HENSEL ARRAIGNS DELAMATER

W. U. Hensel made the following speech at Reading last week at the convention of Democratic Societies. At the opening meeting of the republican state campaign in Pittsburg last Saturday evening, an orator imported from Kansas is reported to have said, in substance, that the meanest republican thiel who ever cursed a commonwealth is better, politically, than the most exalted democrat whose charact-er and conduct blessed the state.

General Hastings, a speaker at the same meeting, is reported as having said that even if a republican leader stole from the state treasury he was better than a democrat who sought to guard it from spoilation Mr. Delamater, who was present, and sat on the platform, neither resented, rebuked nor repudiated these utterano s. Upon any other theory than his sympathy with and his faith in them, it is diffioult to see how, with any degree of can aspire to an office for which he has plainly disqualified himself. In view of the unmistakable provisions of the constitution of Pennsylvania, Senator Delamater's pathway to the gub-ernatorial chair is barred by an of-fense, to the accusation of which he dare not plead "not guilty," and con-cerning which the public records supply the ample evidences. The charge of misdemeanor in his high office is not born of partisan rancor; it depends up on no doubtful testimony, and the results of it are to be measured by a standard which cannot be stretched or shrunken. He has as a member of the general assembly, persistently violated the fourteenth section of the ninth article of the state constitution; and he is disqualified to hold the office for which he is a candidate, or any other in the state, for a period that runs be-yond the expiration of the next gubernatorial term.

It will be remembered that Mr.

Quay, at present a United States anator from Pennsylvania, was a candidate for state treasurer in 1885. In the campaign of that year be had large material assistance from Mr. Delamater, whose name at that time was scarcely known beyond the bord-ers of his own county; and there his reputation was rather that of a thrifty banker than of the advanced statesman and unselfish political reformer which his followers now set him up to be. USING STATE MONEY FOR PROFIT.

Scarcely had Mr. Quay taken hold of the management of the state treasury than he began to pay his benefactor, who had meantime become his official bondsman. The records of the state treasury show that on the 1st of June, 1886, the private binking house of Dalamater & Co. at Meadville, Pa., of which the republican candidate for governor is now—and was then—the head, had on deposit, $25,000 of the state funds, the public moneys, to "use" and "make profit" out of them. This amount continued there until on or about September 1, when it was increased to $30,000, as which figures it remained until after December 1, 1886. Mr. Delamater had, in the meantime, become a candidate for and had been elected state senator. He qualified shortly after January 1, 1887, and the amount of the public moneys which his bank had—to use and make profit out of-ran up to $47,914.29 before a month of his term had elapsed.

THE CONSTITUTION VIOLATED. When Mr. Delamater took his seat he swore to faithfully observe and support the constitution of the state. ction XIV, of article 9, of that in strument, says;

"The making of profit out of the public moneys, or using the same for any purpose not authorized by law, by any officer of the state or member of the general assembly, shall be a mis-demeanor, and shall be punished as may be provided by law, but part of such punishment shall be disqualification to hold office for a period of not less than five years."

It cannot be presumed that Senator Delamater was ignorant of the provisions of this law, or in doubt as to its meaning. A sketch of his life, printed at his expense, published by his authority, and distributed by his friends, which I now hold in my hand sets forth that he is a lawyer of "thorough and smple training," educated in the best schools of his profession and posessed of "a law library rare of ex-celence." Moreover, his admiring biographer declares, he entered public life to "subserve the good of the public," he is one who has been "drawn into political life by a belief that his principles and methods of political management were better and more just to all than the methods prevailing. In the full light of his knowledge of the law, and in the promotion of the lofty purposes which had "drawn" him into politics, the record shows him steadily holding on to the public moneys. These figures show the ex-tent to which Senator Delamater's private bank had the use and profits of state funds-while he was "a mem ber of the general assembly."

