

NEW ELECTION LAW.

CONTINUED.

SECTION 10. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of every county, at least ten days before any election to be held therein, except for township and borough officers, to give notice of the same by proclamations posted up in the most public places in every election district and by advertisements in at least two newspapers, if there be so many published in the county, representing so far as practicable, the political parties which at the preceding election cast the largest and next largest number of votes, and in every such proclamation or advertisement he shall...

I. Enumerate the officers to be elected and give a list of all the nominations, except for election officers and assessors made as provided in this act, and to be voted for in such county, as far as may be, in the form in which they shall appear upon the ballots, but the proclamations posted in each election district need not contain the names of any candidates but only to be voted for in such district.

II. Designate the place at which the election is to be held.

III. He shall give notice that every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States or of this State or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary department of this State or of the United States or of any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature and of the select or common council of any city or commissioner of any incorporated district is, by law, incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.

SECTION 11. In case of the death or withdrawal of any candidate nominated as herein provided, the party convention, primary meeting, caucus or board, or the citizens who nominated such candidate, may nominate a substitute in his place by filing in the proper office, at any time before the day of election, a nomination certificate or paper which shall conform to all the requirements of this act in regard to original certificates or papers: Provided, That if the said convention or citizens shall have authorized any committee to make nominations in the event of the death or withdrawal of candidates, the said convention shall not be required to re-convene nor the said citizens to sign a new nomination paper, but the said committee shall have power to file the requisite nomination certificate or paper, which shall recite the facts of the appointments and powers of the said committee, (naming all its members,) of the death or withdrawal of the candidate and of the action of the committee thereon, and the truth of these facts shall be verified by the affidavit annexed to the certificate or paper of two members of the committee, and also of at least two of the officers of the convention who made affidavit in support of the original certificate, or two of the citizens who made affidavit to the original papers: And provided also, That in case of a substituted nomination paper, not filed by a committee, but signed by citizens, it shall only be necessary that two-thirds of the signers of the said paper shall have been signers of the original paper.

SECTION 12. All substituted nomination certificates or papers may be objected to as provided in section seven of this act, and if a substituted certificate or paper be filed after the last day for filing the original certificate or paper, objections must be made within four days after the filing, and no objection as to form or conformity to law shall be received after the time set for printing the ballots.

As soon as any substituted candidate shall have been duly nominated, his name shall be substituted by the proper officers in the place of that of the candidate who has died or withdrawn, so far as time may allow, and in case a substituted nomination be filed with or transmitted to the county commissioners or township or borough auditors after the ballots have been printed, the said commissioners or auditors shall prepare and distribute with the ballots suitable slips of paper bearing the substituted name together with the title of the office, and having adhesive paste upon the reverse side which shall be offered to each voter with the regular ballot and may be fixed thereto.

SECTION 13. The county commissioners of each county shall cause all the ballots to be used therein to be printed, except for elections of officers of townships and boroughs and election officers, and school directors in the same, the ballots for which shall be printed and distributed by the auditors who shall certify the cost of such printing and distribution to the county commissioners for payment as part of a county election expenses. The said commissioners and auditors shall also certify the offices to be filled, and shall be responsible for the accurate printing of the ballots in accordance with this act and for the safekeeping of the same while in their possession or that of their subordinates or agents.

The Purest and Best.

Articles known to medical science are used in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every ingredient is carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. The medicine is prepared under the supervision of thoroughly competent pharmacists, and every step in the process of manufacture is carefully watched with a view to securing in Hood's Sarsaparilla the best possible result.

POULTRY NOTES.

No. 33.

Don't compel the chicks to roost in a small badly ventilated coop these warm nights.

When feeding don't throw the feed down in one place. Scatter it far and near so every chick gets its share.

A well kept and well fed flock of poultry will pay a bigger profit than a pen of hogs. No matter how well the latter may be cared for.—Farm Journal.

It pays to push the young flocks. By feeding judiciously and the right kind of food and at the right time. Your cockerels will be ready for market and the pullets be ready for laying the sooner.

A smart old gander down south (says Farm Journal) has learned to turn the faucet of a cistern with his bill, and when the water begins to flow he sits down under the stream, flaps his wings, takes a bath and has a good time generally.

