Edward V. Hartman has purchased the property of Capt. J. B. Robson on Third street for $300.

If you want to buy a farm call on M. P. Lutz and he will give you a choice of about twenty.

M. P. Lutz, Ins. and Real Est. Agent has some very desirable Store properties for sale in Bloomsburg and elsewhere. Also dwellings for rent or sale.

The re-election of Guy Jacoby, Esq., as Justice of the Peace, was well merited compliment. He had no opposition.

Major S. P. Hanley has publicly announced that he will not be a candidate for Prothonotary. This leaves the field to G. M. Quick and J. H. Maize.

An effort to sell the furnace this side of Northumberland, one day last week, was a failure for want of bidders. It was offered at Orphan Court sale.

D. F. Herring has rented the Millville Hotel and will take charge of the same on March 1. In the meantime he will close out his harness making business at Millville.

P. S. Harman has filed the petition of President of Town Council for the past three years, with great acceptability. His defeat on Tuesday is attributed principally to too much Town Hall, and not enough sewer.

A chicken and waffle supper will be given by the Lutheran Society of Epy on Saturday evening, Feb. 23d, at the home of Mr. Wm. Campbell. All are cordially invited.

W. E. Smith Esq. of Berwick and Geo. E. Elwell Esq. have been summoned as jurors to attend the United States District Court at Scranton for the week beginning March 3d.

A new steamer the "Golden Gate," will be put on the Susquehanna between Nanticoke and Plymouth as soon as the water gets high enough. She is a stern wheeler, eighty-five feet long, and will be shipped from Williamsport.

To Farmers and others.—We have a few bob-sleds, circular wood saws, corn-shellers, also our own fodder cutters and grinders, which we will give bargains in. Call early.

W. R. & CONNER.

Lost—A horse blanket, between Bloomsburg and Orangeville, on Monday, 17th. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at Moyer's Drug store, Bloomsburg, Pa.

The Ladies' Mite Society of the Bloomsburg Baptist Church will hold an entertainment at the residence of Rev. J. P. Tustin, Friday Evening, Feb. 21st, 1899. The ladies will give a display of the Helices of the "Old Curiosity Shop." All are invited.

William Kramer, who has been a member of the school board for the past six years, retires from the office with the good wishes of the public, as he performed his duties conscientiously.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cohen celebrated their silver wedding on Wednesday. An evening entertainment was given which was attended by friends from New York, Wilkes Barre, Danville, Nanticoke and other places.

Many handsome presents were received, and it was an occasion of great enjoyment.

A head institute will be held at Millville, Saturday, February 22nd. Hon. Henry Houck, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be present and will deliver an address in the afternoon, and a free lecture in the evening on "The Old and the New." All are invited to be present.

The great popularity of Ayer's Pills as a cathartic is due no less to their promptness and efficacy than to their coating of sugar and freedom from any injurious effects. Catfish take them readily. See Ayer's Almanac for this year, just out.

The Commission appointed by the Governor to overhaul the poor laws, have sent the overseers of the townships in the various counties a circular containing one hundred questions which they are requested to answer and return.

Weak eyes and inflamed lids indicate an impure condition of the blood. The best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It vitalizes the blood, regulates the secretions, and expels all scrofulous humors from the system. Try it. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

The following letters are held at Bloomsburg, Pa., post-office, and will be sent to the dead letter office, March 4, 1899.

Mr. Geo. E. Hart has been appointed Sarah May, Simon Kittenhouse, Mr. David Young.

Persons calling for these letters please say they were advertised Feb. 18, 1899. One cent will be charged on each letter advertised.

A. B. CATROPP, P. M.

J. K. Bittenbender was elected a school director on Tuesday. Mr. Bittenbender is a progressive citizen, and will bring to the office energy, intelligence and integrity of character. He is a graduate of the Normal School, and has had some experience as a teacher, so that he is well qualified for the position. The large vote given him is a handsome compliment, and is fully appreciated by him.

