Columbian. BLOOMSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1891.

VOL 26.

The sale of Manor Rest Inn, was adjourned from April 11th to the 21st.

Moyer Bros. soda fountain is in operation

Read the Artemus Ward letters on second page. They are full of humor.

C. P. Sloan has put a new roof on his residence.

Eighteen new lock boxes have been put in the post office by Postmaster Cathcart.

W. F. Bodine is again able to attend to business after several weeks affliction with the "grip".

The trout season commenced Wednesday April 15th and will continue until July 15th.

The brick work of the second story of the new Court house is nearly completed.

Lowenberg's show windows present a very attractive appearance with their display of new spring neckwear, shirts and hats.

J. K. Bittenbender has received his commission as Notary Public and is ready for any business in that line that formerly P. W. Melick's. may be offered.

John N. Gordon has purchased a tract of twenty-five acres of land in Hemlock township from the heirs of Caleb Barton.

C. B. Chrisman is handling the best of shell oysters. Twice a week he is receiving Delaware shad, and he keeps feeling badly. After reaching home always in stock bananas, oranges, lem- she read the newspapers, retiring ons, and other fruits in season.

The company that was billed for the Opera House last Saturday night, in the "Clemenceau Case," did not reach town. It is said that they stranded on the way.

Dr. I. W. Willits who has been afflicted with the "grip" for the past two weeks is again able to be out. He had the "grip" in a most aggravated form.

Thomas Gorrey started for Dodge county, Nebraska, last Saturday after noon, having received a telegram announcing the dangerous illness of his mother who lives out there.

T. H. & I. W. Edgar have their planing mill at Stillwater in full operation, and are better prepared than ever to furnish doors, sash, blinds and all kinds of mill work. Builders should

LIGHT STREET.

Master Hagenbuch, son of Wilson

I. R. Robbins has so far recovered from his recent attack of illness as to be attending to business.

Elizabeth Ent is still confined to the house.

William Edwards of Berwick visited his sister, Mrs. G. M. Lockard, latter part of last week.

Mrs. Abram Custer is still at Wilkes Barre looking after her son James, who has had the typhoid fever, but is now convalescing.

I. N. Crawford has quit the car shop at Berwick and is now with the Bloomsburg Car Co.

Chas. Culp has an addition to his family.

Chas. Johnson has improved his residence, by putting on a new roof.

Dan Wertman returned Monday from the west after a sojourn of a year.

Mr. Southwick moved in the property of H. E. Heacock.

Mrs. Brown is still in the millinery business, only a change of residence across the street into the property

EAST BENTON.

The sudden death of Mrs. John B. Hoyt, of this place, last Saturday night, cast a sorrowful gloom over the neighborhood. We met her and her husband about dusk near Cambra. shortly after which she complained of shortly after 9 o'clock. A few min-utes later she groaned and threw her arm over her husband's shoulder, who spoke to her but received no answer. Calling several times to her without response, he jumped up, lighted the lamp, sent for the doctor, but she was dead before medical aid reached her. She was probably 30 years of age.

Rev. Mr. Hamlin, the M. preacher, has not yet occupied his new field of labor on the Benton charge. He is detained by sickness. The wet weather retards farming. Great complaints come from different quarters concerning the new "Tax Bill." For one we say "let her rip." We want the taxes equalized. The farmers can't all be such fools to petition for such a law and then be frightened out of it before it finally passes the Senate. There may be some obobjectionable features that can yet be remedied, but let the bill pass in its present or amended form. The farm-

There was a meeting of the school Home Library and Encyclopædia of young men of the town frequently, Reference." The committee on text books brought up the subject of placed their books in the rooms. There "course of study" and requested each are several hundred well selected teacher to make report of the school works. work done in each room during this winter. A few bills were presented and orders drawn for them.

SCHOOL BOARD.

Discharged the Italians-

MAFIA SYMPATHIZERS AT LOWER LIME RIDGE QUARRIES ARE ORDERED AWAY FROM THE WORKS.

