What Gains.
Senator Quay himself thinks it likely he will resign the national chairmanship next week. "It is probable" that he will do so, he says, "but not certain." Well there is nothing certain in politics. But it really looks as if Mr. Quay intends to go.
Mr. Quay, whatever he may pretend, does not leave this position voluntarily. He goes because he must. He is scorned by the better men of his party. He is despised by the fitter men who should be the party leaders. His retirement has been demanded by them and party unity can only be maintained by his withdrawal. He goes out at the back door. And he goes out because he is kicked out.
No matter if Mr. Quay did elect Mr. Harrison. No matter if John Wanamaker did raise the money Quay corruptly expended. There must be a scapegoat and Quay having already assumed many burdens of his own must bear the ugly loads that belong to others. The men who contributed to the Quay corruption fund, the man who gleefully bore it from Philadelphia to Washington, they all may remain without blushing, but the man who spent it and won with it must go.
When he does go John S. Clarkson is to succeed him. Does decency gain thereby? Is political purity aided by the change? Will honesty in public place be more respected by Clarkson than by Quay? To these several inquiries a negative response must be made, unless Clarkson reformed while abroad.—Patriot.

The Crowning Achievement.
THE GRANDEST SPECTACLE OF THE AGE WILL BE PRESENTED IN SCRANTON.
Never before has Scranton been able to announce such an attraction as will be presented within its gates for the first time on Tuesday evening, July 28, continuing every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings. The arrangements were made so promptly that comparatively few people knew what was going on until they heard that Paine's gorgeous historical production of "The Last Days of Pompeii" had been secured for a short season. It is an important event to the people within a reasonable distance of Scranton. They will now have an opportunity to witness at popular prices, the grandest display human ingenuity has devised. To accomplish this required a guarantee of $20,000 at the outset, which amount was furnished by some of Scranton's well known business men. By this stroke of enterprise, residents of adjoining cities, and adjacent States can enjoy this magnificent production to show the "Last Days of Pompeii" only in the largest cities, but all the railroads centering in Scranton will issue tickets at excursion rates—one fare for the round trip—while the admission fee has been fixed at the low price of 50 cents. This has been done to place a visit to the great exhibition within the reach of the humblest. And it is quite certain the immense attendance will demonstrate the wisdom of the act.
Tickets, 50 cents. Reserved seats, 75 cents. Seats in private boxes, $1. Can be secured ten days in advance of each exhibition. Single fare for round trip on all roads. See advertisement.

Do You Cough?
Don't delay. Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. It will cure your coughs and colds. It will cure sore throat or a tickling in the throat. It will cure pains in the chest, it will cure influenza and bronchitis, and all diseases pertaining to the Lungs because it is a pure Balsam. Hold it to the light and see how clear and thick it is. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Large bottles 50c and $1.

The Farmer Judge.
HIS DECISION IN A MORTGAGE CASE MAY GET HIM INTO TROUBLE.

A dispatch from Topeka, Kansas, says: Judge G. W. Mc Kay of Harper county, the Alliance judge who was to have gone to Ann Harbor to study law after he was elected to office, is interfering with the supreme court, and may get himself into trouble. He has issued orders which have set aside the orders of the supreme court. Proceedings were commenced in a mortgage foreclosure case in Harper county last January against Albert Honeywell, a person of unsound mind. B. A. Burr was appointed receiver to take charge of the property June 12. Honeywell, by his guardian, asked to have the receiver removed, and the farmer judge granted the petition. The mortgagee appealed the case to the supreme court, and Judge Horton, on filing of a good and sufficient bond, ordered that the receiver again be placed in charge of the property pending the hearing of the case at the September term.
Honeywell then again petitioned Judge McKay to oust the receiver, and he issued an order to that effect and turned it over to the sheriff. Receiver Burr declined to obey it, and he was brought before the judge on a charge of contempt, convicted, fined $50 and sentenced to jail until the fine was paid. He declined to pay the fine and instituted habeas corpus proceedings in the supreme court. A temporary writ was granted and Burr was released on $1,500 bond. The case will be heard at the September term.
