ENTOMBED MINERS RESCUED.
BROUGHT OUT ALIVE.

NANTICOKE, Pa., Feb. 9.—One of the most dramatic events that have occurred in the coal mining region about here in many years was the release Monday morning of the three men, John River, William Craigie and Michael Sheliouk, from the flooded mine in which they had been imprisoned since Wednesday last. On Wednesday of last week five men, three above named and two others, Thomas Lewis and Daniel Davis, were at work in No. 3 mine of the Susquehanna Coal Company. They were engaged in robbing pillars in an abandoned portion of the mine. In one chamber Lewis and Davis were at work, and to loosen the coal resorted to a blast. The explosion rent asunder a wall separating the chamber in which they were engaged from an old abandoned working used for storing surplus mine water. The imprisoned water burst through the great hole made by the blast in a furious torrent, which nothing could resist.

A GHOST OF A CHANCE.
Lewis and Davis were jerked off their feet and tossed about like corks. Even heavy coal cars were lifted and whirled before the flood as though they had been corks. Lewis and Davis were fortunately swept to the gangway. Here they got a footing. With the flood tearing after them they fled for their lives. At one time the flood overpowered them up to their necks, but they made a final despairing effort and got beyond its clutch. Davis and Lewis were saved, but their three companions were left behind. There was hardly a ray of hope that they could be alive. There was just a chance that they might have got on some elevated footing beyond the reach of the water. Those who first suggested it were thought to be half mad, but still it was a ghost of a chance, and rescuers set to work with all that fury of energy which miners go to the relief of their comrades, not knowing how soon their own time may come to need a like effort on their behalf.

DESPAIR TURNED TO WILD JOY.
At an early hour Monday morning, however, their growing despair was turned to wild joy. From far back in the mine there came a faint cry. For a moment the men ceased their work. They could hardly believe their own ears. Then again, as they stood breathless, the weak, faint voice was heard. The answer was a wild cheer, and with a sort of blind fury the men fell at their work again. At 3 o'clock in the morning the voice could be distinctly heard; a little later words could be made out. The three men were all alive and they were unhurt, "but for God's sake hurry!"

AS THE DEAD COME TO LIFE.
In a jiffy they were pulled down and went on to the left, and a few moments later they were out in the sunlight with their comrades hugging them and kissing them like madmen, and welcoming them as the dead come to life again. There have been many touching scenes around the black mouths of the mines hereabouts, but seldom one that moved men's hearts more than did the wild demonstrations over these poor rescued miners. They are the heroes of the day, and for a long time to come, until some other great disaster has overshadowed their adventure, they will have to tell over and over again the story of those five awful days of darkness and despair.

Curiously enough, they did not suffer greatly from hunger. Their greatest misery, after their mental agony, was from thirst and the cramped position in which they were forced to sit. Milk was given them to drink, and they quickly recovered their strength. It was after 7 o'clock in the morning, however, before they were thought to be sufficiently strong to be carried to their homes. For the restoration of faded and gray hair to its original color and freshness, Ayer's Hair Vigor remains unrivaled. This is the most popular and valuable toilet preparation in the world; all who use it are perfectly satisfied that it is the best.

POULTRY NOTES.

No. 3.
One great objection to white poultry of any kind is, the hawks will catch them sooner than the colored one.
The dog for the poultry man and farmer is the Scotch collie shepherd. They are kind and yet watchful, easily taught to perform certain kinds of work, and by far the handsomest of any breed. Farmers do not want pet dogs nor elephants. The collie is the dog—Guide and Friend.
At moderate dose of sulphur, given twice a week, serves as a laxative and blood purifier. The sulphur permeates the whole system, even coursing through the skin and being death to insect life, causes parasites to drop off.—C. Dudley in Am. Ag.
The above is simply unadulterated nonsense. Sulphur is a mechanical irritant and passes through the system without having any effect on the parasites. On the contrary it is a dangerous and debilitating drug and should never be used.—Poultry Bulletin.
Although the weather is cold no doubt the lice are warm enough in the pluff and feathers of the fowls. Use Persian insect powder freely.
You can generally tell the condition of a fowl by its comb; if it appears soft and elastic, and a good red color the fowl is in a healthy condition. If shriveled and shrunken and of a pale color, look out for disease of some kind.
A two year old hen makes the best incubator; select those that are quiet in their disposition.
A wild, dirty hen while setting will often cause disturbance with other setting hens.
W. B. GERMAN.

Manners' Double Extract Sarsaparilla for Catarrh is and always will be a leader, as its curative powers cannot be best; price 50c a bottle. For sale by all druggists.

