ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY AUGUST 21, 1891.

F. P. Davis has his cider mill in Mt. Pleasant township in good working order, and is prepared to make cider at one-half cent a gallon 2t.

There will be a festival held on the afternoon and evening of August 29, in the grove of Mr. E. M. Laubach near Forks, Columbia County, Pa.

"Why, now I cannot get enough to eat," says one lady who formerly had no appetite, but took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in the basement of the Presbyterian Church next Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. All members are kindly urged to be present.

The fifty eighth annual session of the Pennsylvania Christian Conference will be held at Rohrsburg, Columbia County, Pa., Aug. 26 to 29, 1891, and preaching over Lord's Day. All are invited to attend each session.

A. S. KRAMER, Sec'y.

If the ladies would abandon cosmetics and more generally keep their blood pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, naturally fair complexions would be the rule instead of the exception, as at present. Pure blood is the best beautifier.

The Mifflinville Hotel is for sale, on account of the present owner wishing to go into other business. This stand is one of the best in the county, and has a good patronage. A good chance for some one who knows how to conduct a hotel. Address John Knies, Mifflinville, Pa.

Dr. Meeker's Medicines are pure and a sure cure for whatever the claim. Lung tonic for colds. Speedy relief for pains, internal and external. Blackberry Cordial for bowel complaints, for young and old. Every bottle guaranteed. For sale by all druggists. Manufactured by H. C. & J. A. Olmstead, Williamsport, Pa. All put up in 25 and 50 cts bottles. 6-19-91 yr.

The annual Harvest Home will be held as follows: On Thursday Aug. 27, Hilday at 2.30 p. m., and Orangeville 7.30 p. m.; on Friday Aug. 28, St. James at 10 a. m., and Zion 2.30 p. m., and on Sunday Aug. 30, Briar-creek at 2.30 p. m. The following ministers will be present on Thursday and Friday: Rev. D. W. Ebbert of Milton, Rev. G. S. Sorber of Watson-town, and Rev. D. E. Schoedler of Turbotville. All are invited.

A. HOUTZ, Pastor.

ESPY.

Samuel McKamey is having his house painted in beautiful colors. Barney Case is doing the work and doing it well.

Dr. Redeker is enlarging his drug-store.

Luther Glaze is again able to walk, having almost recovered from his affliction.

Esq. Howell has been kept busy of late, with law-suits. It is an ill wind that blows no one good.

Our advice to farmers is to dig their potatoes early and put them in a dry place until the cold weather comes, to save them from rotting.

The S. S. picnic at New Columbia, last Saturday week was a grand success. The only regret was the absence of father Smith, on account of sickness to whose kindness we are much indebted for many pleasures of the day. It is to be hoped that he will soon recover from his sickness. Addresses were made by Rev. Glaze, and Mr. Spear, the Secretary of the Col. Co. S. S. Convention, and also by Judge Ikler whose presence and cheering words helped to gladden the hearts of all. He spoke of the child's influence very tenderly, and amused the children with some slight of hand performances.

The festival at Canby on Saturday evening was one of the greatest of the season. The proceeds were over $86.00, and it was a very pleasant, social time for every one.

On next Saturday evening Rev. Glaze will resume his young people's meetings at Canby to which all are invited. Considerable attention will be given to singing under the leadership of the pastor.

ALL IS MIRACLE.

Where the cause is unknown, a wonderful cure of scrofulous and specific poisons by the Cetus Blood Cure seem like miracles because science cannot explain how the blood is purified; but it cures those terrible diseases all the same. No failures and no relapses.

Its lessons learned, its laurels won, In triumph, with rejoicings great, May we reach Heaven's Golden Gate.

H. G. JAYNE

The gate was then opened by Rev. John Horning, Keeper, with a guard on either side to see that none but those worthy should pass through. The class of '91 were the first to enter, and as the class proceeded to the auditorium, followed by a host of fellow Chautauquans, the flower girls lining either side of the way scattered their treasures.

Prof. E. K. Richardson addressed the Assembly, taking as his text C. L. S. C., and making it stand for Culture, Love and Sociability connected. In a few brief remarks he showed that this was the aim of the true Chautauquan, and could lead to a happy, successful life.

Miss Edith Barton read the class poem, a beautiful production, written by Margaret E. Sangster.

