

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, JULY 4, 1890.

THE PEOPLES' CHOICE. OUR NEXT GOVERNOR.

ROBERT E. PATTISON. NOMINATED ON FIRST BALLOT.

The result of the democratic convention at Scranton on Wednesday was a complete victory for the party against the politicians. Hon John H. Orvis of Centre County placed in nomination the name of William A. Wallace of Clearfield. The nomination was seconded by Mr. Jacobs of Juniata county. William S. Stenger of Philadelphia nominated Robert E. Pattison of Philadelphia, which was seconded by Mr. Ryan of Philadelphia. Mr. Dewalt of Lehigh nominated Robert E. Wright, Mr. McCormick of Lancaster nominated W. U. Hensel and Mr. Brown of York nominated Chancy F. Black.

From the applause which greeted the names of the various candidates it was evident that Pattison was in the lead. Upon the call of the roll the ballot resulted as follows: Robert E. Pattison.....200 William A. Wallace.....132 Robert A. Wright.....12 W. U. Hensel.....12 Chancy F. Black.....12

Pattison was declared the nominee amid the wildest enthusiasm, delegates and spectators rising to their feet and cheering again and again.

FOR GOVERNOR. There were loud cries for "Black" when the nomination for Lieutenant Governor was declared in order.

Mr. J. J. Maloney nominated Hon. Chancy F. Black; Mr. Brown, of Indiana, nominated Hannibal K. Sloan; Mr. Steel, of Northampton, nominated Robert E. Wright. The nominations then closed and balloting was begun, which resulted as follows: Chancy F. Black.....191 Robert E. Wright.....157 Hannibal K. Sloan.....3 Chancy F. Black was declared the nominee, when Mr. Steel of Northampton moved to make the nomination unanimous.

Captain William H. Barclay of Allegheny was nominated by acclamation for the office of Secretary of Internal Affairs.

Ex-postmaster Harry of Philadelphia was elected successor to E. P. Kinser as State Chairman.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.) Washington, D. C. June 30, 1890.

It seems that the free coinage people will have to select some hotter climate than that provided in the U. S. mint, to melt their ore and sell it afterwards as coin.

Before Cleveland was elected President it was the general argument that in spite of the many corruptions, and general inefficiency of many preceding administrations, still it would not do to trust the democrats with the management of the intricate machinery of a great government.

The republicans had conducted affairs so long, and the democrats "were out" for so great a period, that this argument actually prevailed with a great many people.

But that cry will not be heard again. The smooth running of the government machinery under the direction of democratic engineers is prominent in the memory of the people. In broad distinction to the old idea that the democrats of the United States constituted a particular class entirely devoid of either principle or ability, and unfit for responsible trusts is the aspect now presented by the republican administration.

The very men, who kept up the hue and cry during these past years have shown that individually, and collectively, the republican party is inefficient and unfaithful. That the harangues made for political effect, during past campaigns were insincere in their delivery, and republican politicians, unfaithful to the trusts reposed in them by the people.

The President and Secretary of State have watched the foolish measures of Congress and endeavored presently, to prevent the republicans making an especial exposure of the party and killing its future prospects.

But the members of Congress went on from bad to worse and were about to commit what would have been "The Unpardonable Sin" to the administration; when the President was driven to use severe and savage methods to head them off in their insane career.

There are naturally, a few men, in every assembly, of too good a disposition to commit wrongs, and necessarily, too honest and wise to be identified with the contemptible legislation of the present Congress except in denouncing it.

Mr. Butterworth, one of the most distinguished members of the House, is extremely antagonistic to everything so far done, by Congress, relating to the tariff.

He recently said that the republican who was not gratified with the President's late Free trade message, did not understand the political situation, and that the heroic treatment of the President was absolutely necessary when it was delivered to save the party. He said it was not difficult to discover in the restless discontent which has grown up under the partial operation of our tariff, a sure harbinger of the overthrow of duty now imposed. "What is our situation as a party?" he says. "The tariff unrevived and no consoling prospect that the Senate will do more than transpose the exorbitant rates that abound in the present schedule. Beyond that, the Senate, to the astonishment of the nation, by an overwhelming majority, voted to purchase and not merely the entire out-put of American silver mines, but to purchase and coin the silver of the world. And, as if that wasn't enough, it was proposed to have the tax payers of the United States pay one dollar for every 75 cents worth of silver, by the world might present at our mints. All this in the name of securing more money for our people—as if we couldn't secure half the money of Europe on better terms."

The republican party seems to have lost its appreciation of the common sense of the country. The Federal election law, which is now occupying the attention of Congress appears, merely an attempt to administer sugar coated poison, as obvious in its purpose as the table of Rum's concerning the wife and the lamb.

A WINNING TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, ROBERT E. PATTISON.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, CHAUNCEY F. BLACK.

The bill begins with hypocrisy and ends with a piece of chicanery, since it pretends to have general application, but aims only at the South. It means that the South must be made to vote the republican ticket. There is a bitter fight between the democratic and republican members on the subject, but of course the majority will prevail, unless recent bladders have opened its eyes.

The Senate has passed the bill admitting Wyoming, notwithstanding the ridiculous and absurd opposition of the would be State. Every democrat voted against it.

An effort is being made in Congress, particularly in the Senate to secure a new building, that will be safe and healthy, neither of which the present building is fit for the government printing office. It ought to succeed; a new building is a necessity.