Every traveler up and down the citizens have already contributed liber-Bloomsburg division of the Delaware, ally, and others will be solicited. The Lackawanna and Western Railroad is treasurer, E. B. Tustin, will gladly refamiliar with the great quarries of lime- ceive donations at any time. stone that raise their white faces along The officers are, D. J. Waller Jr. the hills at Lime Ridge. For years President ; W. H. Brooke, vice presipast the bulk of the work at the dent; A. N. Yost, recording secretary; quarries, which are owned by the Silver W. B. Cummings, corresponding sec-Spring Quarry Co., has been done by retary ; E. B. Tustin, treasurer. The a force of Italians, all of whom earned above named officers constitute the good wages and were getting along in Executive Committee. The regular the world a great deal better than business meeting is held on the last many others of their countrymen. Thursday evening of each month. From the time of the murder of Chief | Meetings are held every Sunday after-Hennessey and the arrest of his assas- noon, and every man in town is cordisins at New Orleans these men have ally invited. been each week coutributing the sum of two dollars each to the Maña defence fund, the money being forwarded with the regularity of clock-work as Pursel. It is intended to add hot and the week rolled by.

Crescent City, when eleven of their countrymen were shot down and hung by the mob who took that way of righting the wrong done by the jury, these Lime Ridge Italians have been boast-ing and blowing about what Italy would do about the matter, and making all kinds of threats regarding American institutions and citizens. On Saturday last after getting their week's earnings their language increased in severity, and was so public that it quickly spread through the towns adjoining and occasioned some alarm. The quarry owners were apprised of when the Italians appeared ready for work they were told their services

Y. M. C. A. NOTES. The rooms of the Y. M. C. A. in Hagenbuch, of Iowa visited his Aunt Mrs G. P. Reighard last week. board last Friday evening, where all teachers were present and received audience room for public meetings, their pay for the past month. Prof. and a smaller room for a parlor, and a Harkins reported having nearly fifty reading room and library on the second dollars on hand as net proceeds from floor. The rooms are neatly furnished, the school entertainment, which he and are in charge of B. F. Armstrong, wished to hand over to the treasurer general secretary. Mr. Armstrong to be used in purchasing books for the comes from Pittston, and has had exschool library. A vote of thanks was perience in the work of the Y. M. C. extended to those who assisted in A having been assistant secretary at A. having been assistant secretary at making the entertainment a success. Pittston. The rooms are open daily Miss Hannah Breece presented a val-from 8.30 a. m. to 9.30 p. m. and Mr. uable book to the library entitled "The Armstrong will be glad to meet the The Bloomsburg Library Co. have

The meeting last Sunday afternoon was swell attended There were 93 present. Prof Harkins led. The meeting was opened by selections by town. the orchestra, an organization of young men, led by F. B. Hartman. The singing was by the male choir.

The Association is supported by voluntary contributiions. A number of

The Bible training class has been organized and meets every Thursday evening, and is taught by Samuel cold baths, and a gymnasium to the Since the day of the lynching in the facilities of the association, also an amusement room.

Church had a very pleasant supper at Mrs. P. S. Harman's on last Thursday afternoon. The members of the Society met at the usual hour (2 o'clock) for quilting. When their work was finished, and they were about to leave, Mrs. Harman asked them to the dining-room where an inviting repast awaited them. Among other nice things a beautifully ornamented cake was to be seen, on which the word "Guild" was arranged in red, on the the matter, and yesterday morning white frosting, All present enjoyed the surprise, and concluded, as ever, that Mrs. Harman was a valuable member of the Society.

The fine three story brick building that stands on the south west corner of Main and Centre streets, was erected by John K. Lockard in 1889. It is one of the finest business blocks in

I. MAIER.

The entire ground floor is occupied by I. Maier as a clothing store. Mr. Maier came here from Lock Haven two years ago, and opened a large stock of clothing, hats, caps, neckwear, gents' furnishing goods, &c. He has made many friends, and built up a fine trade. He also furnishes custommade clothing.

