STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES.

The third annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Association of Agricultural Societies, was held in the Supreme court at Harrisburg, Jan. 27, 1891. The meeting was called to order by Dr. J. P. Barnes, of Allentown, President of the Association, at 11:30 a. m. A large number of delegates were present from all over the State, and much interest was manifested from the opening to the close of the meeting. The only business transacted at the morning session was the appointment of committees on credentials, order of business, nomination of officers, and the reception of credentials.

The afternoon session was opened at 2 p. m. The nominating committee reported the following officers for the ensuing year who were declared elected: President, Dr. J. P. Barnes, of Allentown; Vice-Presidents, N. F. Underwood, of Wayne Co., John F. Hoffa, of Northumberland Co., and J. C. Thoratton, of Erie Co.; Corresponding Secretary, Cyrus F. Fox, of Berks Co.; Recording Secretary, J. W. Mather, of Tioga Co. Various topics of interest to managers and patrons of fairs were then taken up and discussed. Those of greatest interest to the people of Columbia county, being the "One Judge System," and "How Should the Premium Schedule be Prepared." The experience of those adopting the one expert judge in all departments was, that it gave the best satisfaction and was the least expensive. It was very generally conceded that the fancy department premium list should each year be revised by a competent committee of ladies, as fancy articles are constantly changing style, and articles that a few years ago were worthy of large premiums are now obsolete.

A resolution was passed that managers of fairs should strictly enforce the rule to prevent gambling on their grounds. Although the above resolution is a very good one, yet it struck the writer as a very strange one for a representative body to discuss, as the inference was that gambling could be allowed on fair grounds by the managers although strictly forbid by the laws of the commonwealth. A resolution was also passed against legalizing the selling of pools at horse races. How can we secure uniformity of admission fees? was discussed at the evening session. The ticket used at the Col. Co. Fair was described and very generally believed to be the best in use.

This county was represented by Chandler Eves, member of the State Board of Agriculture, M. P. Lutz, Secretary of Col. Co. A. H. & M. Association. Hon. Wm. Krickbaum and Hon. E. M. Tewksbury were present at the meetings when their body was not in session.

POULTRY NOTES.

Don't feed poultry stimulating food if you desire healthy offspring.
Don't permit fowls to roost in trees in cold weather if eggs are wanted.
Don't make the mistake of over-feeding, as very fat hens will not lay.
Don't keep the surplus too long as the feed bill will over-run the profit.
Don't let your stock degenerate by selling your best birds.
Don't keep too large a flock if your house and yard are small.
Don't allow a sick chicken to run with the rest, unless a valuable one; better kill and bury.
Don't think that there is nothing in poultry; eggs at one cent a piece will more than pay their keeping.
A very good drink cup for small chicks is made out of an old beef can, by cutting to shape and bending edges over so as to do away with sharp corners, etc.; hang it on a nail so the bottom will set on the floor, so it can not be upset.
Nealy legs are an abomination and an eyesore, give them two or three doses of coal oil, and watch the result.
Keep an accurate account of your poultry for one year, and see if they don't pay better than cows.
All questions answered through these columns free of charge by addressing me at Millville, Pa.
W. B. GERMAN.

Commonwealth vs. Harry Speer, true bill, defendant pleads guilty, sentenced for adultery to pay a fine of $50 and imprisonment in county jail for 6 months; for fornication and bastardy the usual sentence.

On Tuesday afternoon the case of Commonwealth vs. McMenamin was begun, and all other jurors were discharged.

Resolutions.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., FEB 1, 1891.
Having heard with profound sorrow of the sudden death of Bro. Freas Brown, which occurred at his home in this town, on Friday, Jan. 30, 1891. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we his brethren and fellow members of the several official boards of the Bloomsburg Methodist Episcopal Church, desire to bear record to the high esteem in which he was held by us, his untiring devotion to the performance of his duties as Recording Steward, his efficient and systematic management of the church finances, his wise counsel in the board of trustees, his liberal and cheerful contributions to all the demands of the church upon either his time or his money.

Resolved, That the Bloomsburg Methodist Episcopal Church, in the death of Bro. Freas Brown, has sustained an almost irreparable loss; and that we earnestly pray that the Great Head of the church may raise up another in our midst who may take up the work where he has laid it down, and that the Comforter of stricken hearts may console his bereaved widow, and at last she be crowned by his side in the Heavenly home above.

Resolved, That this expression of our love and regard for our late brother be spread upon the minutes of the official boards, published in our town papers, and that a copy thereof be sent to the bereaved widow.

AUCTIONEER.

