Northumberland Farmers

The Farmers' Institute for North-umberland County met at Milton, Feb. 20. John Hoffa, a member of the State Board of Agriculture, acting as

The following was the programme; "What is the most economical food for mileh cows!" discussed by Hon. John Woodward, of Centre County; A. P. Young, Columbia County, E. M. Tew-ksbury, Catawissa. An essy, "What shall I do?" was read by Hon J. M. Follmer, one on "Dangers of immigration, by Frank Chamberlin; one on "Why carelessners does not pay," by William Koch, Pottsgrove, and "What legislation does the farmer need!" by

E. M. Tewksbury, Catawisa.

There was a question box for every one, as follows: "Bee culture," by H. H. Brown' Lightstreet, Pa.; "Fence laws of Pennsylvania," by Thomas Sweuk, Jr.; "Relation of live stock to fertility," by Dr. Arm-by, State College, Pa. A lecture on "What farmers most need to know" was delivered by most need to know" wis delivered by Hon. John A Woodward, associate editor of the Farm Journal. An essay on "Graded schools in rural dis cts" was read by A. P. Young, Mill ville Pa, and one on 'Public high ways,'s by L. V. House'. The road and fence question were also discussed.

Centrana. Tuesday evening the 18th inst,, witnessed one of the most pleasant social events in the history Centralia, it being the occasion of an evening party, given by Miss Mary Murphy at the residence of her father, Judge Murphy on Locust Avenue, in honor of her guest Miss Agnes Downey, of Shamokin. The early part of the evening the same agreeably passed in dancing. ing was very agreeably passed in dancing yocal and instrumental music, and cards, and at midnight the dining room was thrown open, and the guests sat down to a most elegant collation. The tables were very handsomely decorated with natural flowers and fairly groated under the weight of the numerous delicacies piled upon them. After supper it is needless to say, all present did ample justice, dancing was resumed in the rooms down stairs by those who were devoted to the beautifu terpsichorean art, while in the spacious parlors above, those who found no pleasur in the "dreamy waltz" amused themselves with music and various games. The merry hours glided by, all unheeded by the gav throng and new day was nearly four hours old when the guests dispersed for their homes, each one assuring the fair hostess that they had spent one of the most enjo yable evenings in their recollection. A list of those present follows: Misses Mary Murphy, Maggie Murphy, Ray Reese, Fannie Millard, Lizzie Fortner, Sallie Troutman, Annie Dav.s, Lizzie Leam and Mollie Curry and Messrs. Frank Miller, John Irvin, will Briggs, Lowis Davis, John Lynch, Chas. Fortner, John Groody and Pat'k Curry of Centralia: Miss Maggie Cur ry Miss Reilly and Mr. Thomas Reilly, of

On Saturday the 15th, Paul Boscan, 18 Pole, was discharged from the Centralia Colliery by Outside Superintendent Thomas Reese for disorderly conduct. The new Monday morning he appeared at the breaker and wanted to be taken back, but was refused; he became very angry, and, going to his boarding house, procured a revolver and started once more for the mine.

Concealing himself near the breaker, he waited patiently for the Superintendent to appear. His actions were discovered by an employee, who notified Mr. Reese of his danger, and a messenger was dispatched for an officer. After some difficulty they succeeded in disarming the desperate ras cal and locked him up.

Conyngham township recently, says a dispatch from Centralia to the Times.

John Kostenbauder, a farmer residing a that place, was married about a year ago to a Miss Lenden, of Red Tavern. Since that time he has been keeping up an intimacy with a Mrs. Lenhart, a former sweet-sooner than was expected, and upon entering found them in a very compromising position. Mrs. Lenhart fled, while Kostenbauder sprang upon his wife and beat her shamefully. His father who lives a short distance away, hurried to the scene in time to save Mrs. Kosten bauder life, as her h usand was in the act of throwing her over a high porch. Seeing his father the desperate man fled, but was overtaken and brought to this place where he was given a hearing and sent to Bloomsburg Jail. Mrs. Kostenbauder brought suit against Mrs. Lenhart and she was held under $250 bail to appear at the next term of court. The Cosmopolitan.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

*In one store where I went to buy Hood's Barsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's, he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in con-sumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

This Remedy is the perscription of one of the leading physicians of Paris, France, and was used by him with unparaliseled success for over thirty years, it was first given to the public as a proprietary medicine in 1818. Since which time it has found its way into almost every county on the face of the globe, and become a favorite remedy with thousands of the leading physicians. Medical socioties have discussed its marvelous success at their annual conventions, and after their official chemists have analyzed it and found that it contained no opiates, bromides or other harmful ingredients placed it among their standard remedies.
