Hiram Sawtelle's Body Found Near Lebanon, Me.

IT WAS HEADLESS AND ARMLESS.

Is Isaac B. Sawtelle the Cain in This Patricide—A History of One of New England's Most Interesting Murder Mysteries—A Had Outing for Isaac.

Boston, Feb. 15.—The body of Hiram Sawtelle was found at 11:15 p. m. in the woods near Lebanon, Me. It had been decapitated and the head had not yet been discovered.

Wien found the body was projecting from a poorly made grave and had a bullet in the heart. It was feet underneath, not three yards from where Officer Shields found the yard that was wrapped around the ax.

The body was entirely naked, with the exception of the feet, which had on a pair of socks. Beside it was a lot of clotted blood, where the arms and head had been cut off.

Officer Shields now in his possession the empty shell from which the bullet came that killed Hiram Sawtelle. The bullet itself was also found, and a gold collar button, belt and watch.

The mystery of the body in the woods conclusively that horrible murder has been committed, and the outlook for the accused prisoner, Isaac B. Sawtelle, is darker than ever before.

Yet it is not without interest to some that Isaac undoubtedly had confederates, the murder itself may have been committed by them, although the prisoner himself may be more responsible for the crime.

The body was removed to the Blaisdell Crematorium house, three miles near East Lebanon, Me. The body was placed in a casket and will be buried there.

Where in the woods, and the officers are confident of finding it soon. The belief grows stronger that Hiram, and not Isaac, was the victim, and that Isaac was the murderer.
