CHILI SEEMS SORRY NOW

A Practical Apology for Insults to Uncle' Sam.

THE WHITE SQUADRON WILL WAIT.

Secretary Tracy's First of Swift Warships Could Get to Valparaiso in a Month, but They Will Not Go Unless the Junta Gets Saucy Again.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 50 .- Chili is coming to her senses. The junta has withdrawn the guard from Minister Egan's house and the petty persecutions to which he has been subjected have ceased. Such is the substance of a telegram received from Mr. Egan at a late hour. It is quite probable also that no further attempts will be made to molest the refugees who have sought shelter at the American legation. President Harrison believes that the troubles at Santiago are now practically over. He believes, too, that Chill's backdown is due to the firm stand taken by this government, and that, had we not acted so promptly, the gravest consequences must Minister Egan's Ultimatum.

The exact nature of Minister Egan's instructions are not made public. It is known, however, that he informed the junta that the United States would tolerate no further indignities either upon himself or the refugees who had sought the shelter of our flag. This brought the junts to its senses, and according to Mr. Egan's telegram it is now extricating itself as gracefully as possible from its awkward position. The troubles, of course, are not wholly over. More or less friction will no doubt result as long as Mr. Egan remains at Santiago, but the acute symptoms have

Some of the Outrages.

From Minister Egan's dispatches and from those of Captain Schley, of the Baltimore, the junta placed a guard around the American legation at Santiago and ar-rested two of Minister Egan's servants. The junta also put a guard around the Baltimore to prevent refugees from going aboard, and Captain Schley complains of insolent and harsh treatment generally of the officers and men of the vessel and other Americans in that vicinity. There seems to be no doubt that the junta has been unnecessarily severe and uncivil in its treatment of Americans.

Denied by Secretary Tracy. The report that orders have been issued to the squadron of evolution or any of the vesseis thereof to prepare for service at Valparaiso is positively denied by both Secretary Tracy and Commander Ramsey. The departments will wait for further de-velopment before anything of this kind is done. There is nothing that would please naval officers here more than to see the squadron of evolution dispatched at once for Chilian waters in order to get a good practical test of what the new navy could do in the way of meeting an emergency. They claim the squadron could reach Val-paraiso in thirty days.

The Uprising in Guatemala.

CITY OF MEXICO, VIA GALVESTON, Texas, Sept. 30 .- A dispatch by courier to New ton, on the frontier, from Guatemala and having diplomatic origin, fully confirms the reported riot in Guatemala on Sept. 15. It seems that Manuel Montufar, the son of a former Guatemala minister in Washing ton and a strong partisan of Barilias, was addressing the multitude on Sept. 15, which is Independence Day, when some of his remarks were hissed by the opposition and a struggle commenced for the possess sion of the platform.

Artillery Brought Into Play. It was finally held by the rioters, and the mob was augmented in numbers and threatened the palace. Artillery brought into play and soon cleared the main plaza. The main streets were cleared by the infantry, but the rioters held many alleys and buildings. Throughout the night and the following two days there were small mobs in various parts of the city which were promptly dispersed by the military. Several persons were killed. The loss of life seems to have been almost entirely on the part of the mob.

SHE SEEKS A DIVORCE.

The Unhappy Marriage of John Jacob Astor's Niece.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Sept. 29.-The romance of at least one American girl who gave wealth for a title has been grievously dispelled. Baroness de Stuers, wife of the Beigian minister in Paris and niece of the late John Jacob Astor, the New York millionaire, has filed papers in a suit for divorce against her husband.

While in Paris she says that the baron applied foul epithets and accused his wife of not being chaste; that on June 24, 1800, defendant by fraud and false representation attempted to procure her incarcera-tion in an institution for the confinement of insane persons. This last fact will be brought out at the trial.

Robinson Won.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 24.—The election of Hon. John B. Robinson, of Delaware county, as president of the Republican state league by an overwhelming vote was the climax of the convention in the Scranton armory. The rigid application of the rule excluding all clubs organized since July 16 reduced since July 16 reduced the representation to 198 clubs with three delegates each. Of this number Robinson received the votes of 141 clubs, Dalzell 42, and Major Warren

A Newark Brewery Sold. NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 29.—Erastus Wi-man and Brewers Bachman and Bailey, of Staten Island, and the Ehrets, forming the heads of a syndicate, purchased the Citizens' Brewing company at 99-103 Spring-field avenue, Newark, for $200,000. It is proposed to increase the output of the brewery to 150,000 barrels per annum.

Another Louisville Bank Failure.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 30.—The Kentucky Savings bank, the fourth bank that has failed in Louisville inside of six months, has closed its doors. Unlike the other failures, however, the depositors in this instance will be paid in full.

Co McCarthy Acquitted.

New Orleans, Sept. 30.—The jury in the case of Cal McCarthy, charged with prize fighting, rendered a verdict of not guilty without leaving their seats.

Barber for the Assembly. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 30. Aaron Barber was nominated for assembly by the Democrats of Livingston county, at Avon.

AN EXTRA SESSION CALLED.