A recent decision of the courts maintains that if a man wants to go faster than a horse, he has the right to pass, and if he is prevented by the other, and an accident should happen thereby, the man thus obstructed is responsible for the damage done. No man has the right to lunge upon the rights of others, however, in trying to pass.

Mr. Hartman Kline, who died recently at Jonestown, demonstrated that the Jews' harp was a musical instrument of no mean pretensions. Mr. Kline and his two sons, one of whom is Mr. W. P. Kline of the Forks stage route, made delightful music on this little instrument.

The different parts on harps and frequently played at large concerts to the delight of large audiences.

"O to be dead and done with the trouble That fills each day with a weary pain." This is the mood of many a woman.

Who thinks she can never be well again, if she were better for me and better for others, if I were dead, and their tears fall fast. Not so, not so, O wives and mothers, There's a hope of hope in the sky at last, and it tells that the storm of disease which has spread its shadows over you will give way to the sunshine of renewed health, if you are wise, and try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It can and will effectually cure all female weaknesses and derangements, and no woman who has not tried it need despair, for a trial will convince her that it is the very thing she needs to restore her to the health she fears forever.

To cleanse the stomach, liver, and system generally, use Dr. Pierce's Pills. 25 cents.

Opera House.

Friday, February 21st, will bring forward a young star in the dramatic line in the person of little Dottie Pine in a new comedy drama, in which she is to be found also many melo-dramatic features written by Robert W. Smiley entitled "Perit."

Little Pine is the youngest star actress on the American stage being but twelve years of age on the 23d day of December last. She is endowed with remarkable dramatic talent which in a few years she grows older and stronger it is predicted by those who are well informed, is sure to develop into that of the strong emotional order. Perit is a play in four acts, abounding in powerful incidents, and is full of many comic situations and climaxes, specialties in singing and dancing. Quartets, etc., are interwoven to suit every taste. The press elsewhere have pronounced Little Dottie Pine the scene of perfection, the embodiment of grace and power. She is a lineal descendant of Edwin Forrest from whom she undoubtedly inherits her remarkable dramatic talent. Her support is in all respects equal to that of the king of minstrelsy, Fayette Welch, who is especially engaged for the character of Dolph, a gentleman of color. Attractions of this hold three sisters survive, Mrs. C. G. Marr, Mrs. Aaron Campbell and Mrs. Robert Richie, the latter is feeble and about 81 years of age.

Governor Beaver and Secretary Stone heard argument on the 8th, on the rival claims of the North Mountain Improvement Company and the West Fork Improvement Company, both of which want charters to improve certain logging streams in Sullivan and Columbia Counties. There is some question as to the priority of application for the charter. In the argument the North Mountain Company was represented by Charles R. Buckalew and A. L. Fritz, of Bloomsburg; Charles B. McMichael, of Philadelphia; W. B. Given, of Columbia, and Colonel Corcoran, of Williamsport. H. M. McClure represents the West Fork Company. Secretary Stone reserved his decision.

On Friday last Governor Beaver appointed Rev. D. J. Waller Superintendent of Public Instruction to succeed the late Dr. E. E. Higbee. Prof. Waller has accepted the position, but will remain in charge of the Normal School until the end of the present school year, next July.

David Jewett Waller is a son of Rev. D. J. Waller, and is thirty-three years of age. He prepared for college at Williamstown, Mass., and in Bloomsburg under Prof. Corcoran, graduating Lafayette college in 1867, and entering the ministry in 1870. He then took a course in Princeton Theological Seminary, and after his admission to the Presbyterian ministry he assumed charge of a church in Philadelphia. His health failing he resigned and came back to Columbia county, and took charge of the Orangeville circuit, where he remained until elected Principal of the Bloomsburg State Normal School in 1877, and held that position for five years, when he was elected to the same position in Princeton Theological Seminary, and after his admission to the Presbyterian ministry he assumed charge of a church in Philadelphia.
