State Farmers' Alliance

OFFICERS EGROTED AND FULL TEXT OF THE DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

The State Farmers' Alliance adjourned on the 27th after electing the followed on the 27th after electing the following officers for the ensuing year:

President, Henry C. Snavely of Lebanon County; vice-president Cartis S. Clark, of Crawfoad County; lec'urer, J. S. Potts, of Indiana County; secretary, Henry C. Demming, of Dauphin County; treasurer, Valentine Hay, of Somerset County; business agent, E. H. Werner, of S. merret County. Executive board, Henry Brobst, of Berks County; E. D. Roche, of Potter County; and William Wible, of Adams County; Judiciary board, H. B. Schall, of Armstrong County, W. P. Bricker, of Lycoming County, and Theodore McAllister, of Adams County. Delegates to the National Farmers' Alliance, Henry C. D-mming of Dauphin gates to the Na ional Farmers' Alli-ance, Henry C. D-mming of Dauphin County, and A. W. Knupper, of Somer-set County. Alternates, J. S. Potts, of Indiana County, and H. Young, of York County. Chaplain, S. B. Kent, of Greene County, steward, J. K. Brabaker, of Lebanon County; doorkeeper, Robinson Rood, of Potter County; as-sistant doorkeeper, D. M. Omwake, of Franklin County, and sergeant-at-arms, John Dieffenbach, of Berks County.

A resolution passed unanimously to have a Summer encampment, and a committee was appointed with full powers on the subject. The committee are H. C. Demming, chairman, J. B. Moore, and William Wible. The banner county in the State in the number of local alliances, is Greene, with fiftyone, and an average membership each alliance of over fifty.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions interesting because of its declaration of the princi les of the alliance, is as follows:-

The undersigned committee, appointed by the Pennsylvania State Alliance and Industrial Union to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the Alliance, have unan-mously agreed upon the following, and report the same for adoption:-WHEREAS, There is a great depres sion in the agricultural interests of the country, and a great stringency exists in money matters; and WHEREAS The tax laws of this State are unjust, inequitable, and oppressive made in the interest of favored classes, and to the injury of the messes of the people; therefore, be it

(1) Resolved. That the revenue or tax laws of the State should be revised by the next Legislaure so that every species of property, real, personal, and mixed, lands, bonds, stocks, monies, etc., be made to bear its due propor-tion of the public burdens, in order to relieve the owners of real estate from the unjust taxation to which they are now subjected.

(2) Resolved, That the volume of the currency is wholly inadequate for the business interests of the country, and by reason thereof the value of all kinds of property has been depreciated and financial distress has been brought upon the ceuntry; and for relief in this firection we favor the free coinage of silver, and discreminathe xreuse f another.

(3) Resolved, That we are opposed with sinds of trusts and combines whereby the necessaries of life,—fuel, clothing, and all articles which enter into daily use and consumption,—are abnormally enhanced in price, to the great injury of the masses.

(4) Resolved, That we are opposed to the policy of allowing foreigners to own and hold large bodies of land in this country for speculctive purposes; for it tends to create a monopoly if the soil similar to that existing in certain European countries where the execu tive landlord system prevails.

(5) Resolved That free and honest election imperatively demand a secret ballot; and we most earnestly request the Legislature at once to call a State Convention for the purpose of making the necessary provision for securing a secret ballet for the voters of this State at the earliest possible time.

(6) Resolved, That notwithstanding nearly all classes of persons, except the farming and industrial classes have had special legislation beneficial to themselves; yet as we regard class leg-islation wholly wrong and inequitable, we shall not demand it for ourselves, but we shall demand from henceforth equal and exact justice to all.

(7) Resolved That we hold that the Constitution of the United States shall be amended, requiring the election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people, in order that a higher order of tallent may be secured in that body, and men prevented from secur-ing the position by means of their wealth alone, and filling the Senate with millionaires regardless of the proper qualification.

(8) Resolved, That we are in hearty sympathy with all the industrial class es of our land, and trust that by all means they may co-operate to bring about the much needed reforms in leg-islation and otherwise, and secure the right that justly belong to them.

Respectfully submitted,

VALENTINE HAY (Somerset),

A young girl here had been suffering for 12 years with Disease until she had lost the use of her limbs, and was subject to many troubles incident to the disease. The physicians de-clared her case incurable, and predicted that her life would come to a speedy end. After taking S. S. S. she recuperated so fast that it was plain that she had obtained a new lease on life, and she has continued to grow better until her permanent cure is assured. THE GERMAN EMPRESS.

