THE BAY STATE TICKET.

Russell and Corcoran Will Lead the Democrats.

J. SLOAT FASSETT'S STUMPING TOUR

His Speech at Ogdenburg—A Report That Certain Colored Men Are Displeased—Daniel G. Griffin Made Chairman in New York State.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 30.—The Democratic state convention at Mechanics' hall nominated the following ticket: William E. Russell for governor, General John W. Corcoran for lieutenant governor, Elbridge Cushman for secretary of state, James S. Grinnell for treasurer and receiver general, W. D. T. Tretry for auditor.

George M. Stearns for attorney general. The last four nominated were reported by the committee on balance of ticket, and on motion of Hon. T. J. Corgan the report was unanimously adopted. Mr. Corcoran is at present chairman of the Democratic state committee.

Governor Russell's Speech.
In the course of his speech of acceptance Governor Russell, after referring to state issues, said:
"We unhesitatingly declare for a sound currency and an honest dollar, and we protest not only against the free coinage of silver, but against the present Republican legislation, which is bringing us dangerously near a silver basis and an unsound currency. I believe that in this commonwealth both parties are honestly opposed to any legislation, present or prospective, which threatens those consequences. Then let the Republican party declare this conviction and repudiate such legislation, that the unanimous voice of the commonwealth may be heard in protest against dangerous financial doctrines with no discordant note except an honest rivalry as to the best means of carrying out her wish."
"We believe that the revision and reduction of tariff taxation are the supreme political issues, and we again declare that it should be on lines of free raw material and cheapening the cost of the necessities of life. We confidently believe that this will be the benefit not only to our people, but especially to New England industries; the demand of our industries for such reduction has been unheeded in the McKinley bill."

Fassett at Ogdenburg.
OGDENBURG, N. Y., Sept. 30.—J. Sloat Fassett and J. W. Vrooman were accorded a magnificent reception in this city. In the evening the opera house was packed to overflowing to listen to Mr. Fassett's speech. He said:
"I came up here from my home and New York city that I might get near to the great Republican heart, for it beats warm, strong and true here in St. Lawrence. There is no trouble here among your people with 12,000 acres of public lands, with a majority that is as large as your generosity. You stand here in the north the northern light of New York state Republicanism—an everlasting menace to the darkness on Manhattan island. They are afraid of you down there, and they are afraid of you with apprehension to the returns from St. Lawrence. The issue this fall is, shall we have a good government? It was much simplified for us by our friends at Saratoga. There was no room for the convention for any number of my delegation out of twenty-five assembly districts who decided to befriend ex-President Cleveland; there was no room there for an organization founded by Samuel J. Tilden."
"There was no room there for the Democracy, representing half of the Democracy of New York, who came to the convention for the purpose of fighting Tammany Hall. Their cries consisted in not bowing the knee to Tammany Hall. There was no regard paid to the Kings county Democracy. Never for a side in the saddle, hooded and spurred, ride so roughly about over all obstacles as Richard Croker, the chief scoundrel of Tammany Hall, rode at Saratoga every opponent. Even Governor Hill was made to yield in one or two minor matters."

Tariff Reform and Silver.
Mr. Fassett charged that the Democratic platform was as silent as the grave on the question of tariff reform. He said that no one knew what the silver plank meant. But Mr. Hill and his friends said that it should read:
"We are against the coinage of any dollar which is not of the same intrinsic value as any other dollar."
"We are against the coinage of any silver dollar which is not of the same intrinsic value as any other dollar."
Continuing, Mr. Fassett said:
"Our friends, the governor, would like to say to the people of the south and west why this plank doesn't mean anything. Of course we are against the coinage of any dollar that is not of the same intrinsic value of any other dollar. There is only one dollar coined and its intrinsic value we don't discuss."
The Associated Press agent says that he secured a copy of the platform from the governor's private secretary. And Mr. Tracy, a member of the committee of resolutions, says that the word silver was in the plank as it was adopted in the committee. Is it possible that Governor Hill has been guilty of tampering with such an important document as the Democratic platform?

May Repudiate Mr. Fassett.
ALBANY, Sept. 30.—It is said that at its annual meeting next week the Afro-American league may repudiate Mr. Fassett, the Republican nominee for governor. In 1890 the league introduced into the legislature a bill preventing the life insurance companies of this state from discriminating against the colored race. A committee was favorably received by the Democratic assembly, but the Republican senate refused to recognize them. The legislature's committee of the state league wrote a letter to Mr. Fassett asking his attitude upon the measures demanded by the league, but no answer has been received.

Hudson County Republicans Meet.
JERSEY CITY, Sept. 30.—The Republican party of Hudson county, N. J., had a convention in Wood's hall to revise its constitution. Ex-Mayor Collins presided and said that one of the objects of the revision was to stop the indorsement or nomination of Democratic candidates by Republicans. At the evening session the revision committee was not prepared to report. The convention will therefore meet again on Oct. 7.

Griffin for Chairman.
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The long deferred meeting of the Democratic state executive committee was held at the Hoffman House. William F. Sheehan, S. W. Rosendale, D. Cady Herrick, Daniel Lamont, Amos J. Cummings, Edward Murphy and Senator Stadler were among those who paced the famous corridors early. D. G. Griffin, of Watertown, secured the chairmanship.