Letters of greeting from Dr. Jesse L. Hurlbut and Dr. John H. Vincent, and Dr. Edward E. Hale were read as follows:

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y. Aug. 3rd, 1891. To The Class of '91 at Mountain Grove Assembly,

Dear fellow students: From the Chautauqua, which is the mother of us all, I send greeting to the "Olympians" at the Mountain Grove Assembly. You have run well, and you receive the reward, of which your diploma is only the testimonial. You have obtained as the result of your four years effort, the crown of knowledge, which shall not soon fade. I congratulate you, one and all, upon the purpose with which you began, and the perseverance with which you have completed your course of study. May the Master of us all, our exemplar and our king, crown you with eternal glory and honor.

Sincerely your friend,

(Signed) JESSE L. HURLBUT.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y. Aug. 4th, 1891.

My Dear Friends and Fellow-Chautauquans:

I am sorry not to be able to join you on Recognition Day. I am sorry not to be able to give you a long letter of encouragement and advice for that occasion, but, in lieu of speech and lengthy communication, accept this word of salutation.

All hail to the Chautauquans of Mountain Grove Camp!

The new year begins a course of study more interesting, and of greater practical value, than anything the C. L. S. C. has ever attempted. We begin in October with American History, American Literature, and American Institutions. The Chautauquan will be full of American papers. At this time, the beginning of the Fifth century after the discovery of America, we need to give special attention to our American civilization, its origin, its development, the divine elements in it, and the main duties devolving upon us the outgrowth of its ideas and aims. The class of '95 will take, therefore, for its first year, American History. The second year it will take Greek History, and through the Chautauquan study the relations of the Greek civilization to our American civilization. The third year it will do the same in connection with English History and Literature. Thus the class of '95 will take up the American idea in the light of all the civilization. Dr. Herbert Adams, of Johns Hopkins University, will be the President of the class of '95, and Miss Jane Meade Welsh, of Buffalo, N. Y., the Secretary. We want twenty thousand members in that class. Give us a hearty endorsement at Mountain Grove, and enroll the largest class for '95 that you have ever had on your lists.

With greetings to all the members on this happy occasion, and with an earnest prayer that the Father may ever "dwell in the midst" while you "study the Word and the works of God," I exhort you "never to be discouraged," and in all your life work to "look up and to lift up."

Ever faithfully yours,

(Signed) JOHN H. VINCENT.

ROXBURY, MASS., Aug. 5th, 1891.

Dear Fellow-Chautauquans: I remember with great pleasure the Chautauqua day I spent with your circles. I am glad to see good accounts of them from month to month. I think we should be satisfied with nothing less than the extending of our system of Home Education, or something like it, into every family. The higher education, as it is called, is not an aristocratic privilege for a few favored people of the higher classes, so called. One man can enjoy it as much as another.

In proportion as it is found in every house, there will be less drunkenness, less gambling, less misery of all the kinds which are fed by idleness, ignorance and selfishness.

Truly yours,

In His Name,

EDWARD E. HALE.

Diplomas were conferred by Mr. Myron I. Low to the graduating class with an address of commendation and encouragement.

Mr. Low also read a very excellent poem, by Mrs. H. G. Jayne, entitled "A Plea for Chautauqua," after which Mr. Gearhart read the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, and a copy of which the secretary was requested to send to Mrs. Jayne: MOUNTAIN GROVE CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY, Aug. 8th, 1891.

Whereas it has come to our knowledge that Mrs. H. G. Jayne, of the class of 1886, who was the first and efficient secretary of the Mountain Grove Chautauqua Assembly, is now, and has been for several months confined to her room, and is therefore unable to participate with us in the Chautauqua work;

And whereas in the past years her words of cheer, and her wise counsel have materially aided in making the Chautauqua movement a success here, and her poems of to-day still show her interest and her love for that good work;

THAT she be restored to perfect health, and to her accustomed public place with those who "Study the Word and Works of God."

(Signed) MRS. I. H. SEESHOLTZ,

Secretary.

During these exercises, Miss Ruth Thompson sang most beautifully, "Just as I am," and the Quartette several selections that were much appreciated.

The Round Table at 7:30 was very delightful, and the question, "How has Chautauqua Readings Benefitted You?" brought forth many good answers, chief of which was: It gives a taste for the best class of literature, and adds much happiness to the life of the reader.

The last feature of the program, the Camp Fire, with its luscious roasting ears was by no means the least enjoyable. Everybody enjoyed it, and especially the boys, who with long hooked sticks were ready for the corn long before the ear had reached the fire.

Music by the Quartet added much to the entertainment of the large number assembled.

Ere the crowd dispersed the Annual Chautauqua picnic was announced, and all Chautauqua and friends urged to attend, Aug. 27, 1891 at Rupert, Pa.

Officers for the ensuing year are as follows:

Myron I. Low, President; Dr. Michael, John C. Peifer, J. J. Owens, Vice Presidents; Mrs. Seesholtz, Secretary; Z. T. Fowler, Treasurer.