There is a right time to do everything and the right time to procure stock to improve your flock is in the fall, as it can be had cheaper, by waiting till spring they will be scarcer and naturally a higher price will have to be paid.

Malaria

Literally means bad air. Poisonous germs arising from low, marshy land, or from decaying vegetable matter, are breathed into the lungs, taken up by the blood, and unless the vital fluid is purified by the use of a good medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla, the unfortunate victim is soon overpowered. Even in the more advanced cases, where the terrible fever prevails, this successful medicine has effected remarkable cures. Those who are exposed to malaria or other poisons should keep the blood pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

That Baby of Mine,

Auntie, three months ago had the salt rheum so bad that his head was a mass of sores, and I had begun to lose all hopes of raising him, but my druggist recommended Sulphur Bitters, and to-day he is as fat and chipper as any baby you ever saw, and he has not a sore on his head, and just think that after paying out so much that a few dollars worth of Sulphur Bitters should cure him.—Mrs. J. C. Hall, Lowell, 10-2-21.

In its November number the Cosmopolitan will publish a series of letters written by Gen. W. T. Sherman to one of his young daughters, between the years 1850 and 1865 and covering most of the important events of the war of secession. These letters present graphic pictures of a great soldier amid some of the stirring scenes in which he was a giant figure, and in them the patriotic spirit of the Federal general is seen to have been most attractively tempered by a strong affection for the Southern people. The fraternal feeling which glows in these letters is in refreshing contrast to the sectional bitterness which characterized the period, and they will constitute an interesting and important contribution to the literature of the war.

NO CENSORSHIP.

Justice Harlan Pays a Glowing Tribute to the Press.

Justice Harlan, of the supreme court of the United States, in a lecture before the Law College of the University of Wisconsin on "Constitutional Law," gave the following compliment to the press of the country:

"Nor shall congress make any laws abridging the freedom of the press." This is a wise provision. There are some men, stung to the quick by what they see in the newspapers, who would favor a law that would place the press of the country under a censorship.

Much may be said against the manner in which newspapers are often conducted, but I do not think that I overestimate their value when I say that we depend largely for our real protection in this country upon the vigilance of the press. It is almost impossible in this country, as long as the press is not muzzled, for corruption to hold sway for any great length of time. There are those who think that everything is going to pieces, that the nation is becoming as corrupt as all the nations of the earth, and they affect to think so because they see so many things in the newspapers. I want, however, to express the conviction that we are a good deal better off than we were fifty years ago. Not that I remember myself, but judging from what I have heard, we are not growing worse; we are getting better. The standard of public morality and virtue is higher than it was twenty-five years ago.

Our public men, whatever may be said to the contrary, in the congress of the United States are, in their moral character, a higher grade of men than were there twenty-five or fifty years ago. There are less vices among them. Old men, who remember what existed in Washington thirty or forty years ago, all say that. Now, I believe that a vast deal of this is due to the fact that the public press of this country is every day and every hour of our existence turning its light into the dark places, and ferreting out corruptions in their birth, and bringing before the people of this country that which they ought to know, and therefore I believe in this provision of the bill of rights.

The Country Newspaper.

If you have anything to sell that commands trade outside of your own city, use the country newspaper.

In the country newspaper you have a reliable and effective friend that does its mission at more family firesides than do many of the metropolitan dailies.

In the country weeklies the marriage bells toll more joyfully than in the great city papers, and when the columns of such a home paper tell us that some humble person has gone from the world we read with tears, for he was our neighbor and friend.

The country newspaper is not only a business guide, but it is a pulpit of morals for the entire community and county in which it is published. It is a kind of public rostrum where the affairs of state are considered; it is a supervisor of the streets and roads; it is a social friend, a promoter of friendship and good will.—Printers' Ink.

Hustling for News.

A great many people think a newspaper should have about a page of local news whether anything happens or not. Deluded mortals! Local editors cannot make people break their necks, commit suicide or do any of the other exciting things that go to make up the material out of which the local reporter delights to weave paragraphs. Furnishing domestic news when there is none is very much like extracting blood from a turnip. It is no more than fair that those who grumble at the lack of local news in their paper should stop and think whether they could not give the editor an item or two worth printing, and, if so, let them hold their peace or growl at their own remissness.

Hints to Correspondents.