Since she came to the throne the Empress Augusta Victoria continues to be the sensible and modest woman Empress Augusta Victoria continues to be the sensible and modest woman that she was when only a Princess. While her husband runs about with feverish activity, visiting present and possible allies, she is content to remain at home, and perform the very limited duties that the constitution has marked out for the wives of German sovereigns. Owing to the many bereavements in the royal family, the court at Berlin has not been very gay since William II. began to reign. In fact, in the days of his grandfather it was not renowned for its liveliness. The present Emperor continues the economical traditions of the Hohenzollern family, and court recep ions are not much more frequent than state balls were at Paris under M. Jules Grevy. Having scaroely any other public duties to perform than to appear at the head of her regiment of cutrassiers during the rare moments when the Empreor is at home, the Empress Jevotes most of her time to her household cares, and perhaps continues to put up her own preserves, as she did when she was the Princess William. The Emperor is not at all displeased at this kind of talent, as the following incident will show. Soon after William II. was crowned, a committee of the continues of the Christmas dinner and holiday discontains is given by the best authority obtainable. Women have never balls were at Paris under M. Jules Grevy. Having scarcely any other public duties to perform than to appear at the head of her regiment of cutrassiers during the rare moments when the Emperor is at home, the Empress Jevotes most of her time to her household cares, and perhaps continues to put up her own preserves, as she did when she was the Princess William. The Emperor is not at all displeased at this kind of talent, as the following incident will show. Soon after William II. was crowned, a committee of her motherly care is not long bestowed on each one, for soon as possible their father takes them away from the nurse, and sends them to the drill-master in ways decorated with Gloria do Paris and sends them to the drill-master in Thuringia, where they are uniformed, booted, spurred, and taught to train a sabre in true German fashio. Perhaps the Empress would like to have a daughter among this little flock, but William II. is satisfied with sons.

Seeshing one day to the little flock of the satisfied with sons. Speaking one day to his elder sister, the Princess of Saxe-Meiningen, he said: "It is better to have only boys, because when there is a daughter, that immediately causes more embarass ment, and entails greater expense. First of all, there must be a governess, one or more maids of honor, and a lot one or more maids of honor, and a lot tubular steam boiler. E. B. Coxe, of complicated finery. On the contrary, when there are only boys, they can all be dressed in the same fashion of country. When there are only boys, they can all be dressed in the same fashion.

A price of cloth will -in uniform. A piece of cloth will serve for all of them. My boys are all dressed as artillerymen, even the small est one, who is already a corporal. And it is in this costume that they play all day long! Only, the poor little Princes cannot play as other children do; their sole recreation is to amuse themselves with military theory and exercise, so as to become warriors, and win laurels as their spostors have and win laurels, as their ancestors have done, and as their father hopes to do.

TON HOUSE.

Pine Brook, a northern suburb of Scranton, is in a state of excitement over what is regarded as ghostly maifestations. For the past six weeks the families of Martin Nealon and Mrs. Catharine Walsh have been unable to sleep on account of strange noises tors report a singular indifference with which are heard every night about relation to the question in some contwelve o'clock in the front room of the gregations, not more than one voter Walsh apartments.

The manifestations consist of rappings, heavy footsteps, slamming doors and other mysterious sounds. The most careful investigation failed to as-unearth the mystery. About midnight a shuffling of feet was heard in the front room accompanied by a spasmo-dic rapping as if on a pannel of the door. The men rushed into the room, but they found nothing to which the strange noises could be attributed. A watch was kept on the outside of the house, but no one was seen to enter or go out. The windows and doors, which had been nailed, were found intact and the vigilant watchers were only more puzzled than ever.

When they were about to leave the room one of the men chanced to look out of the window and to his horror saw an apparition which almost transsaw an apparition which almost transfixed him to the spot. Mrs. Walsh and Mrs. Nealon also witnessed it and almost fainted at the sight. Outlined in the darkness, just outside the window, was the bust of a youth with golden hair, fair features and large burning eyes. It disappeared as suddenly as it came leaving no trace of its presence.

The Walsh family moved out of the house Thursday, and the Nealson family are also preparing to leave.

Jim Dobson and Paddy McGaw escaped from the Western Penitentiary at Pittsburg last Friday. McGaw was serving a term of twelve years for muder, and Dobson was in for eight years for burglary.

Soon after William II. was crowned, a committee of Berlin ladies, having resolved to offer a gift to the new Empress, decided, without a very long deliberation, that the souvenir should consist of a white silk apron trimmed with costly laces, and having the names of the five little Princes embroidered in garlands. In receiving this present, the Empress told the donors that she was happy to accept such a gift, for the apron had always been the symbol of a good German housewife. "Besides," she added, "my husband will be satisfied with your offering, for he desires that I should always wear an apron in the house!"

The Empress Augusta Victoria is now in her thirty-first year, and is three months older and somewhat taller than the Emperor; but her fair and fresh complexion makes her look younger than her age. An oval face, soft blue eyes, beautiful teeth, and an abundance of blonde hair give her a decidedly agreeable if not positively pretty physiognomy, while she passes for having smaller feet than nature has generously bestowed upon the sisters of her race. The Empress has already given five sons to her husband; but her motherly care is not long bestowed on each one, for soon as possible their Women Indifferent About Voting.

Pirrsauac, Nov. 27.—The Pittsburg Christian Advocate has been tabulat-ing the vote of the Methodist Episcopal churches hereabouts upon the proj-osition to admit women as lay dele-gates to the General Conference. Thus far the returns have been received from seventy congregations located in the Pittsburg. Erie, East Ohio, and West Virginia Conferences. In these there 12,811 members entitled to vote, but only 3314 exercised the privilege. Of this number 2051 voted for the admission of women and 1262 against. Pas-tors report a singular indifference with out of five coming to the meetings.
