The Convention at Reading on Tuesday of the Democratic Societies was attended by 1500 delegates.

COUNTY COMMITTEE.

A meeting of the Democratic Standing Committee was held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Court House as per call of the chairman.

The success of the democrats in preventing the seating of two negro contestants in the House last week by breaking a quorum has caused many democrats to ask the same question.

Congress was better employed on Saturday than it has been for some time past. In the Senate eulogies were delivered on the late S. J. Randall.

Republican Plan of Campaign.

In the movements of the organization of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, it is manifest that the principles of "Quayism" are strictly adhered to.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Sept. 15, 1890. Senator Carlisle thinks there is great danger of a financial panic if the Republicans persist in allowing the amendment to the tariff bill.

While engaged in this futile appeal to the prejudices of the soldiers, the republican managers suddenly recollect how their program is based upon the amendment to the tariff bill.

The tariff bill is going through the form of being considered by the House Ways and Means committee.

The Louisiana delegation made a strong protest before the Ways and Means committee against the date—March 1, 1891—set for the sugar schedule to go into effect.

The Republicans are suspiciously quiet about the proposed extra session, and there is a difference of opinion regarding it among them.

was ever before any Congress. It is intended to keep the republican party in power for the next ten years.

The facts about the Reed campaign are generally making out in the news, even though the protected manufacturers had the "fat fried" out of them.

Republican Plan of Campaign.

In the movements of the organization of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, it is manifest that the principles of "Quayism" are strictly adhered to.

Nothing like them has been imposed upon the intelligence of the people of Pennsylvania; by the managers of a political party for many a day.

There are twenty-eight Congressmen to be elected in Pennsylvania this fall. The Monopoly Party have control of the office and patronage.

Many of the districts are close and if properly organized can be carried for the free raw material candidates.

While engaged in this futile appeal to the prejudices of the soldiers, the republican managers suddenly recollect how their program is based upon the amendment to the tariff bill.

The Republicans are suspiciously quiet about the proposed extra session, and there is a difference of opinion regarding it among them.

And my money paid for it. After having Liver Complaint for four years, and spending money for nostrums and doctors who didn't help me, I tried Sulphur Bitters. Six bottles cured me. I shall always use them.—G. N. Butler, Galesburg, N. Y. 9-19-90.