Ashland Citizens Alarmed.
The citizens and property-owners of the western end of Ashland are considerably alarmed by the cracking and settling of the earth beneath their dwellings. The town is built on a hill with the main streets running east and west. It was never believed that the town was undermined, except in the southwestern side, and there to no very great extent. The cracking was first noticed a year ago, but very little attention was given to it at that time, although it gradually extended towards the eastern end of the borough. The crack first made its appearance on Walnut, above Fifteenth street. It then runs down Centre and crosses that street, striking close to the pavement along the northern side. The buildings along its track have been damaged, though none very seriously.
The crack is not noticeable below Ninth street, although it has caused considerable damage to properties between that street and the Methodist Church. The total loss to property-holders will reach $3,000, and as the settling continues their loss increases.

Highest cash price paid for all kinds of furs: Fox, mink, musk rats, skunks, etc.
LOUIS LOWENBERG.
The Rev. Henry C. Swentzel, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Scranton, has been elected Missionary Bishop to Japan by the house of Bishops of the Episcopal Church, in session in New York. He is considering the matter of accepting. He has been rector of St. Luke's, Scranton, for five years and seven months and has been signally successful in his work, enjoying the hearty and united support of a large and influential congregation, who oppose his acceptance of the Japan Bishopric. Eminent fitted for the office on account of his systematic methods and celebrated for his culture, eloquence and love for humanity. Dr. Swentzel is also a leading member of the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania and the call is to the most difficult charge now existing in the Episcopal Church's work.

A beautiful young lady became so sadly disfigured with pimples and blotches that it was feared she would die of grief. A friend recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which she took, and was completely cured. She is now one of the fairest of the fair.

Zarr and Rhawn for Plaintiff, Freeze, Hinkel and Geyer for defendants.
At 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, after argument, the Judge charged the Jury and directed a verdict in favor of defendants.
For over a week past several bears have been seen roaming about the woods at the foot of Campbell's Ledge, near Pitston. Fearing that the animals might get rampant and do considerable damage, a party of hunters was organized, and on Thursday, last week, they started out, with George Drake of Lackawana, in the lead. After scouring about the woods for some time they finally discovered the animals in the brush between Coxton and the Connell mine at Lackawana. It is claimed that four bears were seen. At any rate two were run down by the hunters and killed. An attempt was made to capture them alive, but they showed fight, and rather than run the risk of being hurt, the hunters brought the animals down with a few loads of buckshot. One of them was a she bear, quite large in size, while the other was a cub.

Manners' Balm of Gilead Lotion for chappy hands, face and lips, is without competition. Price 25c a bottle, for sale by all druggists.
AUCTIONEER.
A competent auctioneer can do more toward making a public sale a success than anything else. One man who understands his business can get twice as much for goods as another who takes no interest in working up a sale, and works only for the money there is in it for him. Persons who expect to have public sales this spring will do well to communicate with John S. Williams, Bloomsburg, and secure his service as auctioneer. He is in demand everywhere, and it would be well to secure him early. His sales are well attended, and always bring good prices. For terms address John S. Williams, Bloomsburg, Pa. His office is on the 3rd floor of the COLUMBIAN building.

George Smith, an old resident of Jackson township, was buried on Wednesday.

Address, A. S. Fritz, Box 17, Benton, Col. Co., Pa.

I Don't Want a Doctor!
I have tried them, and they have only swindled me. I have figured up what they cost me for the last four years, it was just $524.31. If I had it now it would be a fortune for me. This year my bill for medicine was only five dollars, for which I purchased six bottles of Sulphur Bitters. They cured me of Scrofula after suffering four years.—P. J. Cummings, Troy, N. Y. 2-13-2t.

A man employed as editor of the Plymouth Star has quit the business to study for the ministry. If there is one business that prepares a man for the hereafter it is the newspaper business. It offers him very little in the present, however.—Halston Sentinel.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get
"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's Sarsaparilla
When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

SALE BILLS.
There will be a large number of public sales this spring, and it would be well for persons contemplating a sale to fix upon a neighborhood, so that no one else in the neighborhood will select the same day. March is usually the busy month for sales. THE COLUMBIAN is prepared to print sale bills of any size, from the smallest to a full sheet bill, in a style that cannot be surpassed, and at prices as low as they can be made consistent with good work. We have cuts of horses, cattle, pigs, sheep, chickens, wagons, stoves, farm implements, houses, barns, and nearly everything that can be used on a sale bill, and put them on without extra charge. Persons living at a distance need not come to town to get their bills printed, but send us a list of articles, the date and place, terms of sale, number of bills and size wanted, and we will put in proper shape and send the bills by mail. Our bills are attractive, and we guarantee satisfaction both in quality and price. Do not wait until a few days before your day of sale but arrange about your bills at once. We shall open a sale calendar soon, and all bills printed at this office will receive a free notice which will stand until the day of sale, so the sooner the bills are printed the longer gratuitous advertising you will get. Remember, THE COLUMBIAN office is the oldest and largest in the county, and stands at the head for all kinds of printing. tf.
