The new election law passed by the legislature this year, is begun on the inside of this issue. It is long, and will be continued from week to week until its publication is completed.
Those who desire a copy of the law should cut it out of the paper and paste it in a scrap book.

The eyesight is the most valuable to preserve and improve the sight is given during the fair, having your eyes properly fitted with glasses by Wells

Figures do not always tell the truth.
In last week's issue of the COLUMBIAN under the article "Council Proceedings," it was stated that Elijah Shutt received $102.38 as watchman at Oak Grove for the month of August. It should have read $25.

John C. Peifer, clerk to the commissioners of Montour county, and Clerk J. D. Bodine of this county, have been working together the past year in getting up a new form for an assessment book, which when completed promises to be a great improvement on the old one.

The Columbia Co. fair Association have contracted with Jas. J. Crawford for the building of an addition to their stable for trotters to accommodate eight additional horses. The managers are making every effort to make this the largest fair ever held on their grounds.

Persons who expect to have printing done for use during the fair, will do well not to leave it until the last minute before ordering it. Attend to it now, and come to THE COLUMBIAN office to get it, where more job work is done than at any other office in the county. Dodgers, hand-bills, show cards, tickets, circulars and all kinds of printing is done neatly, and as cheap as it can be obtained anywhere.

Orange Blossom Biscuits are the finest ever made. Cummings & Verdy

EAST BENTON.
Intensely hot for the season of the year.
The seeding has gotten pretty well along.

The buckwheat is a fine crop. Corn if it ripens will be an unusually heavy crop.
The news of the acquittal of Ellis Young was well received in this locality. Quite a party from Cambra went to Benton last Saturday night to congratulate Ellis on this happy event.

Freeze's History of Columbia County needs no "revision" yet. The Col. knew whereof he wrote.
The war fossils have assumed such ghastly forms and unseemly shapes that those who resurrected them are fleeing from them in utter dismay and disgust. That is always the case when "chickens come home to roost."

THE COLUMBIAN should go into every home. We would welcome every paper of the county, and many, others out side, into our home, if we only had the means to bring them here.

A LEAP YEAR'S MARRIAGE

Searles Says Mrs. Hopkins Did the Proposing.

HE MARRIED FOR LOVE AND MONEY.

But Love, He Says, Was the Principal Reason Why He Wedded a Woman Who Was a Score of Years His Senior—The Contest Commenced.

SALER, Mass., Sept. 23.—Timothy Hopkins, of San Francisco, the adopted son of Mrs. M. F. Searles Searles, sat among half a dozen noted lawyers in the probate court yesterday. He was ready to contest the wealthy woman's will without regard to cost. He had refused, it is said, to compromise the case for $2,500,000.

Searles Was on Hand.
Edward P. Searles, of Methuen, who married the widow of Mark Hopkins, and to whom the $20,000,000 or more of her property was left, to the expressed exclusion of Timothy Hopkins, was on hand to stand by the will. He had several prominent lawyers to aid him also. They were William Allen Butler, Wilhelmus Mynderse, General T. H. Hubbard and Thomas E. Stillman, of New York; Colonel Solomon Lincoln, of Boston, and Richard Dodge, of Cambridge. Judge Rollin E.
Harmon sat on the bench when the court opened. The witnesses to the will, Messrs.
Dodge, Thornton and Noyes, were called to the stand by Colonel Lincoln.

The Widower Testifies.
"Was Mrs. Searles of sound and disposing mind, Mr. Dodge?" asked Colonel Lincoln.

Before the witness could answer, Mr.
Burley, counsel for Timothy Hopkins, called for the will made prior to the one in dispute and dated Nov. 8, 1887. Counsel for Searles objected, but Judge Harmon ordered it produced. It was made on the date of the marriage of Mr. Searles and Mrs. Hopkins, and gave half of Mrs.
Searles' estate to her husband and the other half to Timothy Hopkins. Mr.
Searles was then put upon the stand. He told his life history, which has a tinge of romance. He was born in Methuen, Mass., fifty years before July 4 last. He lived there off and on until 1833.

She Proposed to Him.
In the spring of 1883 he met Mrs. Hopkins in San Francisco. He went to her with a letter of introduction, asking permission to view her house. On numerous occasions thereafter he met her in the east and west by invitation.

