DEAD.—Near Mifflinville, Pa. Sept-ember 10, 1891. Clyde Layfelle, infant son of Edmund Smith and wife, aged 7 years.

MARRIED.—On the 8 inst at the Reformed parsonage in Orangeville by Rev. A. Houtz. Mr. Jessie B. Freas and Miss Belle Coleman, both of Orangeville.

WALLER.

Mr. Robbins of Orangeville has started a singing school at this place which promises to be well attended.

The farmers are getting along pretty fast now with their fall work, as we have been having very fine weather.

Miss Albertson and Messrs. Thomas, Lutz and Butt will take charge of the schools in this township on October 5th.

The corn has ripened very fast in the warm sun of the last few days.

Samuel Roberts is building a large underground room in which to store his apples. He will have perhaps over a thousand bushels of winter apples.

Rev. William Strickland of Mifflinburg, N. Y. has been preaching at this place several times during the past week. He is an entire stranger here, and does not expect to stay but a few days. His sermons have been well received and are filled with passages of Scripture which he quotes as if he had nearly the whole bible committed to memory.

As a general rule, it is best not to correct costiveness by the use of saline or drastic medicines. When a purgative is needed, the most prompt, effective, and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. Their tendency is to restore, and not weaken, the normal action of the bowels.

A TANGIBLE EXPRESSION OF RESPECT.

On Tuesday evening September 15, a party of the citizens of Jerseytown and immediate neighborhood, some forty in number, visited the Reformed Parsonage in Jerseytown, to express their regards to the Rev. W. G. Engle and family. It was in the form of a social and what was realized, which was a handsome sum, was presented to the pastor's wife.

After partaking of the refreshments and spending a few hours in social chat—engaging in vocal and instrumental music, Rev. Decker of the M. E. Church addressed the company in behalf of Rev. Engle who was absent at the time, which he and the visitors regretted. The happy recipients will ever remember the pleasant occasion and herewith acknowledge the kindness.

Condition vs. Theory.

Those who are in ill-health are confronted by a condition, not a theory, although there are numbers of people ready and anxious to theorize about it. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred S. S. S. will do the work of renovation. In cases of indigestion, loss of appetite and general debility, this wonderful medicine acts with almost miraculous certainty. It restores the activity of the liver, purifies the blood and builds up the system. As a tonic for young and old it is without a rival. Though it is powerful in its effects, the youngest or the oldest can take it with the most beneficial effects. S. S. S. has behind it a record of half a century, and is more popular as a household remedy to-day than ever before.

CENTRALIA SCHOOL BOARD.

At a special session of court on Saturday, the 10th inst. a petition was presented asking for the removal of the members of the school board of Centralia borough for failure to supply a sufficient number of teachers and the appointment of others in their stead. A rule was granted to show cause why the petition should not be allowed, returnable September 24th. This case is similar to that of Bloomsburg school board, where the court removed the directors, and its action was very emphatically sustained by the Supreme Court.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

There was a pleasant gathering at the home of H. R. Grimes, Montour township, on Monday evening September 14th, in honor of Mrs. Grimes' fiftieth birthday.

Friends were present from Light Street, Millville, Nescopeck, Catawissa and vicinity to the number of about eighty, and the evening was one long to be remembered.

MAINVILLE.

Harman & Hassert's steam whistle is distinctly audible at this place.

B. R. Yetter had a busy summer of it, having as high as forty boarders at his hotel part of the time.

The old forge property here has gone to decay, but the dam and race are still in good condition, and afford a splendid water power. It would be a good site for a mill.

U. J. Campbell was busy threshing this week.

A. W. Shuman at the upper hotel, keeps a good house. He is also collector of the township.

After a sea diet, to prevent boils and assist acclimation, use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Children's day will be celebrated in the Reformed church on next Sunday. Two very attractive programmes have been prepared for the occasion. The one to be rendered in the morning and the other in the evening. The church will be profusely decorated in plants flowers &c. The public is invited.

IT PAYS

To be cautious in the choice of medicines. Many are injured by trying experiments with compounds purporting to be blood-purifiers, the principal recommendation of which would seem to be their "cheapness." Being made up of worthless, though not always harmless, ingredients, they may well be "cheap," but, in the end, they are dear. The most reliable medicines are costly, and can be retailed at moderate prices, only when the manufacturing chemist handles the raw materials in large quantities. It is economy, therefore,

To Use

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the valuable components of which are imported, wholesale, by the J. C. Ayer Co. from the regions where these articles are richest in medicinal properties. "It is a wonder to me that any other than Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a show in the market. If people consulted their own interest, they would never use any other; for it is not only the best, but, on account of its concentrated strength and purity, it is the most economical."—James F. Duffy, Druggist, Washington St., Providence, R. I.
Dr. A. L. Almond, Druggist, Liberty, Va., writes: "Leading physicians in this city prescribe Sarsaparilla. I have sold it for eighteen years, and have the highest regard for its healing qualities."

Ayer's

"Although the formula is known to the trade, there can be no successful imitation of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Without having the enormous facilities of the J. C. Ayer Co., it is impossible for other parties to put together such valuable ingredients, at the low cost of Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

It stands at the head of all similar preparations. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $6.

Dr. G. C. Osceola, Lowell, Mass.
"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular Castoria, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