Governor Pattison Wants Two Pennsylvanta Officials Investigated.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 28.—Quite a sensa tion has been created here and throughout the state by the proclamation issued Saturday night by Governor Pattison convening the senate in extraordinary session on Tuesday, Oct. 18, 1891. The preamble sets forth that grave charges have been made against the auditor general and state treasurer, most seriously reflecting upon the discharge of their official duties; that it is proper diligent inquiry should be made to ascertain whether or not "reason able cause" exists for their removal; that there is a conviction in the public mind that they have been grossly inefficient and entirely wanting in due fidelity, and that if the charges be established the senate should take action looking to the removal

It is also set forth that much of the state money, lost through Bardsley, would be in the treasury if the auditor general and state treasurer had performed their duties with fidelity, and further that Bardsley's refusal to disclose any information what ever as to the conduct of these officials has compelled the abandonment of proposed criminal prosecutions, at least for a time. Proper inquiry by the senate, the governor thinks, may develop evidence sufficient to satisfy its members that reasonable cause exists for the removal of the auditor gen eral and state treasurer.

No Trace of Livesey. MILWAUKEE, Sept. 28.-A systematic and thorough effort to find ex-Cashier Livesey, of Pennsylvania, in this city hav failed utterly, and there is the best of authority for the statement that he has never been in Milwaukee; that all of the letters addressed to him here have been forwarded to an address in Canada, where he has been for some time.

Harrisburo, Sept. 3).—At last even-ing's session of the legislative investigat-ing committee which is inquiring into the conduct of the auditor general's office and the state treasurer Treasurer Boyer ex plained that he paid the school warrants of $420,000 to Bardsley in December, 1800 for the year 1891, six months before they were due, because he wished to keep the money out of the sinking fund. Had it gove there, he said, there was danger that there would not be enough money in the general fund to meet all the appropria tions of the legislature about to meet,

He denied all knowledge of the Bardsley Livsey correspondence and said he did not know the latter's whereabouts. He stated that the law compelling the investment of sinking fund moneys in United States bonds had never been complied with dur-ing his administration. The committee adjourned to meet in Philadelphia or

To Get Bardsley to Confess.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30,-It is alleged here that a big scheme is on foot to get Bardsley to turn state's evidence and tel all he knows at the extraordinary session of the senate, which has been called to try the two officials. The pardon board consists of two Republicans and two Democrats and the Democrats, it is said, think that it they can get Bardsley to unseal his lips they can commute at least a portion of his sentence. Several conferences have al ready been had with Bardsley in his cell at the Eastern penitentiary.

A Judgment Against Bardsley.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 30. -In the Dauphic county court of common pleas judgment was taken against John Bardsley for $394. 010.40, being for license tax collected by him in 1800. This amount includes inter est and the attorney general's commission the two items being over $25,000.

denly Sunday of beart failure. Mr. Kem ble's death occurred at his pretty country home "Marylawn" shortly after midnight He had been around as usual during the day and had retired about 10:30 o'clock. Shortly after going to bed he felt an attack of the heart trouble and his physician was sent for. His physician was power less, however, and he died soon afterward Mr. Kemble had been warned long age that he must give up active participation in business affairs if he wished to prolong his life. He heeded this warning and wat gradually severing his connection with the various street railway enterprises which he had, along with his partners, Massra Elkins & Widener, connected himself. Mr Kemble was sixty-three years old. He had been identified with politics from his youth and was always high in the council. of the Republican party. He was twice elected state treasurer of Pennsylvania ou the Republican ticket. He leaves a large family of children and grandchildren. His

Me Could Not Bear the Insult. MILLVILLE, N. J., Sept. 28.-A fourteen rear-old boy named Ambrose Patr committed sticide here by hanging himself in the garret of his home, 40 Garfield street. He was employed as a tending boy at Whitall, Tatum & Co.'s flint glass works and refused to go out with the other tend-ing boys when they struck recently against the employment of Jews. The strikers called young Parr a "scab," and he brood-ed over the matter so much that it unbalanced his mind.

A Policeman's Terrible Duty.

Honoken, N. J., Sept. 28.—A young man and woman under the influence of liquor were being put off a horse car here when Policeman John J. Ryan hurried up. He glanced at the woman and then moaned, "My God, Nellie, this is terrible." The young woman was his wife. The policeman turned pale, but brought his wife and her paramour to the police station. The man said his name was Myles Severaux, aged thirty-seven. Ryan will apply for a

"Red Leary" in the Tolls. New York, Sept. 28.—Thomas O'Brien, alias "Red Leary," one of the most des-perate "crooks" in this city, has been ar-rested charged with the theft of $10,000 from an Albany merchant Feb. 3, 1880. The job was done by O'Brien and a "pat" named George Post. They induced their victim to draw the money from a bank and bring it to the hotel. He was then knocked senseless with a sandbag and robbed.

Jersey City Wants Better Water. JERSEY CITY, Sept. 29.—A committee of the Jersey City board of trade, consisting of Dr. L. S. Gordon, Joseph A. Dear, Henry Lembeck, Alderman S. H. Smith and Lawyer James Flemming, waited upon the street and water commissioners and urged them to take some immediate action toward furnishing Jersey City with a better water supply.
