BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1890.

Chairman's Address.

FELLOW DEMCRATS. We are within a few days of one of the greatest political battles that has ever been fought in Pennsylvania. The tide of public sentiment is running full TO THE WORKINGMEN OF PENNSYLand strong in our favor of unscrupulous political leaders in the strife for party power, appeal to the worst elements. Our remedy and ove country's safety He in successful appeal to the best. If government of the people be by the people, and for the people instead of by and for Bosses and Rings, we must now throw off the yoke by them impos-ed and stand together. To that end every effort possible to get out the Democratic vote. Get teams, have your people take up this matter, divide up the work and get out the fall Democratic vote. cratic vote. Do this, and victory will be ours. Do not forget that the one thing to do is to get to the polls the largest percentage of the Democratic voters. Hoping our efforts will be crowned with success. I am

Respectfully yours,
J. R. Townsend, Co. Chairman. The Philadelphia Times of Tuesday says that Delamater is beaten.

The Philadelphia Press of last Tuesday admits that the next House of Representatives in Congress will be democratic. Defeat is so inevitable that the republicans are making a soft spot to fall on.

Several weeks ago grave charges were made against George W. Delamater by ex-Senator Emery who in-vited the former to prosecute him for libel. Delamater has taken no steps to defend his integrity. Last Saturday several Philadelphia newspapers printed articles reflecting on the offi-cial honesty of Robert E. Pattison, while governor, and promptly on Mon-day morning he had the editors arrested for libel. That is the difference between the two men.

P. Gray Meek of Bellefonte editor of nominated for the state senate by the his action in locking out members of democrats of the 34th district.

Every where the out look is most encouraging for the Democrats. In this county Republicans are attending pounty from 1864 to 1876. In 1876 he moved to Bloomsburg, prepared for nty bar February 2nd, 1885, practiced in partnership with the Hon. E. R. Ikler, now president Judge of the Twenty-sixth district until he was el ected to the bench; since that time he has been practicing alone. He was nominated for State Senator in Columbia county on the 9th of August. 1890. Mr. Herring is a sterling Democrat whose election to the State Senate will be an honor to the district.—

The election of every democration the county ticket is so certain that it is not necessary to urge democrats to go to the polls next Tuesday on account. But there is another and more important reason why every democrat should vote on November The contest for the governorship is a warm one. The republicans are leaving no stone unturned to procure the election of Delamater and they will turn out to a man. The election now depends upon the ac-tion of the democrats. The revolt against Delamater and Quayism has assumed such proportions, that if the Pattison is sure. In Alleghency county six out of seven republican newspapers are for Pattison, and Chris Magee, for many years a republican leader is in the revolt. Thomas Marshall another manager to a reasonable understanding republican, is stumping the state for Pattison. Every where it is the same, and we know of a number of republi cans in this county who will vote for Pattison. In Philadelphia the Lincoln Independent Republicans are doing valiant service, and the fact that the Delamater managers are frightened shown in their action last week in cancelling many ingagements of Delamater and party through the state and keeping him in Philadelphia. A Democratic victory is within reach. Democratic apathy alone will lose the day, Every vote is needed. Vote yourself and then see that your neighbor does

Grand Rally.

The democracy will be addressed in the Bloomsburg Opera House on Fri-day evening by Hon. Charles S Wolfe eloquent and fearless independent, and Hou. J. Thompson Baker, both of Lewisburg. There should be a general outpouring from town and county. Dont let the Democracy be out done, but let us have a big meeting to listen to the eloquent orators at our final

The recent convention of labor or ganizations at Harrisburg, is out in an appeal to their various organizations to vote against Delamater on account of the action of the Philadelphia Press in the action of the Philadelphia Press in employing cheap' and locking out or-ganized, labor in January last. The action is creating a profound sensation in labor circles, and receives the commendation of the toilers who are beginning to recognize the fact that the Republican party does not practice the doctrine that it teaches.

Your earnest attention is called to the following statement of facts. You are invited by your fellow-workmen of the Pennsylvania Branch of the American Federation of Labor to carefully read and digest the case as herein presented, and then circulate the same among your friends. Believing that

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Oct. 28, 1890.— Methodist divine, now pastor of the Wilkinsburg M. E. church, has addressed a letter to Chairman W. S. He wants better material than Delamater. He upholds Pattison for vetoing the "pauper soldier burial bill," and concludes by saying: "Pattison is good enough for me, and, as I once fought to save the country from armed rebels, I shall now vote to save it from a more dangerous and dreaded enemy, political plunderers."

One physician advised the amputation of one of her finger, to which we refused assent. Mr. Barclay has been making too many soldier votes by his journey through the state and hence the order was usued for his return. It must be against placing the bill on the Calendar is too transparent, as everyone knew in the Senate that the bil had been pending for a month in the Finance Committee, and it was fully argued on both sides, and that no valid constitutional objections were raised aginst the bill. The Grange Legislative Committee waited until the very last day that they could make the motion to discharge the committee was issued for his return. It must be this mounty Republicans are attending the democratic political meetings in considerable numbers, and we know of many who will vote for Pattison.