M. J. HESS. The front rooms on the second floor are occupied by M. J. Hess, Doctor of Dental Surgery. He is a Doctor of Dental Surgery. graduate of the Philadelphia Dental College, and is provided with all the modern appliances used by his profession. Anaesthetics are administered in the extraction of teeth, and an electrical vibrator is used in filling teeth. Dr. Hess' offices are handsomely furnished.

D. W. KITCHEN.

The second suite of rooms are occupied by D. W. Kitchen as offices. He deals in grain, bark, seeds, flour, coal, salt, fertilizers, &c., and handles a big line of farm implements, among

The "Ladies Guild,' of St. Paul's hurch had a very pleasant supper at Irs. P. S. Harman's on last Thursday ternoon. The members of the So-offices are tastily furnished. His warehouse is near the D. L. & W. Railroad, corner of Sixth and Iron streets. Mr. A. W. Duy is his book-keeper and general assistant, and Mr. B. F. Rice is his traveling salesman.

MISS ARMSTRONG'S SCHOOL.

The third floor is occupied by Miss A. Armstrong's school. Miss Arm-strong is a graduate of the Normal School, and has had many years experience in teaching, both in the public schools and her own private school. She is one of the most successful teachers in Bloomsburg, and instills in her pupils a love for learning, and an interest in their studies which she herself feels. Her school is well supplied with furniture and apparatus. She is ably assisted by Miss Mildred Knorr, a graduate of Vassar College, and by Miss Madge Drinker.

NO. 16

PERSONAL.

C. W. Miller Esq. went to Philadelphia on Monday.

- B. S. Collins Esq. of Dushore was in town on Wednesday.
- Harry Pursel has returned to Bloomsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Wintersteen went to Philadelphia on Monday.

A. G. Nesbitt will locate at Sunbury, having obtained a situation at that place.

Misses Carrie and Louise Jamison have returned home, after an absence of several weeks in Detroit.

J. M. Staver who has been suffering with the grip for the past three weeks, is attending to business again.

R. R. Little Esq. spent a few days in Philadelphia and Atlantic City the past week.

Col. Freeze, C. G. Barkley, B. F. Zarr and C. R. Buckalew are attending Supreme Court in Philadelphia this week.

John V. Logan has accepted the position of Teller in the Farmers' National Bank and has moved with his family to Bloomsburg. They occupy W. H. Snyder's property on Fourth Street.

A little son has gladdened the household of A. H. Bloom.

Casper Kressler has ice cream for sale every evening.

I. Maier has put up some new awnings over his show windows.

Allen & Armstrong are selling shad. They are also receiving green truck twice a week. Some very fine oranges handled by them came from the Florida grove of our townsman C. C. Trench.

A boy named Kauffman died at Sunbury last week from eating wild parsnips. He thought it was artichoke. It is not safe to eat roots of any kind unless one knows positively what it is.

W. H. Brooke & Co. received the contract for papering the room for the new bank. The paper hanging and painting is done by E. R. Kester. Brooke & Co. have a fine line of wall paper in stock.

The newly elected town Council met last Thursday evening for the purpose of making their annual appointments, but in the absence of Dr. Willits who was sick, the appointments were deferred until all members of the Council were present.

consult them.

Horace Creasy has purchased the Espy ferry, and island. He will run the ferry and truck the island, and the public will be accommodated to the fullest extent in his power. He purchased of David Geisinger.

How many of our citizens have a book that they could present to the public school library? Let all who can, give it to one of the directors before May 1st. A public acknowledgment will be made at the next meeting, May 8th.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Mr. William S. Rishton to Miss Mina Pernypacker of Philadelphia on the 22nd inst. at the home of the bride. Rev. W. C. Leverett will assist in the ceremony.

Ex-prothonotary W. H. Snyder has opened a law office on the second floor of the COLUMBIAN building, and proposes to devote his time to the practice of his profession. He has many friends through the county, and will no doubt build up a large practice.