A competent auctioneer can do more toward making a public sale a success than anything else. One man who understands his business can get twice as much for goods as another who takes no interest in working up a sale, and works only for the money there is in it for him. Persons who expect to have public sales this spring will do well to communicate with John S. Williams, Bloomsburg, and secure his service as auctioneer. He is in demand everywhere, and it would be well to secure him early. His sales are well attended, and always bring good prices. For terms address John S. Williams, Bloomsburg, Pa. His office is on the 3rd floor of the Columbian building.

Robert J. Burdette Will be Here.

The article published in the New York Christian Advocate last month warning certain religious organizations against employing Robert J. Burdette to lecture because of his failure to meet a recent engagement has occasioned some inquiry as to whether he would be likely to disappoint the people of Bloomsburg. The following letter from the bureau through which Mr. Burdette was employed will reassure those who may have entertained a doubt as to his filling his engagement here.

BOSTON JAN. 31, 1891.

BLOOMSBURG PA.
GENTLEMEN:—We are sorry to confirm the report that Mr. Burdette did not fill his engagement at Jerseyville Ill. For reasons stated but we know that he deplores it more than anyone, that he filled all his engagements before this and has filled everyone since without a break and that we have his assurance that he will go through the season without another failure from this cause. Mr. Burdette considered himself perfectly safe as did we and all his friends but in an unguarded moment he broke down. We know of no one who is more deserving of sympathy for the hard fight he has made and is still making to clear himself entirely of his weakness apart from which he is one of the noblest men we have ever known in all respects and his friends are numbered by all who have ever known him. We have not the least reason to suppose he will not fill your date and very acceptably.

Yours truly
REDDATH LYCOMB BUREAU.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa. post office and will be sent to the dead letter office Feb 17, 1891.
Miss Clara A. Dawson, Mr. Frank H. Fritz, Mr. M. Havens, J. C. Jordan, Miss Maranda Shultz, Mr. S. O. Urie.
Persons calling for these letters will please say they were advertised Feb. 3, 1891.
One cent will be charged on each letter advertised.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co. publishers of A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases, which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a 2 cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., Enosburg Falls, Vt. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity of obtaining a valuable book.

It is necessary that you mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time.
1-23-4t.

A spring medicine is needed by everyone. Winter food, largely consisting of salt meat and animal fats, causes the liver to become disordered and the blood impure, hence the necessity of a cleansing medicine. The best is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Highest cash price paid for all kinds of furs: Fox, mink, musk rats, skunks, etc.

Arrested!

Charles A. Daley was arrested last evening for stealing from the drug store of Shiesman, a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Before the court this morning, upon being asked why he should steal, he stated that his mother was troubled with Rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that helped her, and being out of money and work was the cause of his stealing. As this was his first offence he was put on probation. —Newark News.

Maj.-Gen. B. F. Butler.

HE WILL RETURN TO THE SOUTH FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE WAR.

It seems hardly necessary to say anything of the history of Gen. B. F. Butler. No man in the whole nation has been more constantly in the public eye for the last four decades than he. As a successful lawyer and influential politician before the war, as a patriot who was among the first to respond to the country's call at the firing upon Fort Sumter, as the man who gave New Orleans the best government the city ever had, as Commander of the Army of the James, as a Representative in Congress and a leading politician since the war, he has had public attention constantly focused upon him. No man in the country has received more praise and more abuse than he, and no man has more warm, personal friends and admirers. Many of the people of the South have been particularly bitter against him, and have tried to make his name the synonym for all that was detestable. He is now about to return good for evil, and reap coals of fire upon the heads of his detractors by a great enterprise to help restore prosperity to the region which suffered so severely from the ravages of the war. He is at the head of the great Georgia-Alabama Investment and Development Co., whose advertisement appears elsewhere in this paper, which is made up of capitalists whom he has associated with himself in a scheme to rebuild and develop large portions of Dixie. Early next month he intends to make a tour of the South, visiting that section for the first time since the close of the war—twenty-six years ago. He will go to New Orleans, and to all other prominent points, and survey the fields of operations of this company carefully, to inform himself personally as to the possibilities of each locality. There is something phenomenal in such a tour by a general whose first visit was sword in hand, but who now goes as a restorer. It will be watched with great interest by all sections of the country. —National Tribune, Washington, D. C. 1-16-4w.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, and did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."—GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

CONSUMPTION,

IN its first stages, can be successfully checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of that disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine.
"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."—A. J. ELDON, M. D., Middleton, Tennessee.
"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health went right to the present day."—James Birchard, Darien, Conn.
"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. CHANDLER, Junction, Va.
