The Columbian.

4. R. Elweit, J. E. Bittencender., } Editors. BLOOMSBURG, PA

FRIDAY, MAY 16, 1890.

NOTICE.

The members of the Standing Com-mittee of the Democratic party of the county of Columb a, will meet at the office of the Chairman on Tuesday the 27th day of May, inst, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing four persons as delegates to the State Con-vention which convenes at Scranton, July 2, 1890.

C. B. Est, WM. CHRISMAN, Sec'y. Chairman.

Warren county is the home of Mr. Delamater. On Saturday last at the republican primary elections C. W. Stone captured the county, and secured the delegates to the state convention.

Ex-Mayor Richard Vaux has been nominated by the democratic conven-tion of the Third district of Philadel phia, as a candidate for Congress to phia, as a candidate for Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel J. Randall. The special elec-tion will be held on May 20. There were a number of other candidates but all stepped out of the way for Mr. Vaux and he was unanimously nomi-

As yet there is no announcement of any candidate for representative on this side of the river. The name of Peter A. Evans of Montour township are urging him to be a candidate. He is an intelligent man, and as be is a farmer he knows the needs of the farmers. No better contents of the farmers. farmers. No better selection could be made and if Mr. Evans consents to run he will get there. The people are get-ting tired of professional politicians.

C. Larue Munson Esq. of Lycoming, B. S. Collins Esq. of Sullivan and pro-ably Dr. Hoffa of Mourtour will be the caudidates for the office of Strie Senator for this district from the e counties. The names of Grant Herriag and A. L. Fritz are used as probable contestants for the nomination in this county.