Mrs. Emma Herring and Mrs. G. P. Frymier will attend General Synod at Canton Ohio, next month. The former as delegate for the Women's Missionary Society of Bloomsburg and the latter as the Synodical delegate of Rev. Han the Women's Missionary Society of Susquehanna Synod.

J. K. Pensyl lost a horse by an accident last Friday. Mr Pensyl was at the Philadelphia and Reading depot, near which he had the horse tied. An engine on the track near by blew off steam. The horse becoming frightened made a sudden jump and broke its leg. The horse was shot later in the day.

The financial embarassment that has overtaken J. R. Schuyler & Co. is a subject of almost universal sympathetic comment. Mr. Schuyler is an energetic and conscientious business man, and the causes that led to his ago Sunday. embarassment were beyond his control. His large store has been a credthat it will not be permanently closed. Bloomsburg 20 cents.

ers do not propose to be gulled anothsided taxation. It may be well who could obey and respect the laws enough for members of the Senate to of America. The Italians took the er two years through unequal and onetake notice.

WALLER.

Mrs. Maggie Hirleman has been visiting relatives and friends in the southern part of the county. Miss Ella McHenry and Clarence Butt have finished their schools and have gone to attend the Bloomsburg Normal. They are very successful teachers.

Died in Jordon twp., Lycoming county, April 10, 1891, Christopher Franchman at the age of 71 years, 2 mos., 10 days. The funeral which ty largely attended. Rev. S. I. Shortess preached the funeral sermon from Galatians 6: 7-8.

Spring has now commenced in make a fine article. earnest and as it is getting quite late the farmers are very busy.

VICINITY OF CAMBRA.

The farmers are busy breaking the ground for corn and oats.

Mrs. George Gearhart will move to Benton this week.

Mr. Webster Harvey is very ill The Drs. say there are no hopes of Rev. Hamalin and his wife have ments. been very sick since the annual conference.

The winter grain is suffering present from the severe weather. Mr. Laubach, the merchant of New Columbus, has moved above Cambra, where he has constructed a small store. There seems to be several sick persons at present about this place.

Rev. P. A. Heilman delivered a very interesting sermon last Sunday morning on the subject of Sabbath observance.

A number of arrests have been made of those who attended the cockfight near Northumberland, a week

Pure maple sugar is sold at Jamison it to the town, and it is to be hoped City for 18 cents per pound and at were no longer needed, that the quarry would hereafter be worked by men affair sullenly and left the works uttering threats and vowing vengeance on some of those citizens whom they beheved had urged their discharge,-

NEW CIGAR FACTORY.

The new firm of Howe. Williams & Co. have opened their cigar factory in the basement of Clark & Son's store, on Centre street. The firm is composed of Fred Williams, for some time past connected with the United States Express company here, and well known as an energetic young business man, was at that place on Sunday was pret- and W. L. Howe of Wilkesbarre. They have commenced the manufacture of cigars, but have none ready for the market yet. They propose to

> Edward Moyer finished an apprentceship of three years in this office on the 15th inst. He has mastered the art and is a rapid and accurate compositor. For the past six months he has devoted his time largely to job work and has acquired a good knowledge of that branch of the trade. We can cheerfully recommend him as a young man of good character, and a printer of more than ordinary acquire-

Winner, Hartzell & Co., successors to Baker & McBride, are pushing business at their furniture store, corner of Main and West streets. They have a large and varied stock of furniture to suit all customers. G. G. Baker is their manager, and they employ a competent man in the upholstering and repairing department. Funeral directing and embalming is one of their specialties.

Ellis Young was indicted by the grand jury of Luzerne county last week Wednesday for shooting Lieut. Robinson, The trial has not taken place.

John Freas' property was sold at auction on Saturday for $980. W. R. Kocher was the purchaser. J. S. Williams cried the sale.

RESOLUTIONS.

ORANGEVILLE, PA., April 5 1891. Resolutions of condolence on the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Kisner.

WHEREAS, God in his wisdom has called to himself, out of the home, Sabbath School, community and church, an indulgent mother, a faithful scholar, one of its best citizens and christian member, to enjoy the bliss of immortality.