Peck and Ely for Judges.
BUFFALO, Sept. 30.—The Eighth judicial district Democratic convention nominated Myron H. Peck, of Buffalo, and W. Cary Ely, of Niagara Falls, as candidates for the supreme court judgeships.

Fassett at Flower's Home.
WATERBURY, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The city where Hon. Roswell P. Flower lives was ablaze with fireworks and the scene of the greatest demonstration of the campaign on the occasion of the visit of Hon. J. Sloat Fassett and Hon. J. W. Vrooman, last night. Two immense meetings were held, one within the opera house and another without. Mr. Fassett captured his hearers completely. He praised the city of Watertown for its beauty and eulogized Mr. Flower. He said:
"I am wearing this flower in my buttonhole tonight. [Applause.] It is a beautiful flower and I wear it to emphasize what it symbolizes, the excellencies of the individual character of Roswell P. Flower, your distinguished citizen. I know not, I care not, what party managers may say, it is my right to say pleasant things about Mr. Flower, about Mr. Sheehan, and about every one on either ticket whom I know. It is my right if I please to say that Governor David B. Hill is a delightful conversationist and a pleasant gentleman to meet. It is my right to call the attention of the people to the excellent things in the man and in the measures of the opposing party. It is also my right and I reserve it as a parallel duty and privilege to just as mercifully hold up for public scorn and criticism that which I believe to be dress and vicious in the measure and in the principles of the same men as my political opponents. [Applause.]"

Blaine on the Ohio Issue.
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 29.—A special to The Times from Akron, O., says: The following letter has been received by Colonel Conger, of the Republican national committee, from Secretary Blaine:
"Baltimore, Md., Sept. 29.
To Colonel A. L. Conger, Akron, O.:
MY DEAR SIR—Your favor received. I can not take part in the Ohio campaign this year for many reasons which need not be given, but I hope no effort will be spared to elect McKinley. His victory at this time is very important to the country and to the party. He and Mr. Campbell represent the honest differences between the two parties. There is no dodging or evasion and the voter need not be deceived. The election of McKinley means the policy of protection and honest money. The election of Campbell means free trade and corruption of the currency. I believe Ohio will stand by McKinley. Very sincerely yours,
JAMES G. BLAINE."

Governor Hill at Rochester.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Governor Hill arrived in the city at 10:45 last night from Albany. He was met at the Powers hotel by a delegation of citizens, among them being Mayor Carroll, who acted as spokesman and in a neat speech welcomed the governor. The governor spoke as follows:
"I am not now on a political tour. Tomorrow I will assume the role of an agriculturist, a role which my good friend Senator McNaughton assumes when he goes to Orleans county. I know you are all interested in the success of the election of McKinley. I am just as interested as if I were on the ticket, and whenever I can persuade a doubting Democrat to rally to the support of the ticket I mean to do so. I have no doubt about the result, if the Democrats will arouse to the cause of the contest in which we have entered. We have carried every state election for nine years. So far as the issues relate to my administration I am willing to stand upon them and I think that the Democratic party is willing to stand upon them. This campaign is one of the most important in the history of the country."
A Good Word for Sheehan.
"I am pleased with the ticket, and it is one which should please all good Democrats. Mr. Flower is as good a Democrat as any in the state, and his associates on the ticket are all worthy of support. Let me say a kind word for the friends of the candidate for lieutenant governor. He has rendered valuable services to the party. The prospect for victory was never brighter. Our party is united and that means success. Mr. Fassett has said that the campaign is to be fought before the battle, that is to say, New York this year so goes the country in '92. I am willing to accept the issue. Each man must take off his coat and do his part in the canvass."

Campbell to the Farmers.
COLENSBURG, Sept. 30.—Governor Campbell addressed quite a large crowd at the Union County fair at Marysville. He sought to impress the farmers that the reason they were receiving large prices for their wheat was due to the failure of the crops abroad, and because the American wheat was needed. He said that high protective tariff prevented foreign nations from coming here for their breadstuffs, and they would not do so unless compelled to, as in the present instance.
Governor Campbell called attention to the decrease of $98,000,000 in the value of agricultural lands in Ohio in the last decade. He said Mr. Porter's census showed there had been an increase in the wealth of Ohio of $243,000,000. The question to ask the farmers was, Who had obtained this increase in wealth? Certainly it was not theirs.

Farmers Will Take a Hand.
ALBANY, Sept. 29.—"The farmers of the state will take a hand in this campaign." This was the decision of the conference held here with closed doors between delegates from the State Alliance and the two state leagues. Fifty-five counties were represented and a delegation from the Knights of Labor was admitted. It was decided to be too late to call a farmers' convention this year, but such a step will be taken next year. The farmers will, however, attempt to make their presence felt this year.

Gave Her Life for Her Child.
LEBANON, Pa., Sept. 30.—Mrs. Thomas Hamberger while endeavoring to save her four-year-old son, who had strayed on the track of the electric railroad, was struck by a car and instantly killed. The child was fatally injured.

The many remarkable cures of catarrh effected by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is conclusive proof that this loathsome and dangerous disease is one of the blood, only needing such a searching and powerful alternative to thoroughly eradicate it.

For Dress Goods and Trimmings go to Clark & Son's.

The universal satisfaction with which J. G. Wells' work as an optician is regarded in this and adjoining counties, speaks well for his ability. If your eyes are failing, call on him and have them fitted correctly with spectacles. Special accommodations have been made for fair week.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at C. A. Klein's Drug store.
