle. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar.

A New Game Law.

There is no disputing the fact that game is growing scarce in this State every year. The mountains of Pennsylvania, which were inhabited by herds of deer, are now almost devoid of them.

The game law is growing instead of diminishing among the members of the present administration. It would seem that the same of absurdity had been reached when the chief of a departmental bureau sends a circular letter to Senators notifying them that they would be admitted to the office only between 12 and 2 o'clock daily.