But Quay's man knew Quays friends; his successo evidently knew where to place the public moneys so as to do the most private good. Intermitted for a time, the favors, of the state treasurer to Delamater's bank, were renewed. Almost simultaneously with the beginning of what has been lauded as Sen ator Delamater's eminent services to the Quay national committee, in New York, during the summer and fall of 1888, began the restoration of the public moneys to his private use and profit. For fourteen successive months this table shows his balances—while he was "a member of the general as-framed this provision of that funda-mental law. Their own expressions confirm the unmistakable language of this section. The provision forbidding members of the legislature from having in their control, and for their use and profit, the moneys of the state treasury, was not inserted without deliberation and discussion. It was ot the anconsidered reputation of an existing form. It was a new provision and in the original draft its language we materially different from that which was finally adopted. As originally reported, it read: "The general assembly shall constitute the offense of making profit out of the public moneys or using the same for political purposes by officer of the general assembly, or any candidate for election or appointment, a misdemeanor," &c. But as though was subsequently changed. Instead of leaving it to the general assembly to "constitute" the offense a misdemeanor, by the unanimous vote of the convention it proceeded to directly declare in the constitution "it shall be s n'sdemeanor," beyond the power of the legislature to make it otherwise by neglect of its duty, by slighting or by transcending it. Furthermore, in the discussion which ensued over this clause, it was plainly avowed that its intention was to prohibit and prevent members of the legislature from getti ig control and custody of the state moneys. No than MacVeagh, late attorney general of the United States, pointed out, by way of objection to the sweeping provisions of the proposed law, that even stockholders in a national back. stockholders in a national bank, com-

qualified from holding office for five years. That is the off-use prescribed and the punishment. The proofs are to be found on the public records of the state, open to all its citizens. The treasurer's book shows that Delamater's bank had the use and profit of this money. He got it while he was a member of general assembly. I pause for his explanation or denial. I chalenge his reply. If Senator Delamater is not the "head" of the banking house of D lamater & Co., as his authorized biography d c'ares, if he did not solicit get and have this deposit of from $30, 000,00 to $75,000,00 while he was state senator, or, if getting it, he buri-ed it in a napkin and did not use and make profit out of it, let him speak out. But if he did thus flagrantly violate the constitution and set at defi and the sovereign law of the people he must either withdraw his challenge to their favor at the polls, or he must go down before their condemnation.

A Scrap of History.

The Republican managars of Mr. Delamater's campaigu in the State of Pennsylvania this year, as they have done in every campiagn for the last twenty years, are attempting to arouse the prejudice of the old soldier. They are distributing an illustrated circular entitled "A Scrap of History," which they show the illustration of a battle field, the burnal of a veteran and what they purport to be the Pattison idea of a Potter's Field for the soldier. All this is false and delusive and is in keeping with the argument of the Retheir corrupt bribe giving and bribe-taking candidate for Governor. The Republican party for years and years have insulted the dignity and man-hood of the soldiers of this country by offering them bribes in the way of of fices and the promise of liberal pensions. In 1888 they said to the soldiers of this country if you will vote for Benjamio Harrison we will give you service pensions; we will give you liberal pensions now that you are aged and broken down that your children and your families may not soffer, but the promises have never been fulfilled. As usual profuse and liberal in their promises before election they fail to keep them afterwards.

In 1861 and until 1865 the brave men who followed the starry flag through storm and sunshine, through heat and cold and over many fields of blood, unmindful of death or matila-tion of limb or body in their beroic and unselfish efforts to throttle treason that their country might live, received from this government as pay for their service the paltry sum of $13 a month in depreciated currency, while at this time Delamater & Co. and their like were buying up the bonds of the gov-ernment at sixty cents on the dollar, paying for the same 'n depreciated money at the time, and afterwards, when the war was over, and with the return of peace and prospericy, these mon-ey sharks of the Delamater kind, who held the bonds of the United States Government, received full payment for the same in gold and at a premium.

The promise of the government to the bond holders was redeemed in gold, but the promise of the Republican party and its leaders to the soldiers of this country has never been re-leemed except in this that they came before the people of Pennsylvania and ac-knowledge their failure to give the veteran the pensions they promised while he lives but they have provided for the old soldier a pauper burial when he dies, and for that he is asked to vote for their candidate for Governor. Do they think the old veteran devoid of feeling? This pauper burial bill is an insult to the dignity, the manhood, the posterity of the man who sacrificed sealth and fortune that the Union might live, while Delamater & Sonwere getting rich at the expense of the government. In their lack of respec-and consideration for the feelings of the family of the veteran this law compells three citizens of the county in which the soldier dies to make a public record of the fact that he was and died a pauper before he can have the benefit of the law. What an insult to the men who have been promised so much by the leaders of the Republican party and given so little.

A. A. McLeod, president and general manager of the Reading railroad now receives a salary of $40,000. It has been $20,000 unwilling to commit this protection of the public moneys to the uncertain action of the legislature, the section ficial in the United State, with the exception of Chauncey M. Depew, of the New York Central, who gets $50,000.

Nevertheless if a cool snap does not on come, small sales will be made, as within twenty-four hours after the oysters are fished up from the beast they sour in the shell. This is hard for the purchases to detect, as the oyster will open fine and look perfectly resh. An old planter said that the instant you attempt to swallow the soured oyster it makes you sick.
