THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1891.

TO DELINQUENTS.

All persons indebted to THE COLUMBIAN on subscription for one year or more, will please settle their accounts before July 1st. Our terms are $1.00 a year paid in advance; $1.50 a year if not paid in advance. After July 1st, if it becomes necessary for us to go to any trouble in making collections, all subscriptions in arrears will be charged at the rate of $1.50 a year. Pay up now and save money.

It has been decided by the Kitchen M. E. Church, Wellersville to meet on June 4th to work and put the Kitchen Cemetery in good order. All who are interested in the cemetery are requested to come and help.

President Marsh of the broken Keystone Bank of Philadelphia, has disappeared, and his bail has offered a reward for his capture. City Treasurer Bardsley has resigned, and made an assignment. Just now the Quaker City appears to be having a parrot of a time of it financially.

A level headed newspaper man has described the "pass" and its emoluments as follows: One of the beauties and charms of an editor's life is in his deadheading on all occasions. No one who has ever feasted on the sweets of that bliss can begin to take in the glory of its happiness. He does $100 worth of advertising for a railroad, gets a "pass" for a year, rides $25 worth and then is looked upon as a deadhead or a half-blown deadhead. He also "puffs" a troupe $10 worth and gets fifty cents in complimentary, and is thus passed in "free." If the hall is crowded he is begrudged the room he occupies, for if his complimentary were paying tickets the troupe would be so much in pocket.

He blows and puffs a church festival to any desired extent, and does the poster printing at half rates, and rarely gets your thank you for it. It goes as part of his duty as an editor. He does more work gratuitously for the town and community than all the rest of the population put together and gets cursed for it all, while in many instances where a man donates a few dollars to a Fourth of July celebration, base ball club, or church, he is gratefully remembered. Oh, it is a sweet thing to be an editor! He passes "free," you know.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION.

The President

Of the Bank of Waverly, Iowa, says: Sulphur Bitters saved my life. For ten years I suffered from Catarrh and Liver Complaint; I lost forty-five pounds and growing worse rapidly. I had lost all faith in medicine, but hearing your Bitters so well recommended, I gave them a trial. Six bottles cured me.—Smith P. Hunt, Waverly, Iowa. 5-29-21.

Coxe's Deal With the Reading.

The Philadelphia & Reading R. R. Co. has made a contract with Coxe Bros. & Co., to run for thirty years, by which the Reading secures all their anthracite tonnage, amounting to about one and a half tons a year. Coxe Bros. have agreed to build about forty-one miles of railroad, the greater part of which is now completed, and the Reading is to build ten miles to a point near Lofty on its Catawissa branch to a connection with Coxe's lines. The larger portion of this tonnage will be transported to Port Reading and Port Richmond. The first shipment under this contract will be made over the Reading line on October 1. His contract and the contract lately made with the Pennsylvania Anthracite Coal Co., will add about 2,000,000 tons per annum to the Reading's anthracite tonnage.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Man, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

ORANGE TOWNSHIP Sunday School Convention.

The Orange township District Sunday School convention met in the Union church in Orangeville May 16, 1891 at ten o'clock a. m. and opened with prayer.

The convention was welcomed by Rev. A. Houtz in a neat and appropriate manner, and responded to by Dr. R. Hamill Davis in happy and well chosen words.

The business of the convention consisted in the reading of the minutes of the last meeting of convention, election of officers, appointing of committees, reports of delegates, report of Treasurer, and discussion of the different topics assigned.

Reports of Delegates were interesting, showing the comparative increase of membership, and in the amounts contributed. In all the Schools there seemed to be increase and improvement, in number of volumes of their libraries and all the literature of the schools. A good showing was made in the average attendance of scholars and teachers.

The committee on Resolutions was instructed to formulate the following as the sense of this convention:

Resolved. That these Sunday school conventions exert a good influence in removing denominational prejudice and in fostering christian love.