Mrs. Hopkins had told him that she was twenty years his senior. When the marriage was proposed Mrs. Hopkins consulted her adopted son, Mr. Searles, did not know what Timothy said, but he objected.
"When was the proposition of marriage first made?"
"In the autumn of 1883, but not by me."
"She proposed to you, then, did she?"
"She did, sir."
"When did you make the proposition to her?"

"In 1884. The marriage was agreed upon in September of 1887, in the early part of the month, at New York."

Love and for Money.
"Will you tell me why you entered into a marriage contract with a woman twenty-one years older than yourself?"
"I married her, for all that she was, love-love and money both."

"Which was the stronger motive, love or money?"
"I don't believe I am obliged to answer that question."

Judge Harmon ruled that the question was competent, and Mr. Searles answered, "Love."
"Did you have any talk about the disposition of her property prior to marriage?"
"No, sir."

He Gave Her Three Years to Think.
In the course of his testimony Mr.
Searles said that while in California he went on several excursions into the country with Mrs. Hopkins and her daughter-in-law. He did not assent to Mrs. Hopkins' proposal of marriage for three years, in order to give her a chance to be sure that she was satisfied. He had never previously proposed marriage to any one.

Robert Garrett Must Now Defend.
TRENTON, Sept. 23.—Judge Green, in the United States circuit court, rendered an opinion against Robert Garrett, of Baltimore. His counsel moved to have the summons served upon him in a $3,000,000 suit set aside, but the court declined to do so. William A. Jewett contracted with Garrett to connect the Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph company with a cable he was laying from England. Jewett could not complete his work because Garrett backed out. He brings suit for $3,000,000. A sharp deputy marshal caught Garrett in Jersey City as he was boarding his private car and made service, which Garrett's counsel unsuccessfully tried to have dismissed, because it was not the intention of the law to track and waylay a man to make service.

Postmaster General Haggart Accused.
OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—In the house of commons Mr. Lister, M. P. for West Lanbton, gave notice that he will at once make an impeachment of Hon. J. C. Haggart, postmaster general. The charge will be that while a member of parliament Mr.
Haggart was interested in the contract given by the government for the construction of that part of the Canadian Pacific railway which runs between Keewatin and Eagle river. This is the Kenosauwa of the day.

Deacon White's Crash.
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—S. V. White & Co., of New York and Chicago, who made an assignment yesterday, were under because they tried to corner the country's supply of the grain for September and October delivery and failed.
The firm owes about $2,000,000, mostly to banks and money lenders. Against this, as assets, are about 8,000,000 bushels of corn, held by White & Co. in Chicago and the west.

The Bank Failed, but Is Still Open.
BUTLER, Pa., Sept. 23.—The Butler County bank, of Millertown, owned by J.
Hoyt, suspended payment a week ago, but has not closed its doors. The deposits aggregate only $28,450, and Mr. Hoyt says that his assets amount to $30,000, and that if he can obtain assistance for a few days he will be able to pull through.

Detective Campbell in Jail.
CAMDEN, N. J., Sept. 23.—John O. Campbell, the alleged detective, is in jail on a charge of perjury, preferred by Miss Mary Collins. The charge is based on the affirmation of Campbell, in which he states that Miss Collins confessed to him that John Miller, her brother-in-law, killed Mrs.
Millie.

IN THIS AND NEARBY COUNTIES.

Accidents and Crimes Accurately and Concisely Chronicled.

Papers Sued for Alleged Rebates.
HARRISBURG, Sept. 17.—The attorney general has brought suits against the Philadelphia Press, Inquirer, News, German Democrat, North American and Evening Bulletin to recover the sums of money alleged to have been paid as rebates to the persons who procured for their advertise-

Suicide at Harrisburg.
HARRISBURG, Sept. 18.—Henry Fischer, whose home is at 313 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, plunged into the canal at Mac-lay street about 3 p. m. and was drowned.
It was a deliberate suicide.

Dragged to His Death.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—William Stinson, a young coupe driver, while returning to his stable was thrown from the vehicle.
His left leg became entangled in the harness, and the horse galloped madly up the street. When the horse was finally stopped, Stinson's head was battered into an almost unrecognizable mass. Stinson was twenty-three years old, and leaves a widow and one child.

Rumors of a Big Shortage.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 18.—It was rumored here that Thomas L. Shields, secretary and treasurer of the Allegheny Heating company, is short over $100,000 in his accounts. The company says that there is a deficiency, but how much cannot be learned.

