Rev. Galloway performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. G. B. Dechant of Catawissa. After partaking of a sumptuous repast the bride and groom took the P. & R. train at 3.30 p. m. for a short wedding trip. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and costly gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Nuss returned to Mainville on Saturday and were given a grand reception by their friends, in their home.

Our congratulations are extended to the happy couple.

THE HOUSE NUMBERING ORDINANCE.

At a meeting of the town council held May 7th, the following action was taken, as appears by the minutes;

"Messrs. McHale and Weissinger appear and ask the privilege of num-bering the houses and buildings of the town of Bloomsburg with no expense to the town, they to have sole right of A ministerial and Sunday school supplying the numbers and placing in-Convention will be held in the Evan-dex boards at corners of streets. At the same meeting an ordinance was passed regulating the numbering of houses in which it is provided that Wyoming county farmers report that the secretary shall furnish any property owner with the appropriate number for his property, on application

This action was premature, for the Council has no power to give to any one the exclusive right to supply numbers. Owing to complaints that have been made to members of the council, President Harman has notified McHale and Weissinger to proceed no further with the numbering. If the

Mr. Knouse denies any connection with the arrest of Ellis Young.

BENTON, PA., May 18th 1891. EDITOR COLUMBIAN:

Dear Sir: I would like to have be so truthful, may become as famous permission to publish a few lines in as George Washington yet. your worthy columns. In order to correct an error that has been circulated in and throughout this neighborhood, I publish the following letter: SHERIFF'S OFFICE, LUZERNE CO.

WILKES BARRE, PA. May 12th, 1891. Mr. Knouse, Dear Sir: I think you have been misinformed as to your name being down as a witness; as I cannot find anything of it on record here. I think it is your brother instead of you.

Yours Respectfully, R. P. ROBINSON

Now the above letter ought to be satisfactory proof to show that I was not implicated in any way, shape or form in the Ellis Young arrest. I have been censured for being implicated in the matter; but I defy any person or persons in either Luzerne or Columbia Counties to make affidavit to my being in any way, shape or form whatever implicated in the Young matter. There has been word circulated that I had been with Lutz to Wilkes Barre, in the matter of Ellis Young, and any one that says so is a branded falsifier; as I had never spoken to Lutz or any one else in regard to the arrest. If people would take the time to read our county papers they would be able to know who the prosecutors were. Now this statement with the above Sheriff's letter ought to be sufficient evidence to convince any rational being of my innocence of the matter, and if the above is nt satisfactory, they can call for No. 2.

Respectfully, &c., ALEXANDER KNOUSE.

DEATH OF MRS. STROUP.

Mrs. Esther Stroup, wife of the late David Stroup, died at her residence in Bloomsburg last Saturday morning af er a lingering illness from dropsy, She and her husband were among the early settlers of Bloomsburg. They were members of the Lutheran Church, when the present building was first built, nearly 40 years ago.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at ten o'clock, the body be ing taken to the Lutheran Church. Rev. E. A. Sharretts, who was the first pastor in the present church building, began the services, relating incidents of the building of the church and the interest manifested by the deceased. Rev. F. P. Manhart, a for-mer pastor followed with remarks showing the liberality of the deceased in furthering the work of evangelizing the world. Rev. P. A. Heilman, the present pastor, concluded the services bearing tribute to the faith of the deceased Her desire seemed to be to accumulate money to leave behind for the use of the poor and needy.

POULTRY NOTES.

No. 17.

Try and keep young turks from getting wet till they begin to show the red, after that they can generally take care of themselves.

Turkeys can stand severe hardships in the way of weather etc., when old, but while young are very tender, and need good care.

Then in case of showers it is easier to keep them from getting wet.

Make friends with your turkeys, don't dog or drive them on to your neighbors farm, as some have been

If you can't raise turkeys, and be at peace with your neighbors, better far leave the turkey business alone.

Mr. Blaine.

SAID TO BE SERIOUSLY SICK—HIS NERVES AND CONSTITUTION OVERSTRAINED AND ILLNESS FOLLOWS.

The friends of Secretary Blaine in Washington are very much alarmed concerning his condition, and it is believed both by them and friends of the a much sicker man than the state-

When he was first taken ill it was rumored that he was stricken with vertigo, but Walter Damrosch promptly supplied contradiction, stating that it was a simple attack of indigestion, asserting that Mr. Blaine was advanced in years, having been 61 last January, and that therefore a slight indiscretion, an ordinary cold or something of that sort would quickly disturb or upsehim. Later Mr. Damrosch practically admitted that the attack was not so slight as he had at first thought or stated and that Mr. Blaine was confined to his bed with the chances of staying there an indefinite time although he "might be about any day."

A gentleman who is a friend of the Damrosch family and Secretary Blaine, said that the Secretary is a very ill man and that it might be a long time before he recovered his vigor. He has done a good deal of work, and his 50c a bottle. For sale by Moyer nerves and constitution have suffered Bros., Wholesale and retail druggists, in consequence He added that it in consequence He added that it was by no means a certainty when Mr. Blaine would go back to Washington, for the reason that he was unable to get out of bed. Even if he recovers sufficiently to resume his duties he will have to be very careful. "It grieves me very much," said the gentleman, "but I do not think I exaggerate when I say it is very probable that Mr. Blaine will never recover his strength entirely."
