"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great disconfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief. I saw by an advertise-ment in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing com-plaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. "We have done it in 25 minutes. Fifty-six!" called the manager, in anticipation of a quick service.

"By cross town car, elevated train, and run up Wall street to Nassau."

Still she hesitated. A glance at the clock decided her. "It is on the stroke of 4. and the mea-sage must be delivered before half past. I think the telegraph is quicker," she said.

In frantic haste she returned to the operator. He was busy with a message, and two more precious minutes were lost.

"Send that dispatch just as fast as you can; and do put on it 'to be delivered at once," can't you?" she said when her turn came. "I'll rush it," said the operator. "Oh, do," urged the lady. "You see how important it is," and for the first time she unknit her pretty brows. The operator, too, indulged in a fleeting smile. The dispatch read: "Don't bring Mr. ---- home to dinner. Cook has just left in a tantrum."