WHEREAS, Her place in the Sabbath school can never be filled, there-

Resolved, That in the death of our sister we will endeavor to hold in remembrance her example, and try to imitate that we may be ready also when the message of death shall be sent for us. Resolved, That, to the sorrowing family we tender our sympathy, and commend them to Him who is able and willing to heal all our sorrows. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the county papers for publication, also a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

M. E. S. S. Class No 11, MRS. BELLAS, (Teacher.)

Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Navil were called upon to mourn the loss of their daughter Maggie about 10 years old on last Saturday evening the 11th inst. at Lime Ridge. They are from Dan-ville and are boating on the Susquehanna canal, and tied up for over Sun day at Lime Ridge, and she being out in town calling on some of their friends did not get in till dark as it was a very rainy evening, and it is supposed when jumping from canal bridge down on the boat she missed the boat and jumped into the canal and drowned, She was buried at Lime Ridge on Spring began in earnest Monday morning. The sun came out bright and warm, which started everybody to cleaning their yards and overturning the soil for planting garden seeds.

Mrs. Michael Walter has improved her house by having a new roof put

The Ben Hur tableaux will be given in the Opera House, May 1st for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Mrs. Bradford under whose direction the tableaux are produced is accompanied by a Dramatic Reader who will read from "Ben Hur" a description of each tableaux before it is presented. There will be songs and a chant by a well known soprano and a male quartette.

Instrumental music will be furnished by the Bloomsburg Orchestra. Tick-ets for sale at Dentler's store, 35 and 50 cents.

An amicable adjustment has been made between the Phila. & Read. and the B. & S. railroads for the handling of freight. The Reading however still uses its freight depot at Fifth street as a terminus. It is not at all unlikely that they could again arrange with the B. & S. to run to Main street, if they so desire.

The annual convention of the Columbia County Sabbath School Association will be held this year (D. V.) in the Benton M. E. Church, May 27 and 28. This is an advance notice that you may plan to attend. Programs will be mailed in due time. A. W. Spear, Sec.

Daniel Fornwald, an old and respected citizen of Pine township, died at his home in Unityville on Wednesday noon. He was the father of Harry Fornwald of this town. A more extended notice will appear next week.

It is reported that the janitor of the public schools at Berwick hung himself on Wednesday. He was found in Mrs Jackson's barn.

The Junior Mechanics, an order organized recently, has a membership of 35, and is prospering.

Maggie Parks, daughter of Ephraim Parks, died at the residence of her brother-in-law, Glasco Cameron on Tuesday afternoon, after a brief illness. Her age was 28 years. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Francis Lafountaine, the ferryman, will have ready by May 1st six boats for pleasure riding or fishing. The boats will all be first class. The Susquehanna river is a beautiful stream or riding and no one is more accomodating than Mr. Lafountaine.

Commissioner's Clerk Bodine, was in Philadelphia on Sunday to visit his wife who is under treatment at St. Mary's hospital. He found her doing well and received much encouragement from her attending physician, who thought she might be able to be brought home in a few weeks. Mr. Bodine took his little girl along with him.

The following named persons were elected as officers of the Lutheran Church last Wednesday evening : Elders, John Wolf, 1 year; W. J. Bidleman, 2 years; C. A. Kleim, 3 years. Deacons, W. H. Brooke, A. H. Bloom, 2 years; H. J. Kesty, 3 years. They were installed Sunday morning, and will meet Friday evening for organization, when a president, secretary and treasurer will be chosen from their number.

A telegram was received here on Wednesday morning announcing the death of Mrs. C. C. Mendenhall at her home in Martinsburg, Va. Her daughter, Miss Rose Mendenhall, started for home the same day.

C. P. Sloan has received a lot of the Cortland wagons. They are well made, and far exceed his expectations. He has buggies and two seated spring wagons, and more coming. The prices are astonishingly low.

The remains of Mrs. Meldon, mother of John Meldon formerly of this town, were brought here for burial last Wednesday, on the noon train form Mill Hollow.

Sunday afternoon.

on