To the Bitter End.
HUNTINGDON, Sept. 19.—The many employees at the Rock Hill Iron and Coal company's plants at Orishonia have decided to continue the strike to the bitter end. The company says they will start up with imported men.

Johnston Breaks the Record.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 19.—At the last day of the meeting at Homewood Driving park Johnston paced three of the fastest heats ever made at Homewood park in a race, winning the free for all race and lowering the record half a second. Time, 2:12, 2:11, 2:13. Grant's Abdallah was second, Dallas, third. The entry list was so large in the 2:32 trot that it had to be made into two divisions. Instant won in the first division and Kentucky Bird in the second. Rosalind Wilkes took the 2:15 trot in straight heat.

Window Glass Factories to Start Up.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 19.—The window glass manufacturers and workers have settled all differences. The workers withdrew their demand for an advance in wages and the manufacturers agreed to pay last year's wages. The fires will be lighted soon.

Burned by Molten Steel.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 21.—Four men were seriously injured in an explosion at Carnegie, Phipps & Co.'s Homestead mill.
One of them will die and the others are in a dangerous condition. The men were working in the pit in the converting department. A large crane used to carry molten steel was in operation above them.
Attached to the crane's chain was an immense ladle filled with the boiling metal.
A link of the chain snapped, emptying the contents of the ladle upon the men. The metal exploded, scattering it in all directions. The victims were almost covered with the metal and were horribly burned.

Killed by a Blow with the Fist.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—Frank Birmingham and Charles Cummings quarreled over some trouble that had taken place between their mothers. Birmingham knocked Cummings down with a blow of his fist, killing him instantly. Birmingham was arrested.

Pennsylvania Cattle Attacked.
HUNTINGDON, Sept. 21.—The cattle in this and adjoining counties are being attacked with a thus far unidentified disease, which first appeared about two weeks ago. Already hundreds of cattle have perished. When attacked the animal's head falls helplessly and its legs seem unable to bear the weight of the body.

Succeeded in Killing Himself.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—William J.
Peacock, head of the underwear department of Joel J. Bailey & Co., committed suicide by shooting himself five times in the head. He was taken to the German hospital and died within an hour after his admission.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons on Trial.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 22.—The trial of Mrs.
Lucy Fitzsimmons in the celebrated murder case in which she with her husband, Frank C. Fitzsimmons (who escaped from jail here last Monday), killed Detective Gilkinson March 24, has begun in the criminal court here.

Three Miners Killed.
SCRANTON, Sept. 22.—A great mass of falling roof caught Joseph Horan, a miner, and his two Hungarian laborers while they were loading cars in the Caycago colliery. When taken out they were dead.

A Distinguished Family Was Here.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Elizabeth Borden Biddle died here aged ninety-two.
Mrs. Biddle was a descendant of a distinguished family, her father being Judge Hopkinson, author of "Hall Columbia"; her grandfather, Francis Hopkinson, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, and her great-grandfather, Thomas Hopkinson, a member of the provincial council and judge of the vice admiralty under George II.

Harned in a Barn.
MARION, Sept. 22.—A big barn belonging to Vice President Frank Thomson, of the Pennsylvania railroad, was burned.
An employee, James Baker, was seriously burned. A horse and three valuable pack dogs were also burned.

I have had catarrh for twenty years, and used all kinds of remedies without relief. Mr. Smith, druggist, of Little Falls, recommended Ely's Cream Balm.
The effect of the first application was magical, it allayed the inflammation and the next morning my head was as clear as a bell. I am convinced its use will effect a permanent cure. It is soothing and pleasant, and I strongly urge its use by all sufferers.—Geo.
Terry, Little Falls, N. Y.

be made for a special train. The cost of ticket and reserved seat will be about 85 cents. Will any who wish to cock or to Mr. A. N. Yost.

It having been judicially determined that Ellis Young did not fire the shot that killed Stewart C. Robinson, the conclusion is inevitable that Tom Smith or Minor Smith did, as they were the only other persons in the party which was "halted" by the marauders.

SHORTLY ON RECORD.
"I'm me my tribute, or else," said an Irish chief to another. "I owe you no tribute, and if I" —was the answer. Scrofula and specific disease all are from impurities, impure conditions of the blood, say the physicians. Well, then, why don't you purify the blood, remove the disease and restore health by the Cactus Blood Cure, says common sense.