We give below for the benefit of our readers the Republican platform and comments made upon it before and after adopted. If any reader can fail to see anything else than the fine work of Quay they are entitled to a prize for stupidity. The Philadelphia Press of the 25th says:

"Senator Quay's son may have inherited all the political astuteness of his father, but he has not as yet fallen heir to his political discretion or he would hardly announce that Mr. Dalmater's nomination is essential to the personal vindication of his father. Senator Quay is not an issue just now. The Republicans of Pennsylvania are not concerning themselves with his vindication. They want the nomination at Harrisburg of a man acceptable to every wing of the Republican party and who can before November next, if not now, rally the whole body of Republican voters to his support."

The following dispatch taken from the Philadelphia Press the day following the convention shows how well they heeded the advice given above. "By the suggestion of Senator Quay, by telegraph, the resolution concerning him was taken from the position it first had at the top and put down near the bottom. Otherwise the platform was not disturbed and the Committee on Resolutions had little or no trouble in agreeing to it."

Everything went very smoothly. The details of the convention were all carefully directed by Senator Quay through his lieutenants on the ground, and his use of a private wire, which enabled him to remain in Beaver, has doubtless served him a good purpose in preventing any surprise. The result of the convention is all that he desired.

The following is the platform which was prepared under the supervision of Quay in order to get a "vindication."

"We believe that every lawful voter has the right to cast a free ballot at every public election, and have it properly counted and certified; and we call upon Congress to adopt such legislation as will prevent a suppression or falsification of the votes of our fellow citizens at elections for officers of the National Government and will end political slavery throughout the Nation."

"We endorse the tariff bill called the 'McKinley bill,' in the form in which it was passed by the House of Representatives, and we denounce the criticism passed upon that bill in the English Parliament as an unwarranted interference by a foreign nation with the right of our people to protect their American industry."

"We reaffirm one of the earliest principles of our party when we declare that American workers should, like American manufacturers, receive national protection, and we request the General Government the strictest enforcement of the laws forbidding entrance into and employment in this country of pauper and contract laborers of foreign nations."

"We urge upon Congress the immediate necessity of passing a legislation which will prevent the importation and sale of oleomargarine and of intoxicating liquors in this Commonwealth contrary to our acts of Assembly regulating and restricting the same, and empower every State to enforce its local laws relating thereto in the manner and in accordance with which they were enacted.

"Ballot reform is, and will remain the watchword of our party in every State, and we especially congratulate our political brethren in New York upon the fact that, although their Democratic Governor could reform, he could not wholly defeat their efforts to secure a free ballot for every American voter throughout their State."

"We charge the members of the next General Assembly with the duty to pass such laws, and if necessary should arise, to provide for such changes in the Constitution of our State as will insure to every voter perfect secrecy and freedom in exercising his right of suffrage."

"For almost thirty years the finances of this State have been under the control of our party. During that time we devised a system of taxing corporations, which serves as a pattern for and has been taken as a guide by many sister States, in their efforts to collect revenue for public purposes."

"We have paid off the debt which the Democratic party of this State created during a time of peace; we have almost extinguished the debt which the Democratic party of the Southern States incurred upon us during the civil war, and years ago we lifted from the lands and homes of all our fellow citizens the burdens of State taxation."

"But the depression under which our agricultural interests now suffer has made the present system of taxation bear too heavily on them, and we therefore pledge ourselves to lighten that burden, and as far as possible to equalize taxation. To that end we recommend that the surplus revenue derived from State taxation be used to permit the taxation now laid upon real estate for local purposes by applying it, so far as it will in Legislative wisdom avail, to the increase of the appropriation for the support of the common schools, and to making appropriation for the care of the indigent in-ane, for the expenses of the jury system, and of holding the general elections."

"If thereby there should be necessity for enlarging our surplus revenue, we favor a just and equitable increase in the taxation of property of corporations."

"We recommend that the local system of taxation be so reformed as to permit the general government to pay for local purposes by applying it, so far as it will in Legislative wisdom avail, to the increase of the appropriation for the support of the common schools, and to making appropriation for the care of the indigent in-ane, for the expenses of the jury system, and of holding the general elections."

We are authorized to announce that Hon. C. R. Bucklew desires to be named for renomination by the Democrats of Columbia County, and is a member of Congress for this district.

Congressman Bucklew has on behalf of the Democratic members of the committee on the election of president and vice president and representatives in Congress, of which committee he is a member, prepared a minority report in opposition to the Federal election bill. The report presents at length the objections of the minority to the bill, which in the opinion of the committee is a measure of extreme and dangerous character, and demands consideration and debate.

Hon. Richard Vaux of Philadelphia, successor to the late Hon. Samuel J. Randall, made a speech in the house Saturday last on the Federal election bill. He made a point that while the constitution gave Congress the right to prescribe the manner and method of holding elections, it did not give Congress the authority actually to supervise or control the elections.

Major Mottmouth of Pittsburgh who was defeated for Governor at the republican convention, and who was endorsed the position of Lieutenant Governor, but declined the position, says that he "went into the contest for Governor on the astragal; that it was a fair and open contest; that that proved not to be the case."

Under the circumstances he did not think that he was called on for any special service in the way of helping to elect the ticket.

THE COLUMBIAN IS THE BEST.

How It Was.

At the battle of Gettysburg I was shot through the left leg and was sent to the hospital. The army surgeons relieved me but pronounced my case incurable. It discharged pieces of bone, and for several years I have suffered with a running sore. I tried everything which my limited means would allow, and experienced no relief until I tried Sulphur Bitters. I am now almost well and shall continue their use.—Old Soldier. 7-4-21.