Resolved. That the Pastor is by virtue of his office, the general superintendent over all the Sunday schools in his charge. And that it is his duty to inspect them and counsel in the selection of officers, teachers and Sunday school literature and music, and to urge the claims of the Sunday school upon the parents and congregations.

Resolved. That Parents when possible should attend the Sunday school as their interests are allied with that of their children, as the tendency of scholars, especially the boys, is to drift away from the Sunday school when they grow up, and as the workers in the Sunday school need the encouragement of parents.

Resolved. That the teacher teaches for eternity. That the true end of teaching is practical christianity. And the necessary qualifications of Sunday School teachers are: He must be well versed in scripture. He must be a sincere christian. And he must have tact.

Resolved. That kind attention on the part of the teacher, the persuasive influence of the parents, and the general attractiveness of the Sunday school will contribute much to good attendance of the scholars.

Resolved. That teaching in the Sunday school is not optional work but obligatory on the teacher as a christian, as a church member, and as a moral citizen.

Resolved. That the Sunday school should not support itself, but be supported by the congregation, and the contributions of the Sunday school should be purely for benevolent purposes thereof cultivating the spirit of benevolence among the children.

Resolved. That the Sunday school is not for the young exclusively but should be considered as the congregational meeting on Sabbath to study the word of God.

Resolved. That our thanks are hereby tendered to the good people of Orangeville for their kind hospitality and to the Union church for the use of the same.

A. HOUTZ, H. A. STRAUB, E. A. SHARETT'S } Committee.

Convention adjourned to meet in the M. E. church in Orangeville at the time fixed by the committee on time and place of meeting.

JAMES B. HARMON, Secretary.

WALLER.

Samuel Yorks and wife of Texas are visiting his brother John Yorks of this place, who has been sick for some time and is now failing very fast. Before coming here they visited some of their children in Michigan, from which State they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gearhart Kile.

Charles Everhart arrived from Philadelphia last week and is visiting his parents and friends at this place. He is a machinist and will go back to the city in a few days.

There will be a meeting at the Union church on Saturday evening to see about holding a festival in this place in the near future. Festivals are very nice places for amusement but as a general rule we believe they should be held, if held at all for individual gain and let those who wish to support any good cause give the money directly to the cause and in country districts at least, we think it would save a great deal of ill feelings.

The rains we had last week were very much needed and a little more would help the plowing. Cut worms are said to be cutting off the corn and garden plants around here at a great rate.

LUMBER FOR SALE.

EAST BENTON.

Miss Minnie Bittenbender of Grand Rapids, Michigan, was the guest of Hon. James McHenry's family at Cambra last Friday when she exhibited some of her elocutionary powers. Happening in town on the above day, we were called in to witness her ability, and we were delighted with the good treat. The parlor was filled with eager and amused listeners. The young lady is of an amiable and social nature, and the title of one of her recitations was "Katarina's Visit to New York". Her father was born in the Cambra hotel, and it must be a source of gratification to Miss Bittenbender to have visited the place of her father's birth.

The rains last week have resuscitated vegetation and all nature seems smiling.

Bruce Cary has remodeled, improved and otherwise beautified the Cambra hotel, and he is obliging, clever, and a congenial landlord.

The traveling public will find first class accommodations when calling upon him for enjoyment, besides he is democratic to the core and knows how to pitch quits.

Bowman Crawford rebuilds the barn of the late Runyan estate which was demolished by the cyclone.

Use the Averill Paint and increase the value of your buildings and improve their appearance. It's the best and cheapest paint, because it outwears all others. Thousands of testimonials to prove it. Handsomest paint too; no other has so beautiful a gloss, or finish. Been in use 25 years. Every gallon guaranteed to give satisfaction. Sample card of fashionable tints, free A. L. Hilton, Antwerp, New York. May-1-8t-R.

Go to C. S. Furman for High grade, Champion Machinery Oil, better than Lard or Sperm Oil for Mowing and Threshing machines, Lawn mowers &c. May 8-4 t.