Write on only one side of the paper. Do not refer to people by their initials. Be brief, do not abbreviate any words. Avoid personal items as far as possible. Write legibly, especially all proper names. Get the news, the whole news and nothing but the news. Do not write an item that will be understood by only a few of our readers. Always sign your name, not necessarily for publication, but for the protection of the public.

Vindictive Correspondents.

Granting some people the privilege of contributing to the columns of a newspaper is very much like placing a stick in the hands of a small child. They immediately have an irresistible desire to hit somebody or break something. It is so convenient to sit comfortably at their own desk and bring down a ringing whack on some one's defenses, that they cannot forego trying the experiment.

Delinquent Subscribers Must Pay Up.

One of those unreasonable men who take a newspaper for a year or two and then send it back "refused" or "not wanted" was sued by a publisher in Michigan a short time ago, and the judge gave a verdict for the plaintiff of full amount and costs. The court decided that notice to discontinue was not sufficient if the subscriber was in arrears. He must pay first.

Can't Swindle Newspaper Readers.

It has been reliably ascertained that out of 185 cases of successful swindling throughout the state by traveling sharpers, in various ways, by which people of the rural districts were robbed, some to the extent of thousands of dollars, only nine or ten were subscribers or readers of the home county papers.

Axes to Grind.

"Why don't you give this fellow or that fellow a piece?" "Why don't you touch up this or that concern?" These are questions addressed to the newspaper man by persons unable to fight their own battles.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colic. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles and have cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. A. Klein's Drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

EVERY PATRIOT

should read a good newspaper. In the selection of a newspaper many considerations should govern. First, it should be one that endeavors to give all the news without prejudice. It should be neatly printed on good paper. It should be independent—in favor of all that is good, upright, clean. Such a newspaper is

The Patriot, is under new management—enlarged, handsome, bold in the right fearless in denouncing wrong; is always and unswervingly Democratic. It is the only Democratic newspaper at the State Capitol. It makes a specialty of Department News. It is the only paper in Central Pennsylvania that receives and prints full Associated Press Reports, obtained by it over its own wires. It presents each day Special Correspondence from all points tributary to Harrisburg, all the Harrisburg News, Fashion Notes, Household Hints, Domestic Recipes, Society Gossip, Scientific, Humorous and Political Articles, Short Stories and Sketches. Its Market Reports are complete, both as to Finance and Commerce. Its Live Stock Markets are prepared especially for THE PATRIOT, and have only been successfully imitated by one other newspaper in the State. The Saturday Sermon of Rev. Dr. Spurgeon, of London, is a great feature.

THE PATRIOT wants the readers turned out or locked up. To this end it heartily urges the election of Wright and Tilden as the only means to stop the plundering of the public treasury.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT, 8 pages, is only $1 a year. It maintains the best features of the daily, including the Spurgeon Sermon. First take your home paper, then it. Send for circulars and sample copies (free) of either daily or weekly.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below: KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Dr. R. J. KENDALL Co., BREVETED, PA., Nov. 27, '90.

Gentle—I would like to make known to those who are almost persuaded to use Kendall's Spavin Cure the fact that I think it is a most excellent Liniment. I have used it on a Blood Spavin. The horse went on three legs for three years when I commenced to use your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I used ten bottles on the horse and have worked him for three years since and has not been lame.

Yours truly, W. M. A. CUEL, Germantown, N. Y., Nov. 2, 1892.

Dr. R. J. KENDALL Co., Enonburg Falls, Va.

Gentle: In praise of Kendall's Spavin Cure I will say that a year ago I had a valuable young horse become very lame, hock enlarged and swollen. The horsemen about here (we have no Veterinary Surgeon here) pronounced his lameness Blood Spavin or Thoroughpin, they all told me there was no cure for it, he became almost useless, and I considered him almost worthless. A friend told me of the merits of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, so I bought a bottle, and I could see very plainly great improvement immediately from its use, and before the bottle was used up I was satisfied that it was doing him a great deal of good. I bought a second bottle and before it was used up my horse was cured and has been in the team doing heavy work all the season since last April, showing no more signs of it. I consider your Kendall's Spavin Cure a valuable medicine, and it should be in every stable in the land. Respectfully yours, EUGENE DEWITT.