Must be Avoided,

or you buy at your own risk—anything purporting to be Dr. Pierce's medicines, sold by unauthorized dealers at less than the regular price. You risk the getting of old bottles refilled, dilutions of the genuine medicines, imitations, and substitutes.

To prevent all this, and to protect the public from fraud and imposition, the genuine guaranteed medicines of Dr. R. V. Pierce are now sold only through druggists, regularly authorized as agents, and at the following long-established prices:

Golden Medical Discovery (for Liver Blood, and Lung Diseases), $1.00 Favorite Prescription (for woman's weakness and ailments), $1.00 Pleasant Pellets (for the liver), 25c. Comp. Ext. Smart-Weed, 50c. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, 50c. If money is an object, you can save it by being sure of the genuine medicines. You will have to pay the above prices but in the end Dr. Pierce's remedies are the cheapest you can buy, for you pay only for the good you get. They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or you have your money back. "Value received, or no pay,"—you can't get these terms with any other medicines, at any price.

POULTRY NOTES.

No. 28.

Go into the poultry business, but don't go into it on some one else's money.

There is money in the chicken business, but it takes a good bit of attention.

And the work is no small item; if you work for a dollar a day you are expected to earn that dollar.

Don't expect to invest a few dollars in poultry, then loaf around and expect your birds to earn your money. If you do you may expect disappointment.

The United States does not produce eggs enough to supply the markets. Large quantities are shipped annually from foreign countries. So there is no danger of glutting the market.

By getting good stock and using judgment and common sense and giving them proper time and attention, anyone can make a success of poultry raising.

A. W. CONNOR'S ANSWER TO R. H. SINGER.

EDITORS OF THE COLUMBIAN.

GENTLEMEN:—Mr. R. H. Singer in his answer to D. M. Kinter has used my name and I wish to make a few statements. Singer says: "A. W. Connor claiming to be State Evangelist, who is known to have told several malicious falsehoods about me to the elders at Stillwater and others—as I have the documents to show—has done this wicked work, &c."

The facts are these.

1. I am State Evangelist and in keeping with my rights and duties I warned the officers of churches against R. H. Singer. I affirmed that he was an immoral man and unworthy of the confidence of christian people.

2. The Stillwater elders foolishly disregarded my warning, and when I offered to prove to them that I had spoken truthfully, they refused to hear me and said they had serious charges to prefer against me.

3. I met the officers and after they had in writing specified their charges (as they called them) I asked who was to form the tribunal that was to try me. I was informed that the elders, who were both witnesses and accusers, claimed the right to be my judges also. The claim was so very absurd that I could scarcely believe my ears.

4. I offered to submit the case to a board of arbitrators composed of three christian gentlemen. For some time the Stillwater officers refused to do this; after a season, however, they agreed to submit their charges to a board of arbitrators provided I would choose my man from Columbia county churches. This I refused to do and to prevent any further delay I chose Allen B. Philpott of Philadelphia, as my arbitrator, and I said that I would meet them when the board was completed in its organization.

5. The officers of Stillwater then declared that they would meet July 9, 1891, and try me and publish me. I placed my protest against any such action and left them. Before the time named I sent in my written protest to their acting as accusers, witnesses and judges, denying their jurisdiction over me, and again I offered to meet a board of arbitrators and named my man. Since that time I have never received a line from Stillwater officers.

Now Mr. Singer says "he has documents" and he has written to parties that Stillwater officers convicted me &c. I class these things among Mr. Singer's misrepresentations. I do not believe the elders and deacons of Stillwater would do such a mad and unjust thing as they said they would, i. e. act as judges in a case where they were both accusers and witnesses; nor will I believe so unreasonable a thing until said officers say so over their own names.

Now a word as to my "wicked work" as Mr. Singer calls it. If the earnest effort to expose an impostor is a "wicked work" I plead guilty. I have never taken back one word I have said about R. H. Singer.

As long as I possess the information I now have, and as long as I hold my present office I will try to rid the ministry of and protect respectable women from the insults of such men, and I believe all fair minded people will give me their approval.

In the trial of Singer Aug. 6, '91, before the elders of Zion Church a most partial and unjust and false decision was rendered, for said elders declared Singer not guilty. The elders of Zion Church will now have a chance to defend their action, as serious charges have been preferred against them. There is not a deacon in that church that approves of the action of the elders. So the end is not yet. The church or officer that endorses R. H. Singer in face of the evidence brought against him makes a mistake.

With thanks for your favors, gentlemen, I remain respectfully yours in the defence of the virtue and purity of the home circle.
